(Excerpts from video's intro:) "Veteran weather modification expert Ben Livingston is a former Navy Physicist who briefed President Lyndon B. Johnson on the effectiveness of weather control back in the 1960's during the Vietnam era, when he was involved in cloud seeding programs that worked to slow down the advance of Vietnamese and Korean troops. Livingston asserts that hurricane control was a national priority of the government more than 40 years ago and that the technology was fully operational to control the weather at the time. Livingston explains how for decades the US government has had the power to both lessen and increase the severity of adverse weather for their own purposes...Livingston exposes how the devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina could have been greatly minimized but was allowed to fully impact Gulf states for political reasons. Having personally flown on 265 missions into the eyes of hurricanes, Livingston remarks that he was 'disgusted' by the failure to lessen the impact of Katrina. Livingston's revelations that weather control has been a decades long program in which the US government has been deeply involved are particularly alarming given the abundant modern-day evidence of how chemtrails are being used to warp our environment in a secret geoengineering plot that threatens a myriad of unknown human health and ecological consequences.":

• VERY, very interesting insights and dissection of Middle East events. It's long, but along with its photos, some footage, headlines, it's definitely worth it. The articles closes with the following, perhaps very noteworthy to keep in mind going forward?: "As a last pertinent update, on the heels of Iran's strikes, Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Faisal bin Farhan met with Iran's president in Doha, Qatar in a symbolic opening of a new chapter of rapprochement. Something tells me this isn't the 'new Middle East' Netanyahu wants: Just a day after Iran's missile attack, Saudi Arabia's Foreign Minister meets with Iran's president, declaring that Saudi Arabia wants to 'permanently close the chapter on our differences'....he also called Iran's strikes on Israel 'retaliatory attacks' (meaning they were justified) and said Saudi Arabia 'trusted Iran's wisdom and discernment in managing the situation and contributing to the restoration of calm and peace in the region'. Underscoring the historic meeting, the foreign minister...highlighting Saudi Arabia's commitment to establishing an independent Palestinian state, with its capital in East Jerusalem, and no diplomatic relations with Israel until such time...So, snubbing Israel while meeting with Iran's president...It seems the last remaining silver linings are quickly turning to lead for Israel."

>    "MIND-BLOWING REVELATION: Why It's IMPOSSIBLE to 'Vaccinate' Against Anything and Why 'Vaccines' Are the PERFECT POISONS - Please stop and think about the implications of what's explained here."

(Excerpts:) "THIS is why eugenicists like Bill Gates love 'vaccines'. Retired pharma R&D executive Sasha Latypova describes for James Delingpole how 'vaccines', essentially, work in the exact opposite way as we're told they do—meaning it's literally impossible to make a vaccine that does anything but poison somebody. While we're told that 'vaccines' work by giving us a small amount of a toxic substance—e.g. a bacteria or virus—in turn allowing us to create immunity against future infections, what the injections actually do is make us vulnerable to said toxins. Furthermore, 'vaccines' prime our bodies to react badly to anything that's injected into us, including benign substances like milk or egg proteins. Hence the proliferation of allergies, such as allergies to milk, eggs, wheat, peanuts, etc...It's acceptable to poison people. It's acceptable to sterilize people. It's acceptable to lie to people, because it's for the greater good.

Partial transcription of 4.03 min vid (link below):

"One of the historical examples, Katherine [Watt] and I ran into, and this became a huge epiphany for me is Charles Richet, who was a French researcher in that time. So he worked in the early 1900s. In 1913, he was given the Nobel Prize for this work, and he is credited with the work on anaphylaxis, although he wasn't the only one, but so he received the Nobel Prize. And so that to me, you know, opened so much. Why didn't I see this before? But, basically, when you look at this work and then when you look what preceded and what went after, you kind of understand a few things.

First of all, everybody who is, let's say, closely familiar with this history and work cannot think that it's possible to vaccinate. It's impossible to vaccinate for anything. And Richet has demonstrated it conclusively and was given the Nobel Prize for it...because he figured out how to poison everyone by sensitizing them to the most commonly occurring things in their environment. It's the most ingenious way of poisoning.

He was a committed eugenicist. And at that time, everyone should realize, eugenicism was a fashionable society attitude. All the well-to-do classes were subscribing to it. The web of good breeding was always promoted. And, at the time, the sentiment was, 'Well, how can we help the poor being less dirty and less numerous? And, also known as, kill them. Because this side of them is so offensive to us when we ride our horses through the park and then there's like them. What can we do about it?' And 'What can we do about it' became into 'Let's figure out how to control their overbreeding because they tend to reproduce too much, and they tend to live in crowded conditions, and they tend to have poor hygiene and no sanitation.'

So instead of working on those issues, they will decide, 'Oh, let's vaccinate them.' And, actually, the same thing continues with Bill Gates in Africa and India for the same reason. But all of these thoughts extended now to us, to normal people. Now all of the globalists, the elites [I call them the delites!], they all think of us that way. That's what people need to understand. The eugenicists never went away. They all still think that way. They all still think that they should poison us and limit our reproduction because we're polluting the earth now. We're causing climate change. Whatever those ideas are, but they're brainwashing themselves and their followers into thinking that, 'This is actually acceptable. It's acceptable to poison people. It's acceptable to sterilize people. It's acceptable to lie to people, because it's for the greater good.' So what started with Richet continues today.":

(Excerpts:) "In a few days, on October 7, the Israeli regime will have conducted 12 months of non-stop genocidal destruction of Gaza. There is no sign of that monstrous war of extermination coming to an end. The Israeli regime is completely out of control, acting with impunity and shocking violation of all laws and moral norms. (Excerpts:) "Never before have there been massive excess deaths following vaccination. Never before have there been children, young adults, athletes in their prime, entertainers, dropping dead 'cause unknown' following vaccination. Of course, the cause is known...Yet the coverup continues. The western media—a collection of whores—are at work covering up for themselves as well as for Fauci, Biden, Bill Gates, Big Pharma, the FDA, NIH, CDC, and the utterly corrupt and irresponsible medical profession. Big Pharma and the FDA continue to push jabbing babies with the killer vaccine, and there are still parents so utterly stupid and insouciant that they participate in the murder of their own children. With people all over the world so stupid and so blindly trusting of authority, we can see why the Satanic Bill Gates and Satanic Klaus Schwab are confident that they can succeed in reducing the world population and effecting their Great Reset...The perpetrators of mass genocide are still in control...Americans—indeed the world—are faced with a monstrous criminal enterprise. >  We cannot ignore the symbolism of Trump paying tribute to Schneerson on the anniversary of the Oct. 7 attack which kicked off the cabalist charade leading to WW3. Schneerson basically called for the collapse of civilization and the genocide of non-Jews. The symbolism of Donald Trump's visit to the grave of Rabbi Schneerson on the anniversary of Oct 7 is clear. According to Schneerson, the goyim were created to serve the Jews. Does Trump's visit signify that if he wins in November, America will go to war on Israel's behalf? Who in their right mind would support that, and the machiavellian mouth that uttered these Jesus-hating words: "A non-Jewish soul comes from three satanic spheres, while the Jewish soul stems from holiness." — The Chabad-Lubavitcher Rebbe, Menachem Mendel Schneerson.
