> This week we have the 6th installment of our study from the "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve" on the degrees and depths of deception Satan tried in order to tease, lure, deceive, beguile, seduce, distract, scare, manipulate, and even kill Adam and Eve after they had been sent out of the Garden! This next skirmish with Satan takes place in chapter 33; however, to grasp the full scope of the attack, we need to examine chapter 32 as well.

Chapter 32 - Adam and Eve go into the water to pray.

1 And Adam and Eve remained in the Cave of Treasures until the seventh day; they neither ate of the fruit of the earth, nor drank water.

2 And when it dawned on the eighth day, Adam said to Eve, "O Eve, we prayed God to give us somewhat from the garden, and He sent His angels who brought us what we had desired. [Adam is referring to the shining golden rods, mentioned at the end of chapter 29.]

3 But now, arise, let us go to the sea of water we saw at first, and let us stand in it, praying that God will again be favourable to us and take us back to the garden; or give us something; or that He will give us comfort in some other land than this in which we are." [As Stephen Strutt mentions on page 94 of his book, "Eden Insights", Adam and Eve are not accepting the fact that Garden of Eden is history! There's no way they're going to get back in; they've been banished. And their grief appears to have blinded them from that reality!]

4 Then Adam and Eve came out of the cave, went and stood on the border of the sea in which they had before thrown themselves [This took place in chapter 9, in their anguish from being ousted from the Garden of Eden.], and Adam said to Eve, 5 "Come, go down into this place, and come not out of it until the end of thirty days, when I shall come to thee. And pray to God with fervent heart and a sweet voice, to forgive us.

6 And I will go to another place, and go down into it, and do like thee."

7 Then Eve went down into the water, as Adam had commanded her. Adam also went down into the water [not with Eve; he went to "another place" to get in the water]; and they stood praying; and besought the Lord to forgive them their offence, and to restore them to their former state.

8 And they stood thus praying, unto the end of the five-and-thirty days.

So, that's the setting—with Adam in one location, praying in the water, and Eve in the other location, doing the same.

Chapter 33 - Satan falsely promises the "bright light".

1 But Satan, the hater of all good, sought them in the cave, but found them not, although he searched diligently for them. ["Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." (1Pet.5:7) Yep, he's always diligently on the prowl! Which is why we need to stay close to the Lord, "at all times" (Psa.34:1), and "diligently seek Him"! (Heb.11:6)]

2 But he found them standing in the water praying and thought within himself, "Adam and Eve are thus standing in that water beseeching God to forgive them their transgression, and to restore them to their former estate, and to take them from under my hand. [Even though they were praying for forgiveness, could it be because they were praying for something that was not in accordance with God's Will, that this is what allowed the Enemy to get in?]

3 But I will deceive them so that they shall come out of the water, and not fulfil their vow."

4 Then the hater of all good, went not to Adam, but he went to Eve, and took the form of an angel of God, praising and rejoicing, and said to her, [The ol' divide-and-conquer technique, coupled with "and no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light" (2Cor.11:14), and accessorised with fake "praising and rejoicing"!—A rotten recipe indeed!] 5 "Peace be unto thee! Be glad and rejoice! God is favourable unto you [Blatantly spreading lies in the name of God!], and He sent me to Adam. I have brought him the glad tidings of salvation, and of his being filled with bright light as he was at first.

6 And Adam, in his joy for his restoration, has sent me to thee, that thou come to me, in order that I crown thee with light like him.

7 And he said to me, 'Speak unto Eve; if she does not come with thee, tell her of the sign when we were on the top of the mountain; how God sent His angels who took us and brought us to the Cave of Treasures; and laid the gold on the southern side; incense, on the eastern side; and myrrh on the western side.' Now come to him." [Bam! He seduces Eve with fake news, coated with and encapsulating exactly what she wants to hear: That restoration has come, that bright-light living is back, and everything is going to be hunky-dory! Words like "Peace", "Be glad and rejoice", that there had been a sign ("For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."—Mat.24:24).

Certainly Eve did not understand what God's Will was at this point in their lives, thus leaving her easy prey even whilst praying! "Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is." (Eph.5:17)]

8 When Eve heard these words from him, she rejoiced greatly. And thinking that Satan's appearance was real, she came out of the sea. ["Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment." (Jn.7:24)]

9 He went before, and she followed him until they came to Adam. Then Satan hid himself from her, and she saw him no more. [Satan even had the audacity to lead the way! And Eve, totally mesmerized by his message, followed obediently! And then, poof!—Satan vanishes! What was she thinking then? "Never mind. I'll go to Adam now, so we can resume the good ol' days!"?]

10 She then came and stood before Adam, who was standing by the water and rejoicing in God's forgiveness.

11 And as she called to him, he turned round, found her there and wept when he saw her, and smote upon his breast; and from the bitterness of his grief, he sank into the water. ["How often they disobeyed Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!" (Psa.78:40 BSB) Disobedience is grievous, not only to God, but also for those who are depending on us to trust and obey. Obviously Adam instantly knew that Eve had been deceived whilst alone, again!]

12 But God looked upon him and upon his misery, and upon his being about to breathe his last. [So anguished was Adam, he was about to do himself in!] And the Word of God came from heaven, raised him out of the water, and said unto him, "Go up the high bank to Eve." [PTL! God saved him from self-harm, and to keep going for Eve's sake.] And when he came up to Eve he said unto her, "Who said to thee 'come hither'?"

13 Then she told him the discourse of the angel who had appeared unto her and had given her a sign.

14 But Adam grieved, and gave her to know it was Satan. He then took her and they both returned to the cave. [Good idea, you two: stay together and pray together! By now, Adam appears to be getting the point that they are going to have to be more resistant because Satan is persistent!]

15 These things happened to them the second time they went down to the water, seven days after their coming out of the garden.

16 They fasted in the water thirty-five days; altogether forty-two days since they had left the garden.

Our next sojourn through "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve" will expose how the fiery serpent is still hot on the trail of God's crowning creation!

"The cult that murders Gaza"

(Excerpts:) "...the war on Gaza. It is so brutal and the Zionist behavior is so alien to me that I lack words to describe it...I have difficulties to understand how anyone, any group of people, could set themselves so far outside of the common human realm, as I perceive it, and commit itself to starve and genocide millions of people. Yasha Levine helped me to get a grip on it: '... I came across this...a brief statement by a celebrity Chabad rabbi about his thoughts on the proper  way to wage a war in the Jewish style..."I don't believe in western morality, i.e. don't kill civilians or children, don't destroy holy sites, don't fight during holiday seasons, don't bomb cemeteries, don't shoot until they shoot first because it is immoral. The only way to fight a moral war is the Jewish way: Destroy their holy sites. Kill men, women and children (and cattle). The first Israeli prime minister who declares that he will follow the Old Testament will finally bring peace to the Middle East...." (Rabbi Manis Friedman, Bais Chana Institute of Jewish Studies, St. Paul, MN)...Friedman's views are basically mainstream in Israel and in Jewish communities around the world. What he described as the only proper, godly way to wage war against the enemies of Israel is in fact what Israel is currently doing in Gaza and beyond...with total support from the United States and the Europeans.'...How can

The best presentation of this chapter that I've ever heard! A definite must-absorb! (Description:) "David Pawson explores the reasons for the Song of Songs being in our Bibles. It has no mention of God or anything of a particularly spiritual nature, yet rabbis treat it as very holy. David says, for Hebrews there is one God who made the physical and the spiritual and physical is good - whereas in the West we have been influenced by Greek thinking which separates the two. 'Here in the Bible, God is affirming love between a man and woman.' David says the Bible is a story of how God went looking for a bride for his Son; it is a love letter to us. It is a love story from beginning to end. Song of Songs was written by Solomon and David Pawson fits the pieces of the romance between Solomon and his love interest together for us. He says, at the heart of our religion is a very personal relationship; being a Christian is being in love with the Lord. God always speaks of his relationship with his people in terms of family relationships. Jesus Christ says he is the Bridegroom. Our relationship with the Lord is not erotic, but it is emotional.":

"...next pope...an American liberal from Obama's Chicago stomping grounds.
Here's all you need to know about the new pope, Cardinal Robert Prevost, now
Pope Leo XIV, from The Hill: 'The new pope is considered an ally of Francis, who made him the cardinal in charge of selecting and managing bishops around the world... Francis named Prevost in 2023 to be prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops and president of the Pontifical Commission for Latin America. The role involves recommending candidates for bishops to the pope and overseeing the commission that studies the Catholic church in Latin America, according to the Catholic News Service

(Excerpts:) "Gov. Bob Ferguson ignored pleas from Catholic priests and signed a new law stripping members of the clergy of their ability to hear confessions as 'privileged communication'. I may not be a lawyer, but that clearly violates the 1st Amendment. The state legislature passed SB 5375, targeting the confessional and requiring priests and ministers to report any confession involving potential child abuse...The law, titled an ACT Relating to the duty of clergy to report child abuse and neglect, is a direct attack on the Catholic and other Christian churches. It redefines 'member of the clergy' to include every imaginable religious person...These politicians are smart enough to know it would deal a devastating blow to the Catholic Church...The officials in Washington appear to be prepared to imprison priests. ## "India vs Pakistan | We Have A New War"

(Excerpts:) "A brand new theatre of 'global conflict' has opened up, and theatre is the only word for it. It is the first armed conflict between two supposed nuclear powers, and nobody much seems to mind. It is yet another example of the total society-wide amnesia regarding the 'mutually assured destruction' principle. Further, there seem to be no perceivable victory conditions or reason for being...Those allegedly responsible have yet to be apprehended or even publicly identified. No evidence of any link to Pakistan has been publicly presented either. It seems to have been a totally random act of violence, conducted by persons unknown for no reason at all...Remember the humanitarian 'pause' in Israel's bombing of Gaza to allow a Polio vaccination drive? Recall how, for a startlingly long time, Russia was still shipping gas to the EU through Ukraine, and still paying Ukraine for their trouble?...We're bombarded with wars and conflicts that make no sense on their own terms, and at the very least seem to be contested according to pre-arranged conditions and agreements...A 'limited nuclear engagement' - staged, one way or another - would be a great way to scare people into accepting some kind of new global world order to 'prevent future conflicts' that 'pose a threat to the planet'.":

• "India-Pakistan Fighting Escalating" - And control has escalated as well, as you'll read about in this article!

(Excerpts:) "The Pakistan-India conflict is one of the hardest to report on. The amount of misinformation is insane...their media spreads fake or twisted narratives. Independent voices are rare, and censorship is massive. India just issued an Executive Order to Social Media giant 'X' ordering them to make ~8,000 accounts unavailable in India!...that same Social media outlet (X) was previously unavailable inside Pakistan, but that ban has been LIFTED by Pakistan...I have to take everything I see, photos, videos, statements from officials, with a huge grain of salt...INTEL assets and analysts are working to verify stuff, and even they struggle. That's how deep the fog of dis-info is already running in this conflict...Misinformation isn't just online; it fuels real-life hate, violence, and nationalist hysteria. People suffer while the truth gets buried. So if my reporting on this has been less saturated than commonplace in such situations, these are the reasons why...The conflict is significantly escalating and fast. This has now shifted from a series of tit-for-tat responses, to likely the beginning of one of the largest conflicts between India and Pakistan since the Indo-Pakistani War of 1971. We are rapidly approaching the 'point of no return' with regard to a possible full-scale war in Southern Asia. Officials in India have now been told to NOT TALK TO MEDIA. Media Outlets in India have been told NOT TO REPORT on successful attacks within their own country.":

Even IF you think voting for Trump or voting for Reform in the UK, will. [Because the right wing and the left wing and all the other feathers are the same bird! Different marchers; same brass Baal band!]...While there are key differences in the methods and scale of operation, the mafia and democratic governments share many similarities in how power is structured, maintained, and protected. Both rely on loyalty, control, coercion, and a hierarchical system where a small elite preserves its dominance, often at the expense of the public. Cities stand empty as the Chinese population goes into reverse" (Excerpts:) "...some analysts believe that China never surpassed a billion, and that the communist state has persistently exaggerated the number of people...A major fault in the official population figure is duplicate registration...rulers in Peking are not averse to propaganda. Whatever the truth, undoubtedly China is facing serious demographic challenges, exacerbated by a looming economic downturn...The change is dramatic, and recent...Why would the Chinese state continue to claim 1.4 billion inhabitants? In my book 'Green in Tooth and Claw', I explain the population paradox of people and power. Since the 1960s 'green' ideology has cast humans as polluters of the planet, and the depopulation agenda is sometimes overtly expressed. At the same time, Western nations have opened their borders to Asians and Africans, causing overcrowding in countries where the population would otherwise be stable or falling. How is building bigger cities and covering green land in concrete 'green'? The paradoxical strategy of the globalists is to get ordinary people to feel and suffer from the effects of overpopulation. Only then will they support dystopian interventions to control the number. In China, as unemployment soars, people will conclude that 1.4 billion is too many. Commentators on the new world order suggest that communist China was established as a laboratory for technocracy. It was first with the social credit system. # > < "Threat of Sanctions if Russia Refuses 30-Ceasefire in Ukraine will BACKFIRE; Cause Global Debt Spiral"

(Excerpts:) "Ukraine and the West want a 30-day ceasefire to shore-up Ukraine and Russia is not likely (at all) to fall into that trap. The West thinks it can force Russia to do so with the threat of oil sanctions, but as shown above, imposing those sanctions would push the Risk up on US Treasuries, to a yield level that will trigger unstoppable debt spiral and financial collapse of the United States. So the West is in a bind. Russia is not....Russia has all the energy it needs and the fuel to power that energy. Russia has all the food it needs. Russia has far more manufacturing now than in the past. Russia would be OK...foreign countries would likely have to halt accepting the US Dollar as payment because it is backed by nothing and the US Debt is now almost unserviceable.": https://halturnerradioshow.com/index.php/news-selections/world-news/threat-of-s anctions-if-russia-refuses-30-ceasefire-in-ukraine-will-backfire-cause-global-debtspiral

(Excerpts:) "As Beijing and Washington meet this weekend in Switzerland for trade talks, the Chinese economy is in more significant distress than is widely reported...China has become increasingly secretive with its economic data...under President Xi, the Chinese government has stopped publishing hundreds of data sets previously used to calculate the health of China's economy...The US-China Business Council notes that penalties [in China] for disclosing whatever is deemed a state secret range from three years' imprisonment to the death penalty...China is also continuing to endure a major crisis in its real estate sector...China is also suffering from a persistently high youth unemployment rate, which now stands at nearly 17%...Perhaps because of China's long-standing cultural tradition of "'mianzi', which translates to "saving face," President Xi has been defiant in the face of the American tariffs...Chinese leaders were also reportedly reluctant to reach out to the United States to start negotiations out of fears that they would appear weak. Instead, both sides are portraying their upcoming talks in Switzerland as a coincidence...'I was going to be in Switzerland to negotiate with the Swiss,' Secretary Bessent said in an interview on Fox News. • "Italy: Catholic Kindergarten Children Forced to Perform Islamic Prayer Without Parental Consent, Sparking Outrage" - Includes 3.10 min vid. (Excerpts:) "First Ramadan in churches, now kindergarten children taken to mosques to pray facing Mecca...young children from a Catholic kindergarten in Treviso were reportedly led in Islamic prayer during a school trip, without their parents knowing or giving consent...The school tried to spin this as a 'cultural exchange' and described it as an 'emotional experience'. They bragged about how the imam explained the five pillars of Islam and said the kids 'even tried' the prayer...Why are Catholic school kids being taken to a mosque to practice Islamic prayer, while Muslim kids aren't being brought to a Catholic church to kneel and pray to Jesus? In many Muslim-majority countries, Christians are persecuted for their faith, and it's unthinkable that Muslim parents would agree to their kids participating in Christian prayer. Simonetta Rubinato, president of the Italian Federation of Catholic Nursery Schools, tried to brush it off, saying that spirituality is part of the school's education approach. But she also admitted that each school decides for itself, basically passing the buck and refusing to take responsibility for this disaster.":

> 💥 "Shocking majority of Gen Z would marry AI if it was legal: poll" -

Whew! It's gone from conversing with, to dating, to now marrying Al! Question: If someone is married to AI (artificial intelligence), and undergoes AI (artificial insemination — hmmm, perhaps a chip implant?), what is the result? (Excerpts:) "A shocking portion of Generation Z say they could form a 'deep emotional bond' with an AI-generated partner — and would even consider marrying one, a new study found. 83% of the young people, born between 1997 and 2012, said they could develop a meaningful connection with a chatbot, while 80% said they would even consider marrying one — if it was legal, according to a poll of the most digitally native age group...A staggering 75% of Gen Zers also said they think AI partners have the potential to fully replace human companionship...Google searches for 'feelings for AI' rose 120% compared to last year and 'fell in love with AI' skyrocketed 132% between March and April alone. Experts say AI can also fill a void for stressed-out or lonely Gen

Recently I received a note from a KU reader, who said (excerpts:)
"I'm not going to stop saying whatever I like just because someone doesn't agree with me, and I don't care that people have blocked me. It is not a popularity contest here; it's critical information."

To whom I replied (excerpts:)

"Amen! Good on you! Way to go! Bravo! Keep knowing, keep growing, keeping showing the way to THE WAY! 'His delight is in the law of the LORD; And in His law doth he meditate day and night. This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.' (Psa.1:2; Jos.1:8; Deut.6:7)"

"What does 'vain thoughts' mean in Psalms 119:113? - 'I hate vain thoughts: but Thy law do I love.'"

(Excerpts:) "The Hebrew word behind 'double-minded' in the New King James Version or 'vain thoughts' in the King James Version is 'ce'eph', which refers to a person who is divided in his thoughts...A person who is plagued by doubts, who can never settle his mind on anything, will constantly be chasing after the latest fads in religion." - Case in point regarding "latest fads in religion" is, imo, the Scofield Bible scam!—Which I've KUed about plenty of times. "That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; but speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all *things, which is the head, even Christ." > 💥 "Give the Devil enough rope and he will hang himself!" I have personally experienced the elation of seeing this truth fulfilled in my own life against a persecutor set against me. "For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? But if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God." (1Pet.2:19-20) I will spare you the details of that almost 4-year battle in which patience was paramount, but ah!—To see the Devil's instrument overstep and then be driven away! Seeing my dear Lord Jesus unleash His divine defense still brings tears to my eyes! Following is an example of that same quote, albeit perhaps better worded: "Give the devils enough coke and they will expose themselves!" First spotted on Telegram, I've heard it's now gone viral! From henceforth, imo, all who shield these gangsters and carry on business as usual are criminal collaborators! On the way back from Kyiv, journalists unexpectedly entered the leaders' cabin with Starmer, Macron and Merz. German advisor Merz hides the coke spoon with his hands, while French President Macron creepily conceals the coke bag. The looks-don't-lie on their faces tell it all. BUSTED! And I can hear on the vids both Macron and Merz saying under their breath, "Merde!" (That's "shit" in French!) No wonder that a few days ago, Deputy Chairman of the Security Council of Russia Dmitry Medvedev suggested that French President Emmanuel Macron, Polish and British Prime Ministers Donald Tusk and Keir Starmer, and German Chancellor Friedrich Merz shove peace plans into their "pangender asses"! • "What were they hiding? — Macron & Merz caught in awkward moment on train to Kiev" - Includes .17 sec vid:

(Excerpt:) "The use of AI for grading also ignites ethical debates. Students like Aidan, a high schooler quoted in Futurism, argue that it's hypocritical for teachers to rely on AI while prohibiting students from doing the same. This double standard can erode trust, suggesting that teachers prioritize convenience over fairness. Moreover, outsourcing grading to AI risks diminishing the human connection that drives effective teaching. As the American Federation of Teachers emphasizes, 'Real, consequential learning only happens when teachers and students collaborate in an atmosphere of mutual trust.' Critics also warn of cognitive consequences. Over-reliance on AI could undermine students' critical thinking skills, a concern echoed by teachers like Gina Parnaby, who told Axios that AI can lead students to 'outsource their thinking' [aka zombification!]. This is particularly alarming for younger students, who lack the foundational knowledge to critically evaluate AI outputs.":

> [] Following on from what I posted yesterday about Gen Z's fawning over and fetish to fornicate with AI, here's a very interesting Bible study on the connection # between desire and idols! This excellent study highlights the fact that idolatry deceives, it costs, it robs, it enslaves, it pretends, and it celebrates! "Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen." (1Jn.5:21)

"Examples and Warnings, Part 2: Desires and Idols"

(Excerpt:) "And the people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play." [Exo.32:6b] They sat down to eat and drink, meaning, they had their ceremonial feast. And, having once celebrated the worship of their newfound god, they then rose to play. They, having satiated their appetites and assuaged their consciences through this ritual performance, got up. Having satisfied their desires for worship, however misdirected, frivolity ensued. 'We've done the ritual of our own making, now my conscience feels cleared, now we are ceremonially pure, now we can party. Let's celebrate.' That's the result of idolatry that is so clearly seen in our culture in the current moment...you need to have pride in it. you need to promote it and celebrate it, and you need to coerce everyone else into celebrating it. It's almost like they have a guilty conscience that won't go away, and they need everyone and everything to continually re-affirm to them that they're ok. You're not in sin. You're not accruing judgment from a Holy God. And so, to pacify the innate sense of immorality that every person has, idolaters need to continually reinforce the lie that they are OK. They need the world to celebrate, to chant and cheer in support of their sin, in order to drown out the inevitable voice of God reminding them that sin is not OK. Idolatry is not OK...Whatever the idol, it will command your praise. ["And all the world wondered* after the beast." (Rev.13:3b)] You'll be bound to it. Enslaved by it." - * The Greek word ἐθαυμάσθη (ethaumasthē) is the original for the word "wondered" in this verse; and because of the synonymous use with "worship" in the next verse (Rev.13:4), it takes on the meaning of "admire — to "render admiration for one's own advantage" (see https://theotivity.com/post/revelation-13-translation/):

(Excerpt:) "Oopart (out-of-place artifact) is a term applied to dozens of prehistoric objects found in various places around the world that seem to show a level of technological advancement incongruous with the times in which they were made. Many scientists attempt to explain them using natural phenomena. Others say such explanations ignore the mounting evidence that prehistoric civilizations possessed advanced technological knowledge that was lost throughout the ages only to be redeveloped in modern times. We will look at a variety of ooparts here ranging in purported origin from millions of years ago to merely hundreds of years ago, but all said to show advancement well ahead of their time. We do not claim that all or any of the ooparts are definitive evidence of advanced prehistoric civilizations, but rather attempt to provide a brief glimpse at what's known or hypothesized about these artifacts. This is not a comprehensive list of all ooparts, but it is a substantial sampling.":

> 🙌 "The Resurrection of Faith: Why Christian Men Are Returning to

Church" - WOW! PTL! God help them to become true Endtimes Men of Faith, strong in the WORD!

(Excerpts:) "This unexpected return flows from the crucible of recent years. The cultural upheavals of 2020—COVID-19 lockdowns, social unrest, and political polarization—left many young people grappling with isolation and existential questions. Mental health challenges, including rising rates of suicide and self-harm, have amplified the search for meaning...These new attendees hold the potential for growth, yet potential alone is not enough. For these seeds to take root and flourish, they need water, sunlight, and care—in other words, they need discipleship. These reports are more than numbers—they are stories of lives stirring, of young people seeking meaning in a world that often feels fragmented and hollow. Yet, as we stand on the cusp of this resurgence, we must not mistake attendance for achievement. The true goal is not how many fill the seats on Sunday but how many are transformed by the gospel, growing into mature disciples of Christ. What we have today are young men entering church with little to no model for what a faithful, biblical man looks like. [There are plenty of amazing models in the Jesus Revolution men who are still with us!] And we have a generation of older men who have little to no experience with disciple-making. [In the churches, yes, but you Jesus Revolution men have a lifetime of experience, being dedicated disciples yourselves!] In some cases, we have sons without fathers and fathers who were never sons—an orphaned generation. It's like a relay race where the baton was never passed. The young men are at the starting line, eager but unsure, while the older runners have slowed to a walk, having never been trained to hand off what they carry. [Yes, the churchy do-nothing dullards, but the Jesus Revolution men are mighty men, Word warriors, dedicated disciples and Endtime experts!] Discipleship demands intention: relationships that foster trust, spaces for honest questions, and resources to guide new believers on their journey. It's about showing what faith looks like in action, lived out amid life's complexities. The reward, however, is worth the effort. If we nurture these newcomers, we might be witnessing the dawn of a new Great Awakening.":

I'll end today with how I started, on the joy of the happy ending, that "all the promises of God in Him are yea, and in Him Amen." And "thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (2Cor.1:20; 1Cor.15:57) PTL!

Can Israel and Hamas really return to the negotiation table and stop the starvation and killing? Before the arrival of the Israeli delegation in Cairo, Egypt's Foreign Minister Badr Abdelatty held discussions with Qatari Foreign Minister Mohammed bin Abdulrahman AI Thani regarding collaborative efforts with the US to reinstate a ceasefire in Gaza. They also addressed the Arab-Islamic initiative for the recovery of Gaza and an upcoming international conference in Cairo involving the Palestinian Authority and the UN, which aims to achieve a comprehensive agreement with Hamas and facilitate the delivery of humanitarian aid to the area. The two ministers deliberated on the necessary actions to carry out the forthcoming steps for the implementation of the Arab-Islamic Plan, formulated by Egypt, aimed at the prompt recovery and reconstruction of Gaza. > # "Heavy gunfire, clashes in Libya's Tripoli after killing of militia leader - Interior Ministry urges residents to stay home and avoid movement, warning of further instability." - 14 years on, Libya is still a bloody mess—just the way the delites engineered and want it to be! They detested the fact that when Muammar Gaddafi led Libya, that Libya benefited from: 1. Free healthcare, 2. Free education, 3. Free electricity, 4. Free interest loans, 5. Banks were state-owned, 6. Mothers received $5,000 upon giving birth, 7. Newlyweds received $50,000 to find a home, 8. Unemployed Libyans received unemployment benefits—and more! DYOR.

(Excerpts:) "The United Nations has called for urgent de-escalation in Libya's capital, Tripoli, as rival gunmen exchanged fire in the city's southern districts after the killing of a powerful militia leader, with authorities imposing an emergency

lockdown. The appeal early on Tuesday came as residents reported hearing heavy gunfire and explosions across multiple neighbourhoods...Libya plunged into chaos following a NATO-backed uprising that toppled and killed Libyan leader Muammar Gaddafi in 2011. The oil-rich nation has been governed for most of the past decade by rival governments in eastern and western Libya, each backed by an array of fighter groups and foreign governments...the renewed clashes have prompted anger and worry. People are angry that every time these armed groups clash, civilians are caught in the crossfire...residents are demanding 'accountability'...When these groups fight and people are killed, no one is held responsible.":
