Judgment begins first in the House of God (I Peter 4:17), and it is here where we must first lay the blame. A man this [and all the delites, so] duplicitous, this morally bankrupt, this depraved could only appeal to a people as equally compromised as he. Far too many have allowed the allure of political power to overshadow their commitment to Biblical principles, forfeiting both power and principles in the process." - Last week I posted Part 2, the week before that Part 1. • "Trump's RNC, Doomed Gay Satanic Bullshit – America Deserves This" (Excerpts:) "...it seems unlikely that God would do a divine intervention to promote abortion, gay sex, a melding of Hinduism and Christianity, and war for the Christ-killing Jews. Again, I don't claim to know the plan of God, but I am fully comfortable saying that I'm sure he doesn't support any of those things which defined the RNC and the Trump 2024 platform...Remember that Trump did a multi-week tour condemning states for restricting abortion too much. Everything against homosexuality and trannyism has been removed from the platform. There is no more idea of protecting marriage. This stuff is all gone...Donald Trump is a game show host who is very charismatic but also a total shill for a foreign (Jewish) country...He also made the stupid, false claim that Putin is 'trying to take all of the Ukraine'. No one believes that. Putin has a peace plan on the table that says he keeps four provinces and Crimea...Leave the country, go live in a rural area, do whatever you have to do to prevent getting sent to fight one of these wars. But do not go along with this nonsense. Do not believe the hype. The logical thing for any man to do right now, in this situation, is to run. It says it in the Bible. 'Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; He will render unto her a recompense. Babylon hath been a golden cup in the Lord's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.'

(Jer.51:6-9)...Most people are getting what they deserved. They have drank of her iniquities. How many abortions? How much love for the sodomites? How much gluttony? How much fornication? How many dead in these wars? How much blood is on the hands of the American people? How great then will be the vengeance of the Lord?...God acts in the world. And chickens come home to roost. Just get out of the way of the Beast. Nothing good can come of it." -

(Excerpts:) "Central bankers themselves have admitted that the pandemic played a key role in accelerating the mass abandonment of cash and adoption of contactless, mobile and online payments...since the pandemic, the private sector has turbocharged its anti-cash drive as Big Finance, Big Tech and Big Retail have weaponised the public's temporary fear of physical contact to amplify the anti-cash automation agenda that they already had. But at the same time, the amount of cash in circulation has actually surged in many jurisdictions. When the pandemic began, central banks around the world recorded a sharp increase in cash withdrawn from ATMs while at the same time registering a sharp fall in transactional usage of cash. Put simply, people still wanted cash but often as a means of storing their money outside the banking system at a time of crisis...the most vulnerable in society will ultimately bear the costs of a cashless economy...citizens and businesses have had their fair share of warnings about the fragility of cashless economics."

(Excerpts:) "In a world where reality often seems stranger than fiction, the machinations behind global events can be an enigma wrapped in mystery. [And upon her forehead was a name written, Mystery, Babylon The Great, The Mother Of Harlots And Abominations Of The Earth. (Rev.17:5)] One such intrigue revolves around Deagel.com, an obscure online entity known for its exhaustive data on military capabilities and eyebrow-raising depopulation forecasts for 2025. We can reveal that recent findings appear to link Deagel directly to significant players on the world stage: The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD)/ The Pentagon, and The Rockefeller Foundation. And current real-world data on excess deaths in the West strongly suggest Deagel's depopulation forecast is not just an estimation but in fact, a target that is on track to be hit thanks to the deadly effects of Covid-19 vaccination... These pieces of evidence and connections warrant vigilant scrutiny of the actors operating behind the curtain of global affairs. As we dissect the intricate web of relations between these entities and their associations with Deagel's dire depopulation forecasts, we're reminded of the potential influence they wield over our shared future. In our quest to understand the truth, the lines between factual happenings, covert operations, and speculation become increasingly critical, yet convoluted. But it's in this very complexity that the urgency of our vigilance and understanding is underscored. For in the balance hangs our ability to navigate the future, informed, aware, and with eyes wide open.":

for not smiling, or not smiling correctly? Honestly, I'd rather see no smile than a fake, contrived, beguiling one! Yes, "a merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance" (Prov. 15:13a), but the Word also says, "Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He shall lift you up." (Jam. 4:8b-10) Joy comes from what we know in Christ, not from what we feel. Leveraging forced-smiling is akin to legislating righteousness! Phony, fake and anti-genuine!

(Excerpt:) "An AI-supporting NGO run by former British Prime Minister Tony Blair, along with the CEOs of two of the world's top providers of biometric digital IDs are calling on the new British government to ramp up the country's march toward a forced digital ID for all citizens. The Tony Blair Institute for Global Change, which advises government leaders worldwide, is also calling for a new global digital ID system powered by artificial intelligence. The institute published a paper in May 2024 titled 'Governing in the Age of AI: A New Model to Transform the State'. According to an article at the website Biometric Update, UK Member of Parliament Peter Kyle, the new Secretary of State for Science, Innovation and Technology, is being pressured to speed up the government's implementation of digital IDs...With AI-powered data-driven policymaking, global technocrats will eventually make the case for a world without elected political leaders. I venture that most of the world has. And with profusions of satanic evils flooding today's world, many are asking, "Will this man of sin be revealed now or soon?" Bible prophecy states we will not see the Antichrist until a confederacy of 10 kings rules the whole world. When? How? From where? Will they even be of this world? Explore astonishing possibilities from a Biblical foundation with Daniel Clarke, host of the YouTube channel "Jesus Explains" and endtimesofficial.com (<http://endtimesofficial.com/>) website. "There's no need to be confused about Bible prophecy", Daniel explains. "God is not the author of confusion, but He is the Master of mystery and intrigue! And guided by His prophetic Word, He expects us to solve these mysteries!":

• Comment from Stephen Strutt on the above article and vid:

"The article nails it when it mentions how the Pharisees (and, in modern times, the intellectuals and skeptics) don't want the real truth of ancient prophecy. They are always making up their own interpretations. The Book of 2Esdras was written, in Hebrew, by Ezra the prophet around 500 BC. A copy of it was taken to the Library of Alexandria (the greatest library in the world) at the beginning of the Grecian Empire, where it was translated into Greek circa 300 BC (the Library of Alexandria housed up to about 1,000,000 books in its heyday), and it was that translation that became the official version of 2Esdras, thus giving it a much greater circulation and readership amongst the citizens of Greece. The Greeks paid large sums for original copies of books from the nations that comprised their new empire, so they could be translated into Greek; and since the prestige and fame of the Grecian Empire was so great, the translated versions (such as 2Esdras) became known as the originals (in spite of the fact they had been translated from their original language). Thus, it is the same, for example, regarding the Books of Enoch (of which there are three) and other Apocrypha books. And this is why there are sources that say the Apocrypha and other ancient Hebrew books were written much later than they actually were. In my view, the rationale for this propaganda is that the present satanic world is desperate to cover-up and bury the truth — from Creation to the Second Coming of Christ! Hence, authors such as Enoch have been relegated to a pseudepigraphal-writer status, which means not to be attributed to the original author but rather to some scribe much later in time. It is very easy to prove God's Truth versus Satan's chicanery to those who have ears to hear and eyes to see. Satan is relentless in interjecting doubts and uncertainties into history at every turn, but the diligent will search and be rewarded with the Truth!" - "And ye shall

>  From a truly dedicated, consummate, Middle-East missionary:

"Will Muslims Go to Heaven?"

Over the years, many people have asked me, "Are Muslims are going to Hell or not? What's the deal with Muslims? They say they worship 'God', but is it the same God as our 'God', just a different name being that it's in Arabic, 'Allah'? They seem sincere. Is it a religion from the Devil? Are they going to Hell because they don't believe in Jesus?" These are good questions, and I, too, had these questions when I first arrived in the Middle East and had to sort them out for myself, since I'm living here. Doctrinal questions are tricky, but below is what I've come up with, after living here for many years and seeking the Lord about this topic. I hope it's helpful in giving you love, wisdom, patience and insight not only if the Lord brings anyone of the Muslim faith across your path, but for anyone who is sincerely looking for the truth.

Many Muslims love God with all their heart and are very sincere. Basically, it's just like how Abraham and people worshipped before Jesus came — they just worshipped "God". It's like Old Testament worship; they're kind of stuck in the Old Testament era: Lots of rules and "works" involved, God is strict, and one never quite knows where one stands with God from day to day. Muslims believe in Jesus as a prophet and healer, but not as the Savior. In the Koran, Jesus is called "The Healer". Muslims have asked me to pray for their healing in Jesus' name, since they have faith that He can heal them. But they just haven't come to that "turning point", as people did 2000 years ago, when the Jewish religion basically got “updated” to switch from Old Testament worship to receiving Jesus as Savior and God. Yet, that turning point might come when Jesus comes for the second time, the Millennium starts, and we’ll be reigning, ruling and witnessing on the earth with Jesus.

I think in the Millennium we'll have a lot of work witnessing to Muslims and other sincere people who were close to salvation, but not quite there yet. Here are a couple of scriptures I received on this topic: There was a Scribe who came to Jesus asking, “Which is the greatest commandment?” And Jesus answered, “The Lord our God is one Lord. And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.” (Muslims basically have this same quote in Islam.) And the Scribe answered, “You are right, Jesus, you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.” And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, He said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” (Mark 12:28-24) So I think Muslims are “not far” from the Kingdom. They’re getting close and on the right path, but not quite there yet. Pray for them.

Also, Jesus said He has “other sheep”. They're still sheep, and will come in time. So, it's important not to just write people off as “goats”. Speaking of the future, Jesus said, “And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.” (John 10:16) Eventually we'll all be together — it will just take time. That's why it's important to be the best Christian sample that we can be to everyone we meet and witness to. Like Mahatma Gandhi said, “I might have become a Christian, but I just never met one who was a good sample of a Christian.” Now, that's sad. Just think how Gandhi could have influenced the world if he had been turned on to Jesus!

Sometimes Muslims are like Nicodemus, who worshipped Jesus secretly. They're sincere, hungry and searching, but it's just difficult for them to wrap their head around the whole concept of Jesus dying for us. They can't “figure” it out in the flesh, and spiritual things are too hard to understand. Like Nicodemus kept saying, “How can these things be?” (John 4:9) Love and patience are required. (And it was Nicodemus who brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes after Jesus was crucified and came to help bury Jesus along with Joseph of Arimathea. [John 19])

In the Millennium, I think my job will be to witness to the Muslims I've ministered to here for many years. I have fed them, clothed them and met their physical needs. But in the Millennium, I will be able to minister to their spiritual needs as well. They know me, trust me and know that I love them, understand how they think, am familiar with their customs and have given my life for them in this life. I've had many questions about Muslims and salvation, especially when I first arrived here, and the above are some of the answers the Lord has given me — so different from some "church people" who say Muslims are going to Hell. "The first shall be last and the last will be first." (Matthew 20:16) Like Jesus said about the publicans and prostitutes, that the prostitutes and sinners would enter heaven before the Scribes and Pharisees. (Matthew 21:31) It's all about a sincere and hungry heart. And it's all about love and loving people into the Kingdom — not arguing doctrine. God bless you with a loving and winning witness. Sending love and prayers in His wonderful name!

"Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the Day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light." (Rom. 13:8,10-12)
