So as not to further lengthen this KU, in light of the first item below, the next installment of our study from "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve" will appear in KU186.

Below is a condensed version of a response from a Key Updates reader to the posting in KU183/16 April entitled, "The First LIVING AI Is Here... And It's More Demonic Than You Think"

(https://youtu.be/6u3rzbJPQ0E?si=hNXvxlUciA_YRHXu). To access the reader's full response, go to: <https://endtimeupgrade.org/give-life-unto-the-image-how/>

"Give Life unto the Image" – How?

Although the podcaster did a good job of explaining neuron-activated computers, I don't think that he was right in connecting that to "he had power to give life unto the image of the beast". (Revelation 13:15) In recent times, the science world has invented computers that can use human neurons that, apparently, greatly augment computer capacity. Artificial Intelligence (AI) has done the same — augmenting the realism of images and humanoid apparatuses.

In Revelation 13:15 it says, "he had power to give life unto the image of the beast". Do these new technologies provide evidence for the rise of an AI-activated and/or human-neuron activated robot idol or image of the final Beast

(the Antichrist)? Sounds reasonable. Or is there good reason to interpret this phrase in Revelation 13:15 in an altogether different way? Did the Apostle John's 1st century perspective on image making influence his description of his Revelation experience?

I believe an AI-doctored "image of the beast", the Antichrist, misses the mark; it has to be a real image — not computerized. Why? Because few people would want to worship an image or a robot idol they suspect could be fake. The phenomenon known as the "Uncanny Valley Syndrome/Effect" explains how the more lifelike humanoids are, the creepier they become. See:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Uncanny_valley

But could the use of human neurons be used by evil spirits to possess a computer, thereby bestowing aspects of human life to a computer-driven humanoid? Maybe, but, in my view, there seems little point in using AI-powered or neuron-activated robots or images as objects of worship. Why? Because the needed technology is already here and has been for years.

Consider broadcasting technology. It has the extraordinary capacity to create real, live, speaking images, and distribute them into every corner of the world in a moment of time. Broadcasted real images of a charismatic leader could generate worship far more easily and effectively than any kind of AI-activated image could ever hope for. Why? The world will know they're beholding the Antichrist himself — not some fake, crafted version of him.

In our modern, scientific, secular culture, the lack of superstition and belief in the supernatural demands that whatever image is used to promote worship of the Antichrist must be completely real.

Radio was the first medium to demonstrate this uncanny ability to convey to the public the dynamic presence of a political leader. (Several dynamic political leaders, particularly in the early to mid-20th century, leveraged the power of radio to connect with the public and shape political discourse, such as Hitler, Churchill, Roosevelt, etc.) How much more can TV be capable of doing the same in the near future with the Antichrist?

Revelation 13:15 states that "the image of the beast should both speak and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed". So how could a broadcasted image carry out such a task? As the Beast rails against those who won't swear their allegiance to him, his aggressive propaganda, broadcast via television, would generate a hostile climate and unleash persecution against the non-worshippers.

Broadcasting technology is a technological way of casting mirror-reflection images (that can speak) over great distances. The image is the person via the magic of broadcasting technology — with creation, worldwide distribution, and "life" of the "image" all rolled into one quick operation.

It has been theorized that evil spirits could possess the computer circuitry in a humanoid, especially if it is using human neurons. And this is a possible scenario that could explain how a humanoid might come "alive" and ascend to human, even superhuman, capacities. Nevertheless, let's be open to other possibilities of how to interpret this particular phrase about giving "life unto the image".

AI- and neuron-activated computer technologies could factor into carrying out the administration of the worldwide empires of the Beast and False Prophet, but if those new technologies are used on the image itself, to doctor it up in some way, could they likely be more detrimental than beneficial in generating worship of the Antichrist?

Could broadcasting technology be what's needed for the fulfillment of Revelation 13:15? The only change or improvement that may yet come along would be to use holographic images, but these are also broadcasted images, similar to what is being used now in TV transmission.

(Description:) "Leo Zagami is an Italian-British aristocrat related to King Charles' grandmother and a member of the Black Nobility who talks about how Pope Francis was not a rightful the Pope for a number of reasons, including that he was a Jesuit (who are banned from the Papacy) who rigged the current Papal Conclave by appointing so many new Woke cardinals that there's no room to house all of them at the Casa Santa Marta, where, by law, they must all stay under the same roof until they have elected a new Pope and also now, there're mostly Globalists to choose from. He says that the two candidates most likely to win are the Chinese-Filipino prelate Luiz Antonio Tagle (who is backed by the CCP) or the Ghanaian Cardinal Turkson (who is very Woke and the favorite of the WEF). Zagami says there is no chance that an Italian, let alone a white man, will be elected Pope this time, as the future of the Catholic Church is in Africa. Leo believes it's most likely that Turkson will be elected. He also notes that the CCP has been giving the Vatican over $1 billion yearly, in order for them to ignore their human rights abuses.":

unexplained mysteries, some of which I had never heard of before. It is very well scripted and narrated. It's 4 hours long, so I have been watching it in pieces. Highly recommended!"

(Description:) "Lost civilizations, impossible artifacts, and ancient technology—history has secrets we've yet to uncover. Massive stone structures too advanced for their time, lost cities hidden beneath the earth, and ancient texts written in unknown languages. Were past civilizations more advanced than we realize? Did they leave behind clues that rewrite history? And could some of these discoveries change everything we know about human civilization? In this 4+ hour deep-dive documentary, we explore some of the most unexplained ancient mysteries in history, including the Baalbek Megaliths, Göbekli Tepe, the Antikythera Mechanism, the lost civilization of Doggerland, the Copper Scroll, the Library of Alexandria, and much more. These are real unsolved puzzles—enigmatic artifacts, vanished cultures, and forgotten knowledge that continue to baffle researchers and historians to this day. Includes 21.39 min vid.

(Excerpts:) "In the arid desert of southern Iraq, the remains of one of the world's oldest cities can be found. This is Eridu, created by the gods as the starting point of civilization in Sumerian mythology. For over two thousand years, this incredibly ancient site (the city was founded in 5,400 BC) lay untouched, its significance long forgotten...Eridu was a cornerstone of Sumerian culture, the earliest known civilization, which flourished in Mesopotamia from around the fourth to the second millennium BC. The city was featured prominently in the Sumerian King List, a document inscribed in cuneiform around the end of the third millennium BC. The text, blending myth and history, records a time before a great flood—perhaps inspired by a real event or the Genesis narrative—swept across the land. 'After the kingship descended from heaven, the kingship was in Eridu ... In five cities, eight kings ... Then the flood swept over,' the list reads.":

(Excerpts:) "In the heart of Paris, the Luxor Obelisk rises high above the Place de la Concorde. This astonishing artifact was carved in Egypt under the reign of Nineteenth Dynasty Pharaoh Ramesses II in the 13th century BC, where the imposing granite monolith once flanked the entrance to the great temple of Amun at Luxor. Delivered to France as a gift by the viceroy of Egypt in 1828 during the reign of Louis Philippe, the unique monument has stood for nearly two centuries in the French capital, but incredibly it is still revealing ancient secrets even now. Thanks to the meticulous work of Egyptologist Jean-Guillaume Olette-Pelletier from the University of Paris-Sorbonne and the Catholic Institute of Paris, we now know that the obelisk carries far more than traditional hieroglyphs. It actually conceals a sophisticated web of hidden messages that were meant only to be seen by the gods and by their supposed representatives on Earth, Egypt's elite."—And their relatives/descendants!?:

labelled as a possible "calculated confusionary tactic". Now from Dr. Konstantin Borisov, a computer engineer (ie not a bonafide Biblical scholar, as far as it appears), are claims that Eden may have been located not in what is now present-day Iraq, but beneath Egypt's Great Pyramid on the Giza Plateau! With these "finds" being broadcast, using Biblical terms but different locations than are in the Scriptures, are we witnessing the construction of something along the lines of some sort of new bible/religion/world order paradigm?:

(Excerpts:) "In France, the cradle of European agriculture, a silent drama unfolds in the fields. Every two days, a farmer takes their own life, trapped in a web of economic, bureaucratic, and regulatory pressures that have reached unsustainable levels...the environmental policies of the European Green Deal, driven by the European Commission, are directly contributing to the psychological deterioration of rural workers...these pressures have triggered a surge in anxiety, depression, and emotional burnout, culminating in an alarming suicide rate: one every 48 hours...The imposition of environmental regulations without viable alternatives has left many producers without tools to remain competitive...The European Green [Greed!] Deal, in its zeal to paint the continent's future green, has proven to be a failed experiment that ignores the human reality of those who sustain Europe's table. Designed in Brussels' offices, this plan imposes unattainable goals without considering the devastating cost borne by French farmers, condemned to an unequal struggle against bureaucracy, economic ruin, and psychological despair. A suicide every two days is not collateral damage; it is evidence of an arrogant policy that sacrifices lives on the altar of a climatic utopia. If the EU does not change course, prioritizing the well-being of producers over ideological ambitions, the Green Deal will not be remembered as an environmental triumph but as the epitaph of European agriculture." - *And wasn't that actually the wicked elites' perverse plan all along?—"Less food, less people; less for/of thee, more for me!"? "The Long Game of Tony Blair: From Climate Optimism to Technocratic Control"

(Excerpts:) "In the final weeks of his time as UK Prime Minister in 2007, Tony Blair made an oddly casual but revealing remark about the climate crisis. 'Don't worry about the climate — technology will fix it.'...Eighteen years later, we now know what he meant. On April 29, 2025, the Tony Blair Institute published a new climate strategy paper titled 'The Climate Paradox: Why We Need to Reset Action on Climate Change'...on closer reading, it reveals something much more significant: a polished blueprint for a global technocratic control system, built in the name of solving climate change through data, automation, and artificial intelligence...It's a plan not to empower humanity — but to manage it...Strangely — or perhaps perfectly — the Blair report was published just one day after a massive, historic power outage plunged Spain and Portugal into darkness...Blair is not alone. Donald Trump is attacking Net Zero from the right, calling it a disaster for the economy and energy independence. Kemi Badenoch and the UK Conservatives are now walking back climate targets, citing cost and unrest. Across Europe, support for green policies is collapsing under the weight of energy failures and rising bills. But here's the trick: this isn't a collapse. It's a handover. [Part of the elites' created problem-reaction-solution plan!] Blair's plan steps in as the 'sensible alternative' — not to abandon climate governance, but to make it automatic, algorithmic, and unchallengeable. The message is no longer 'cut back to save the planet'. Now it's: 'Relax. You don't have to change anything. The system will change you.'" - I'll leave the change up to Jesus Christ! 2 Corinthians 5:17 - "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 3:18 - "But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord." 1 Corinthians 15:52 - "In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.":

Why hasn't there been a single arrest of anyone on the infamous Epstein List?...What about enemies of the public such as Fauci and Brix and Albert Bourla and the dozens of state officials who morphed into Gesundheitsfuhrers during the 'emergency'?...Have we been played – again? Are we who believed Trump – if re-selected – would pursue justice...But belief wanes as time passes and not one 'COVID' criminal has been held accountable and not one of the creeps on Epstein's list, either. We are told that the federal government is now more 'efficient' on account of 'waste' and 'fraud' having been rooted out by DOGE. There was a temporary high, like the one that attends snorting a line of coke....Has a single thing been done to make government less omnipresent? Less tyrannical? In fact the opposite is being done – as for egregious example the aggressive pushing of what is styled the REAL ID, which is to say a federally mandated internal passport that Americans are being told they must get if they wish to travel by airplane from state to state within the United States. How long before it will be required in order to be allowed to travel by car or otherwise from state to state? [Go here <https://t.me/rtnews/93779> and find out that "Arlington National Cemetery will require REAL ID from drivers starting 7 May. This includes funeral attendees & florists. Genesis is one of the most important books in the Bible due to its cornerstone properties. Genesis is a vitally important book because it establishes God as the creator of all things. A firm biblical understanding of Genesis establishes the necessary foundation for the Christian world-view. It's where Satan ambushed humankind and was then curse by God! Therefore, the Devil's got it in for Genesis and wants to redesign it!

(Excerpts:) "National Geographic treats the first five books of the Bible—including Genesis—as later writings. Because of this, earlier sources outside of the biblical account are treated as superior and more reliable. They also believe these five books were compiled by several authors—a hypothesis that undermines Scripture's authority...National Geographic assumes that the biblical account of the flood was derived from earlier myths. Since National Geographic holds to a naturalistic worldview that rejects the supernatural, they seek to fit the archaeological and geological evidence into their own framework. They assume that the flood of Noah was not global because these ancient texts describe vessels that would not withstand a flood of that proportion. However, the biblical account is very clear and precise in its wording that the floodwaters covered the whole earth, and not a living breathing creature was left that was outside the ark...National Geographic does not look in the right places or time for the evidence of Noah's flood...The book of Genesis is foundational to our understanding of the world and its origins. Genesis provides us the answer to 'why' the world is the way it is today. If you reject the historicity of the supernatural, biblical creation account, then the rest of Scripture is undermined...National Geographic interprets the data through a naturalistic lens...The Bible is God's precious Word, and it sheds light on the truth of the origins of the world, why there is suffering and death, and God's plan.":

2. "China, the Rothschilds and the Global Rise of Communism" - Of particular interest, in context with this 3-part post, is Part 2 in this article, "Part 2 The Birth of the CCP Through Rothschild Organizations"

(Excerpts:) "The Rothschild presence in China goes back to the 1830's when they set up a small gold and silver trading business in China, and the Rockefeller's presence in China goes back to 1863 when the Rockefellers were selling kerosene to China. In 1913 the Rockefeller Foundation founded the China Medical Board [the tried-and-prove medikill and pharmakeia subterfuge!]. The foundation had also become heavily invested in education in the country. By 1933 the Rockefeller foundation had spent over $37 million in China...The roots of Mao go further back however 1903 and Yale. Yale Divinity School established a number of schools and hospitals throughout China that were collectively known as 'Yale in China.' It has since been shown that 'Yale in China' was an intelligence network whose purpose was to destroy the republican movement of Sun Yat-sen on behalf of the Anglo-American Establishment. The Anglo-American 'Establishment' hated Sun, because he wanted to develop China. On the other hand, they loved the Chinese communists because they intended to keep China backward, and were committed to the production of drugs. One of 'Yale in China's' most important students was Mao Zedong...without Yale support, Mao Tse Tung may have never risen from obscurity to command China...atrocities committed by the CCP the Rockefeller's had this to say: 'The social experiment in China under Chairman Mao's leadership is one of the most important and successful in human history.'":

3. So what were those Rockefeller-hailed (and, no doubt, lauded by his financial cronies as well) "most important and successful atrocities" instigated and led by Mao? In this item you'll find out. And to this day, the CCP suppresses the Cultural Revolution's horrific history of cannibalism. - Yep, that "c" word. Which was going on, from what I understand, during the societal debauchery of Noah's day! (In the country I live, cannibalism was widespread until the mid-1800s, but has largely been ignored in this nation's history books). Part of the practice was intended to send a warning to other tribes, a strategy of Mao gangsters as well, as documented.

"Unimaginable Horror – Guangxi Massacre — Short History Documentary – In 1966, Chairman Mao launched the Cultural Revolution, a means of purging the bourgeois." - But he definitely didn't mind fraternising with his "bourgeois" Rothschild and Rockefeller financial frat mates who financed and positioned him to instigate and create hell on earth! Includes 12.26 min vid containing historical photos and footage from the era.

(Excerpts from article:) "...the Communist Party — which long ago decided that Mao was '70 percent right and 30 percent wrong' — does not allow full discussion of events and responsibility. Some of the worst excesses happened in Wuxuan, in the far southern region of Guangxi, where the hearts, livers and genitals of victims were cut out and fed to revellers. Now, five decades after the declaration of the Cultural Revolution on May 16, the town has frozen yoghurt shops, men fish a river beneath mossy limestone karsts, and red banners hang from trees proclaiming the ruling party's dedication to the people. Some residents say they have never heard of the dozens of acts of cannibalism, motivated by political hatred rather than hunger, that once stained the streets with blood. At least 38 people were eaten in Wuxuan, a high-ranking member of an early 1980s official investigation told AFP, asking not to be named for fear of repercussions. 'All the cannibalism was due to class struggle being whipped up, and was used to express a kind of hatred,' he said. 'The murder was ghastly, worse than beasts...Communist Party fears recalling the officially-sanctioned chaos and violence could undermine its legitimacy...Because the government has never permitted a deep examination of history, it's impossible to say that lessons have been learned.' - The video brings out, among many other issues, that partaking of these acts was seen as a test of loyalty to the Party; that it was shown as an erasing of the old norms and acceptance of the new without question. Each family involved was required to force one of their members to take part in such acts so as to bind all of the family in complicity. Teens, especially, were enthusiastic to engage so as to impress, whilst others did so out of fear of being on the receiving end. The definition of "enemy" was not uniform, hence total chaos and confusion rioted, ruined and reigned!:

• I've been a nurse for 25 years and I stumbled across an article on LifeSite News a year or so ago about this same subject. I was floored. I spent several years working in critical care also and have taken care of several patients who ended up organ donors, as well as many who had some kind of head trauma and were considered "brain dead". It really turns your whole world upside down to learn that something you've been taught and practiced for years is a HUGE LIE; especially when it involves people's LIVES. What's even worse is, the doctor in the article I read said all it takes to wake these comatose people up is replacement of three simple hormones, something that can easily be done these days. (Excerpts:) "The Canadian government has begun ramping up testing for a chilling new Covid mRNA 'AeroVax' that seeks to overcome 'vaccine hesitancy' by using aerosols to 'vaccinate' the general public. Unlike traditional 'vaccines' that are deployed using injections, the new AeroVax is an atomized spray that is inhaled. The new 'vaccines' are sprayed in aerosol form and breathed in by recipients. The AeroVax was developed by researchers at the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation-funded McMaster University in Canada....If the AeroVax were deployed atmospherically, it could 'vaccinate' entire towns and cities at once, bypassing individual consent. Africa, reshaping the continent's future in ways few imagined. Scientists have spotted signs of something far more dramatic beneath the surface."

(Excerpt:) "A monumental geological event is underway in East Africa. Deep within the Earth's crust, tectonic forces are gradually breaking the African continent apart. This slow-motion rupture is now advancing faster than previously believed, and it could ultimately give birth to a brand-new ocean...The separation of East Africa has far-reaching consequences. Economically, it could reshape regional trade. Landlocked countries such as Zambia and Uganda might eventually gain access to the ocean, opening new pathways for commerce and development...The Horn of Africa's strategic location adds another layer of complexity. Situated near the entrance to the Red Sea and the Suez Canal, the region is a critical passage for global shipping. 'How much prayer do you need', said Pam Escobar, a member of the Cabarrus County School Board. 'How much God do you need? They didn't come here to pray with you [referring to school employees]...If you want to pray with them, take them to church. You want to be evangelical and do that? Go for it. But not on my time, not on their time, and not on this community's time. We're not in this business. This is not the time or the place. I don't know why you need prayer to take this job seriously.' >  "Zionism, the Human Parasitoid" - Whoah! What an amazing parallel found in God's creation!—And a warning about not yielding to and becoming impregnated with strong delusion!

(Excerpts:) "The tiny jewel wasp injects a neurotoxic venom into the ganglia of cockroaches, transforming the larger insect into a zombie which willingly allows itself to be transformed into a living host for the next generation of jewel wasps to feed on before emerging into the world, ready to prey on other unsuspecting cockroaches. Israel is the modern-day equivalent of the jewel wasp, a predator which infects its host with mind-altering poison so that it willingly sustains the parasitic intrusion into its being that will eventually take its life. The host, in this case, is the United States. By allowing Israel to turn our nation into a zombified version of what our founding fathers envisioned, we simply facilitate our own collective demise...Before laying its egg in its cockroach host, the jewel wasp delivers three stings: one to paralyze the host, and the second to seize control of the host's motor neurons. But there is a third sting, one that is critical to the egg-laying process, which is delivered to a specific portion of the host's body, injecting a substance known as acetylcholine which activates specific motor neurons which cause the cockroach host to extend the middle leg on the side the jewel wasp had chosen to lay its egg. When the cockroach folds up its middle leg, the wasp cannot explore the surface with its sensory hairs to find the sweet spot for its egg. By taking control of the neural circuit that causes middle leg extension, the jewel wasp overcomes the last defense the host has to become a zombie. Without the leg extension, the egg would not set, and the roach would avoid becoming a living host to that which would eventually kill it. Some cockroaches act passively when confronted by a jewel wasp, enabling the three stings to occur without issue, ensuring the extension of the middle leg, and the laying of the egg. Others, however, opt to confront the jewel wasp, and in doing so facilitate their survival, even if the first two stings are made. Some roaches retain enough ability to react to dangerous stimuli so that they not only keep their middle leg folded up, but also kick back against the jewel wasp, eventually causing the wasp to leave in search of a more compliant target. The American people have been stung twice by the Zionist parasitoid. But we have, so far, avoided the third, fatal sting. This was proven when the Trump administration withstood the pressure from Zionist Israel to attack Iran.

We now must start kicking back against the Zionist parasitoid, flinging it from our body, preventing that third, fatal sting, and denying it the ability to have the AIPAC egg take control of our American body.":

• "Deepfakes Now Outsmarting Detection By Mimicking Heartbeats Do Deepfakes Have a Pulse?" - Very important, imo, to be aware of this!

(Summary:) "Recent research reveals that high-quality deepfakes unintentionally retain the heartbeat patterns from their source videos, undermining traditional detection methods that relied on detecting subtle skin color changes linked to heartbeats. The assumption that deepfakes lack physiological signals, such as heart rate, is no longer valid. This challenges many existing detection tools, which may need significant redesigns to keep up with the evolving technology. To effectively identify high-quality deepfakes, researchers suggest shifting focus from just detecting heart rate signals to analyzing how blood flow is distributed across different facial regions, providing a more accurate detection strategy...The race between creators and detection technology is on. Deepfakes are becoming more sophisticated than we anticipated, and our detection methods must evolve just as quickly as the deepfakes themselves."

Excellent declaration from Archbishop Viganò!

(Excerpt:) "We can only express our firmest condemnation of the pactum sceleris that unites the Chinese communist dictatorship, the techno-financial oligarchs of Davos, and the usurpers of authority in the Catholic Church. What motivates the persecutory action of these people is their hatred for the loyalty of Chinese

Catholics to the Church and the papacy: not to a patriotic and national church, not to a humanitarian NGO, not to an entity without either dogma or morality serving anti-human ideologies, but to that One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic, and Roman Church which is and remains – because founded on Our Lord Jesus Christ, the cornerstone – the only true and inescapable καθήκον (2 Thess 2:6-7) against the establishment of the kingdom of the Antichrist.":
