Ever since "the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul" (Gen.2:7), the Devil has been unrelenting in trying to destroy God's crowning creation. In this 11th installment of our study from the "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve", on the degrees and depths of deception Satan tried in order to tease, lure, deceive, beguile, seduce, distract, scare, manipulate, and even kill Adam and Eve after they had been sent out of the Garden, we hear the snarling thoughts of Satan as he plots to kill Adam! In Psalm 37:12, it says, "The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth." Let us consider the significance of the "wicked" and the "just" as archetypes that represent broader themes of the spiritual battle that continues to this day! The "wicked" can be seen as embodying all that is opposed to God's will: greed, jealousy, deceit, violence, and selfishness. On the other hand, the "just" represent those who seek to live, by the grace given to us through Jesus Christ, according to God's standards of righteousness, justice, and compassion. "Now the just shall live by faith. Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God! In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. (Heb.10:38; Rom.10:17; Jn.1:1,14)

Chapter 47 - Satan vows to kill Adam.

- 1 Then Adam and Eve came into the cave, yet trembling at the fire that had scorched their bodies. So Adam said to Eve:
- 2 "Lo, the fire has burnt our flesh in this world; but how will it be when we are dead, and Satan shall punish our souls? Is not our deliverance long and far off, unless God come, and in mercy to us fulfil His promise?"
- 3 Then Adam and Eve passed into the cave, blessing themselves for coming into it once more. For it was in their thoughts that they never should enter it, when they saw the fire around it.
- 4 But as the sun was setting, the fire was still burning and nearing Adam and Eve in the cave, so that they could not sleep in it. After the sun had set, they went out of it. This was the forty-seventh day after they came out of the garden.
- 5 Adam and Eve then came under the top of hill by the garden to sleep, as they were wont.
- 6 And they stood and prayed God to forgive them their sins, and then fell asleep under the summit of the mountain.
- 7 But Satan, the hater of all good, thought within himself, "Whereas God has promised salvation to Adam by covenant, and that He would deliver him out of all the hardships that have befallen him, but has not promised me by covenant, and will not deliver me out of my hardships; nay, since He has promised him that He should make him and his seed dwell in the kingdom in which I once was, I will kill Adam. [This is so unreal! Satan chose to rebel against God!—And yet here he is, moaning about the fact that he now has no part in God's promise of deliverance! "For God created man to be immortal, and made him to be an image of his own eternity. Nevertheless through envy of the devil came death into the world: and they that do hold of his side do find it." (Wisdom of Solomon 2:23-24) Satan hates God for being the Almighty, and he hates humankind for being made in the image of God!]
- 8 The earth shall be rid of him and shall be left to me alone, so that, when he is dead, he may not have any seed left to inherit the kingdom that shall remain my own realm. God will then be in want of me, and He will restore me to it with my hosts."

To put the Devil's war on humankind into proper perspective, let's call it for what it is: genocide of the human race! Thankfully, Jesus Christ, born of Mary (the seed of Adam), came to save us from our sins, as promised by God! But not without the Devil doing his damnedest to stop it!—Even down to, soon after Jesus was born, working through wicked, jealous King Herod to kill all the newborn babies in the immediate neighbourhood! The Devil is in a chronic state of rage against Christ, His Body of Believers, and the winning of souls for the Kingdom of God! The incomprehensible atrocities that human beings are capable of committing against one another in instances of earthly genocide give us but a vague inkling of the intentions the Devil and his minions have towards us. The Devil is after us, that's for sure, but you and I are combatants through the spiritual weapons spoken of in the Word—namely, in Ephesians chapter 6. God bless and keep us all honing our spiritual-fighting skills, keeping our spiritual weapons in good working order, staying vigilant, remaining informed of Satan's attempts to dehumanize and destroy humanity, and standing firmly on the Word of God! "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." (1Jn.5:4)

(Excerpts:) "By examining the Scriptures, we gain insight into the heart's centrality in our relationship with God and the essence of our being...In the Bible, the 'heart' is often mentioned, symbolizing not just a vital organ but the spiritual and moral center of a person. It's where emotions, thoughts, and intentions reside, highlighting purity, integrity, and devotion to God...The heart, as depicted in the Bible, is far more than a mere physical entity; it is the epitome of our spiritual essence and moral compass. The Scriptures frequently address the heart's condition, urging believers to love God wholeheartedly and to remain pure and obedient.":

> (i) If Starmer wanted to, he could end the slaughter in Gaza overnight by clamping down on key arms exports. So why doesn't he? Have the Israelis got something on him? Remember, Starmer was brought in to counter "anti-Semitism" in the Labour Party.

"Why the UK refuses to do the one thing that could stop Israel's 'intolerable' war on Gaza"

(Excerpts:) "...the UK government still won't take the single fastest and most effective step: ending military cooperation with Israel and halting all arms sales. Lammy said in parliament that 'arms are not getting to Israel that could be used in Gaza'. This is false. The UK government last year suspended a small number of arms export licences - around 10 percent - after determining that Israel is not committed to complying with international humanitarian law, but it allowed UK participation in the F-35 fighter jet programme to continue....it suspended licences for weapons with a direct use in Gaza, but it did not halt wider arms exports to Israel for use by the army - such as for training purposes or for its illegal occupation of the West Bank - or for Israeli industry use... Even within the government's narrow position, there is a massive loophole. The suspension does not cover components that go to the USA to be put into F35s to be sent to Israel. UK companies provide 15 percent of every new F-35 fighter jet made. Neither does the suspension cover components that reach Israel via a global spare parts pool. The pool is coordinated by the US Department of Defense and arms companies Lockheed Martin and Pratt & Whitney. Yet apparently there is no system in place to track the movement of parts into and out of the pool - which the British government says makes it impossible for it to prevent UK-made parts from reaching Israel...Israel is using F-35s to bomb Gaza, assist ground troops and implement the blockade. The Israeli army has reportedly conducted more than 15,000 flight hours and 8,000 missions over Gaza since 7 October 2023. This past March, Israel used F-35s to break the ceasefire, killing more than 400 Palestinians in a single day. UK parts have been central to this killing spree. The UK government licence for the F-35 was used 14 times more in 2023 than in any previous year...Meanwhile, the government is using counter-terrorism legislation to punish Palestine activists.":

Still, few think it's the end of the road for Israel's longest-serving prime minister, who has been battling corruption charges for years, or his far-right government...The move to dissolve, called by the opposition, will only pass if Netanyahu's ultra-Orthodox coalition partners break with him over the failure to pass a law exempting their community from military service, an issue that has bitterly divided Israelis, especially during the ongoing war in the Gaza Strip. The threats coming from the ultra-Orthodox could be posturing, and many expect

(Excerpts:) "If China secures the CopiaPort-E project, it would turbocharge Beijing's trade in South America—not only enabling CHINAMAX megaships, but allowing all shipping to completely bypass U.S.-controlled chokepoints and dominate hemispheric commerce virtually overnight...A geopolitical storm is brewing on the western edge of South America...At the heart of it all lies a deep-water mega-port project in Chile's Atacama Desert: CopiaPort-E, a port so naturally engineered by geography itself that it could become either America's greatest commercial and strategic opportunity, or China's most dangerous economic beachhead south of our border... CopiaPort-E sits along the Punta Cachos peninsula, directly on the Pacific coast. What makes this location a 'world rarity', as port experts have described it, is its natural breakwater extending 8 kilometers into the sea and its natural seabed depths exceeding 30 meters—no dredging needed. This alone makes it the only location in all of South America capable of receiving CHINAMAX and CAPESIZE-class supertankers—ships that carry 80% more cargo than standard vessels, but cannot pass through either the Panama or Suez Canals...if China also secured CopiaPort-E—with its deep waters, vast landholdings, and ability to dominate South American trade routes...China would no longer need the Panama Canal. They could undercut American shipping and establish a naval foothold on the Pacific coast of South America...a potential military beachhead within the Western Hemisphere. The natural harbor's depth could accommodate not just supertankers, but nuclear submarines, aircraft carriers, and warships—posing a potential national security threat just south of America's borders... This isn't just about trade—it's about power."

(Excerpts:) "A federal judge in California has dismissed a Covid mRNA injection injury case by arguing that the 'vaccine' maker has sweeping legal protections. The case was brought by David Wilt, who says he suffered a serious illness after his third Pfizer Covid 'vaccine'. Despite detailing nearly a year of health issues, the court ruled it lacked jurisdiction and pointed to the Public Readiness and Emergency Preparedness (PREP) Act. The PREP Act grants sweeping legal immunity to 'vaccine' makers during public health emergencies [So-called!   Dear HHS Secretary Kennedy and FDA Commissioner Dr. Makary,
  We are writing this open letter to express deep concerns about recent policies emerging from HHS, the CDC and the FDA: specifically, the omission of the dangerous mRNA injections from the recently released "MAHA Report"; and the reaffirmation of the CDC's recommendations for mRNA injections. Removal of the mRNA platform from the market is one of the main goals of the grassroots MAHA movement...If you continue to ignore the centerpiece of our policy agenda taking all mRNA products covered by PREP Act emergency declarations entirely off the market you will pay a political price.:

"NGOs Prepare For Nationwide Color Revolution; Walmart Heiress Calls For 'Mobilization'"

(Excerpts:) "A network of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) with known affiliations to Marxist-aligned political ideologies initiated coordinated protest activity across Los Angeles last Friday. Almost immediately, these protests escalated into widespread unrest, including acts of vandalism, arson, and looting, consistent with patterns observed in previous color revolution-style mobilizations...In response, President Trump authorized the deployment of National Guard units and Marines to secure high-risk areas and prevent further civil unrest, with looting and chaos continuing in the overnight hours...There is reason to believe that an early staging of a coordinated national mobilization effort is underway to unleash a color revolution across cities, similar to BLM-style protests that morphed into riots in 2020, spearheaded by a group identifying itself as 'No Kings'. This organization appears to function as a front entity for broader far-left networks, with affiliated support from established rogue leftist NGOs, including Indivisible, a Soros-funded nonprofit previously linked to a failed color revolution targeting Elon Musk's Tesla earlier this year. Leftist news outlet Common Dreams stated that Indivisible's Leah Greenberg is one of the leading groups behind the 'No Kings' movement. This weekend's planned protest is receiving organizational backing—or, at the very least, logistical support—from nearly 200 groups, including a wide range of NGOs (get ready for the bussing of professional protesters to cities near you)...Notably, the timing coincides with June 14, a symbolic convergence of Flag Day, President Trump's birthday, a military parade in Washington, DC, and the U.S. Army's 250th anniversary, suggesting deliberate political signaling behind the mobilization effort...The central unresolved question remains: To what extent are these leftist NGO-linked operations influenced or financed by foreign actors?":

> * "The Age of Aquarius: A Key To Understanding the Occult Elite's Mindset" - Please read in full!

(Excerpts:) "Those who rule the world believe that humanity is entering a new era named the Age of Aquarius. Some describe it as an age of enlightenment, while others think it will usher in a 'spiritual dark age' that will precede the coming of the Antichrist. Here's a look at the significance of this new era and its extreme importance for the occult elite...It would not be an exaggeration to state that many people feel that we are currently at the dawn of a new era, as if it were palpable in the air...As humanity moves—whether organically or forcibly—towards new paradigms, age-old predictions appear to be coming true. The concept of ages is also mentioned numerous times in the Bible. The coming of Jesus Christ is said to have revolutionized the 'old age' and brought forth a new era in salvation history. The book of Revelation anticipates the full realization of God's kingdom, preceded by a period of great turmoil and tribulations, culminating in the rise of the Antichrist. Could this biblical period coincide with the Age of Aquarius...One thing is for certain: Those who rule the world believe in the coming of the Aguarian Age. Knowing this fact allows us to better understand the deeper motivations behind their actions and agendas...the sun has been in Pisces for the past 2000 years. Coincidentally, the fish has been one of the main symbols representing Christianity...In early Christian history, the ichthys (aka Jesus fish) symbol held 'the most sacred significance'. It remains one of the most prominent symbols in Christianity. In the previous age, the sun was in Aries (the ram). One of the main symbols of Judaism – the religion that ruled the Aryan age - is the shofar, a ram's horn... Jesus predicted that Christians would be persecuted during the 'End of the Age'. Occult schools such as Rosicrucianism also agree that those who remain faithful to old religions (such as Christianity) will be deemed heathens in the new age... This assessment of the Aquarian age. where 'secretive, power-hungry elites' rule the world, is only becoming more relevant and accurate as time passes. Furthermore, it parallels the tribulation period foretold in Revelation prior to the coming of the Antichrist...the occult elite, which embraces the coming of a new age, has been working hard to force its most crucial aspect on the Aguarian sign: fluidity. Good and evil, male and female, hetero and homosexuality: The rigid boundaries of the past are gone, and age-old concepts have now become relative and defined by personal experience. We are even seeing massive fluidity in world populations as the blurring of national boundaries favors the merging of cultures to create one global melting pot. Are these things happening organically? Or are they being forced by secretive global powers? Is humanity naturally evolving according to energies emitted by astral bodies? Or is humanity being prepared for a New World Order that will crown the Antichrist? Is it all God's will? Or is it all humans playing God? Can all these things be true at the same time? These answers will eventually flood the Earth, like water poured from the urn of a waterbearer." - "And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman [The Bride of Christ] that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." (Rev. 12:15-17) Be prepared!:

See article for list of high-level pilgrims.

(Excerpts:) "Substantial evidence exposes Sir Henry Alfred Kissinger as a central figure in the British Pilgrims Society's audacious plan to subvert American sovereignty and drag the United States back under the yoke of the British Empire. This clandestine operation, rooted in the imperialist vision of Cecil Rhodes, was hatched on July 16, 1902, in London, with its American 'branch' established mere months later on January 13, 1903, in New York. For over a century, this shadowy organization has woven a web of influence, with Kissinger at its heart during his most active years, orchestrating a silent coup against the American Republic...Henry Kissinger, knighted by the British Crown (KCMG), was no mere statesman but a loyal servant of the Pilgrims Society, spying for British interests since the late 1940s. His meteoric rise from a young U.S. Army intelligence officer to a global power broker was no accident—it was engineered by the Pilgrims' self-anointed elites. By age 22, Kissinger was embedded in U.S. Signals Intelligence, working under OSS chief William J. Donovan, a Pilgrim, and taking orders from British intelligence figures like Pilgrim Sir Stewart Menzies (MI6) and Pilgrim Lord Rothschild (Bank of England). His loyalty was not to America, but to the Pilgrims' vision of a 'new world order' under British control. Kissinger's influence peaked as he and fellow Pilgrim Paul Volcker served as vice presidents of the American branch of the Pilgrims Society from 2002 to 2019. Together, they masterminded the 2008 financial crisis bailout, funneling trillions to Pilgrims-connected banks like J.P. Morgan Chase, BlackRock, Vanguard, Fidelity, State Street, Citigroup, Bank of America, Rothschild Brothers, Baring, Lloyds, Barclays, NatWest, and Goldman Sachs, ensuring the enrichment of their globalist cronies while American taxpayers bore the burden...In his 1973 Senate confirmation hearing, Kissinger disclosed ties to Harvard, RAND Corp. and the CFR but concealed his Pilgrims Society membership—a material omission constituting fraud. This deliberate silence hid his allegiance to a foreign power, undermining the American Republic. His British knighthood (KCMG) further exposes his true loyalties... The Pilgrims Society, inspired by Cecil Rhodes' dream of Anglo-Saxon dominance, seeks to erase American independence. Kissinger's role—spanning intelligence, finance, media, and politics during his productive era—has brought this plot perilously close to fruition. From the gold standard's demise to the 2008 so-called bank bailout, his actions have enriched the Pilgrims while weakening America.": https://aim4truth.org/2025/04/19/the-pilgrims-society-subverting-american-sovere

> It has been decided: The UK government is to move forward with plans to introduce a mandatory digital ID. Kit Knightly examines how this has its roots in Blair's New Labour and how it will result in greater control for the powers that be. "BritCard' – Inside Labour's 'Progressive' Digital ID"

(Excerpts:) "A new report from a British government think tank offers some clear insights into the Starmer administration's plan to introduce a universal digital ID. That digital ID – in one form or another – is a major part of the endgame is not any kind of revelation. We've known that was the plan for years, but the report tells us quite a lot about how it's going to be sold to the public. I guess we should go ahead and dive in...The report was published just this week by Labour Together – formerly 'The Common Good' – a think tank founded in 'Labour's wilderness years' to help 'make Labour electable again', according to their about page. Translation: They're centrist globalist Blairite shills who helped undermine and destroy the only vaguely genuine movement in the last 50 years of British 'democracy' and now publish reports to push a globalist agenda...They're calling it 'Britcard', probably because the massively out-of-touch market relations types who end up naming these things thought it sounded friendly. The prefix 'Brit' makes things sound familiar and non-threatening...So much better than mandatory government-issued digital identity papers...Digital ID is Blair's baby...The report is 28 pages long, but once you remove the double-talk and graphs, it can essentially be summed up in three bullet points: Digital ID will help control illegal immigration. It can then be expanded to other things, too. Polls say everyone is fine with this." - Read in full to scope out more on what's in the works!:

(Excerpts:) "Mr. Depopulation himself, the nefarious mega-billionaire, Bill 'Genocide' Gates, who promised at a TEDx talk that he could reduce the world's population by a few billion people using vaccines and abortions, is now targeting fully-unvaccinated Americans with insidious shiny toxins covering their favorite health food, organic produce. A shiny chemical coating called Apeel is funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and has circumvented the USDA organic guidelines as a 'fungicide' so Gates can find a way to sicken the healthiest people on the planet who deny his deadly mRNA clot shots. It's plandemic revenge 2.0, and the natural health enthusiasts are blowing the whistle on the whole operation. Questions loom: Does Apeel contain spike protein nanoparticles? Is this a food 'vaccination' in disguise, like mRNA jabbing animals so the meat is infested with spike prions?...Insidiously named 'Organipeel', Apeel contains mono- and diglycerides that are explicitly banned for use as organic food coatings. So how much did Gates pay off the USDA regulators to skirt this and find or create a loophole? The coating leaves behind residue of arsenic, cadmium, lead, and palladium, heavy metal toxins that can cause metabolic disorders, cancer and dementia, just like the spike prion vaccines for Covid...Some retailers, like Natural Grocers, have already banned Apeel-treated produce. 'We do not want this in our food supply' said Alan Lewis, the company's VP of regulatory affairs. Kastel urged consumers to pressure retailers, emphasizing their influence...The Apeel debate underscores growing tensions between corporate innovation and organic principles. As the industry expands, transparency and USDA accountability remain critical. For now, consumers are advised to seek locally grown organic produce—or grow their own [That's what we do!]—to avoid reliance on opaque, globally distributed products.": https://www.naturalnews.com/2025-06-09-bill-gates-covering-organic-fruit-with-to xic-apeel-coating.html

Or rather, the 'Antichrist Festival'? Lucis Trust, originally titled the Lucifer Publishing Co. This article includes a MUST-SEE, OAAO video "Externalization of the Money Masters", a 40.41 min vid. Amongst its topics, the prediction that circulates within New Age esoteric circles, since its publication in the early 1920s, regarding the year 2025, when a secret "Great General Assembly of the Hierarchy" will convene, purportedly marking a turning point for humanity's future, according to the writings of Alice A. Bailey an influential occultist. I'm including here a must-read article ("The Great General Assembly of 2025: Unveiling an Occult Agenda and Biblical Prophecy") which talks about that prediction, the link to which can be found at the end of this group of articles.*

(Excerpts:) "The secrecy normally associated with Bilderberg will not be possible, given the necessary security arrangements with riot fences, heavily armed police and security forces. It looks like a showcase of power, letting the world know which players are calling the shots in global politics...political leaders are merely acting as obedient puppets, with the mission of steering government policy in a direction approved by the financial hierarchy...an international network of 'world-improvers'—that can be labelled as the global oligarchy...At their annual meeting in Washington DC 4-6 April [2025], the Trilateral Commission 'brought together a wide range of stakeholders'...The theme was 'An Era of Revolutions', indicating our transformative times with Donald Trump as the 'Great Disruptor'...We are in the midst of what UN Secretary General António Guterres has labelled the 'Age of Chaos'. Since the Trilateralists also had a session to celebrate the '80th anniversary of the end of World War II', we can see where this is going. (Excerpts:) "According to the neo-theosophical teachings of Alice A. Bailey (in the book 'Externalisation of the Hierarchy') the spiritual hierarchy (the 'Masters of Wisdom') will start to externalize on the world scene in 2025 to install a new world order...the Masters of this 'spiritual' hierarchy have a remarkably close connection to the old geopolitical goals of the Anglo-Saxon Roundtable Group when it comes to creating a system of world governance, and the current 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. The Masters are said to be a highly competent group, organized into departments, to oversee and subtly guide the spiritual evolution on humanity. However, for an organisation and hierarchy ostensibly focused on consciousness, there is a surprising interest and involvement in the mundane top-level political and economic affairs on this planet. The following description of the 'Work of the Hierarchy" comes from Bailey's organisation Lucis Trust: 'The Masters are a worldwide group of executives, adept and skilled in the various fields of work in the modern world, organised into a close network of communication throughout the world, with representatives in all nations, both east and west, and working in the closest co-operation.":

"Palantir: The Intersection of Government and Corporate Power"

(Excerpts:) "Palantir has grown like a cancer since its founding, but that growth has really metastasized under Trump. That's rationalized by the fact that, if the US is going to round up the 10 or 20 million migrants who are in the US illegally, it needs to find out who they are. So Trump strongly supports 'REAL ID', which facilitates the government knowing exactly who everybody is, where they came from, where they live and work, who they associate with, and everything else about them. That will make it easy to extract the migrants from society. Everyone's 'papers' must be in order. But to do this, legitimate Americans will need the same ID. The very name of the company, Palantir, is a tip-off. In Tolkien's Lord of the Rings, the Palantir is a stone that allows the viewer to see everything about the past, present, and future. You couldn't hide from it. Peter Thiel chose that name for a reason. That's what the company is supposed to do: integrate data from everywhere. Right now, the data of government agencies is basically siloed. What one agency or department knows is not readily available to another. But Palantir will integrate and centralize all of it, plus everything they can scrape from corporate and other private data banks. This is extremely dangerous. Super dangerous. This thing is going to be a truly all-seeing eye.": https://internationalman.com/articles/doug-casey-on-palantir-the-intersection-of-g overnment-and-corporate-power/

It outlines the concept that this assembly may represent a pivotal moment for humanity, potentially influencing global events and spiritual evolution. The author examines the implications of this assembly in relation to biblical prophecy and the potential emergence of a New World Religion. Will it succeed?" (Excerpts:) "I have long held the view that the globalists' plan for the final takedown of America will involve getting us into a major international war at the same time we're engulfed in growing civil strife and possible civil war at home. In other words, let them fight each other while fighting Russia, China and Iran simultaneously. That's enough to take down any superpower. In the fog of war and with now comfortable lives turned upside down by death and destruction, the globalists will roll out their Al-powered digital surveillance slave-state — a beast system nobody will be able to avoid or resist because it will make Orwell's Big Brother look like a benevolent dictator. And that script is proceeding right on schedule with the riots heating up in Los Angeles and now spreading to other cities, while at the same time we see President Trump's so-called peace talks breaking down with Russia and Iran. The latest round of nuclear talks with Iran, set for Sunday, have now been canceled...Meanwhile, Russian President Vladimir Putin is done with Trump's two-faced efforts to end the war with Ukraine and Putin has now launched what looks like a final massive assault designed to collapse the Kiev regime...don't be surprised when the war continues even after Ukraine is defeated. That's because the war was never about Ukraine. It's about defeating Russia. As crazy as that sounds, they believe they can do it, ignoring the risk of a nuclear holocaust. Ukraine is just Act One of World War III, the launching pad but not the final destination. NATO will not back off of its plans to defeat and Balkanize Russia, the only question is whether Donald Trump will join in the fight or leave that one to the Europeans. If the neocons Trump surrounds himself with get their way, the U.S. will be all in for war with Russia, and that means war with China and North Korea as well. (Excerpts:) "Think of all the horrific images you've seen from Gaza. Now think of what worse carnage and murderous depravity Israel must be inflicting now to cut off the internet, tweeted journalist Sam Husseini of the news. Indeed, this latest move comes amid a particularly egregious spike in mass atrocities from the Zionist entity. Israeli forces just killed 120 people in a single 24-hour period and injured hundreds more, with scores massacred while seeking food from Israel's notorious 'death trap' aid distribution sites. Israel has been massacring starving civilians desperately seeking aid on a near-daily basis in Gaza over the past two weeks. Israel is continually seeking out new ways to obstruct the world's visibility into what's happening with Gaza. That's why they've been assassinating journalists who live in Gaza at a historically unprecedented rate while banning journalists outside Gaza from entering. It's a nonstop war against visibility and truth, because Israel thrives on lies and darkness. It has driven the Israelis mad that their global support is being eroded by Palestinians recording their own genocide and broadcasting the footage to the world. If they think they can get away with keeping Gaza in the dark they absolutely will do so, while continuing to seek out further ways to hide the truth from the world." - But not from God! He sees and knows ALL that's in the darkness and in the light! "And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble. (Excerpts:) "There are crimes so profound that words fail to capture them. Last week, several survivors testified to the Israeli Knesset (https://www.israelhayom.com/2025/04/23/bottom-of-darkness-children-raped-in-r itual-ceremonies-expose-the-horrors/) about just such a horror. The story broke with an investigative report published by Israel Hayom, which unearthed a long-standing pattern of ritual sexual abuse, psychological manipulation, and spiritual desecration occurring not on the margins of society but from within its most sacred institutions. Survivors speak of torment that begins in early childhood and lasts decades, often committed under the guise of religious observance. It is not just a crime of the flesh. It is a theft of the soul. Israeli children, some as young as infants, were subjected to methodical abuse masked in religious ritual. Survivors describe ceremonies invoking biblically-vilified deities, conducted by members of observant Jewish communities. As a survivor named Noga (all of the victims' names are changed in the report) recalled: 'The gods I remember are Baal Peor and Ashtoreth... our lord Peor and our lady Ashtoreth." (Note: All these deities are categorically condemned in the Bible.) The culprits are not fringe radicals. These are individuals who keep kosher, celebrate the Sabbath, and adhere to the minutiae of Jewish law even as they engage in acts so depraved that they defy comprehension...According to the Jerusalem Post [the previous article, above], which followed up on the Hayom report, 'doctors, educators, police officers, and past and present members of the Knesset were involved in these abuses'. With prominent members of the public engaging in such activities, do not expect justice to be served. Instead, expect international coordination of the most depraved kind...Ritual child sexual abuse is a twisted safari sport of sorts for the elite. It combines satanic predilections with congenital moral turpitude. It also serves as a rites de passage for entry into a very select club of global movers and shakers whose inclusivity is dependent on mutual blackmailability. They are motivated by self-preservation and the accumulation of wealth and power foremost even as they dish out copious servings of faux nationalism...Evidence – even if it amounts to thousands of files – will be swiftly buried or distorted...Israeli legal frameworks do address sexual abuse and human trafficking, but they are ill-equipped to prosecute spiritual abuse wrapped under religious performance. This is ostensibly the reason why survivor testimonies have not led to arrests.":

- + Trump was tasked with manipulating the Iranians with negotiations while Israel prepared the attack.
- + Axios reports Trump and his aides were 'only pretending to oppose an Israeli attack in public and didn't express opposition in private'.
- + The goal was to 'convince Iran that no attack was imminent and make sure Iranians on Israel's target list wouldn't move to new locations'.
- + Russia's envoy to UN: UK colluded with "Israel" by hiding attack aircraft in Cyprus airbase. (By allowing the IDF to hide planes on Cyprus, No one could see them taking off and alert Iran.)
- + French President Macron has given the green light for its fighters to assist in the defense of Israel.
- + American, British, and French strike aircraft have deployed into Middle Eastern airspace to bolster defenses and assist in intercepting Iranian ballistic missiles if launched.
- + The Israeli Air Force is now bombing Fordo, Iran's heavily fortified underground enrichment facility, according to Iranian media.

- + There is Radiological and chemical contamination leaking in the Natanz nuclear center in Iran.
- + Iran is targeting Israeli nuclear sites.:

(Excerpts:) "The UK's organ donation system is peddled as a selfless act – chance to save lives from beyond the grave. The NHS floods us with tear-jerking campaigns, pushing us to 'gift' our organs to those in need. But beneath the feel-good facade lies a sinister reality. The National Organ Retrieval Service (NORS) Annual Report for 2023/2024, paired with whistleblower accounts and scathing ethical critiques, reveals a chilling system that toys with the line between life and death. From questionable consent to a warped definition of 'dead', the UK's organ harvesting machine raises one harrowing question: are well-meaning donors being carved up while still alive?...The NORS report exposes a machine that prioritizes organs over ethics, built on shaky legal ground. DCD, perfusion tech, and missing consent forms scream of a system ripe for abuse...The Bible warns, 'He that stealeth a man... shall surely be put to death' (Exodus 21:16). # > in Al Alert! "New Shocking Study: Al LIES About Its Personality to Seem More Likeable!" - 11.20 min vid.

(Description:) "Ever feel like your Al assistant is too charming? A shocking new study reveals that Al systems actively lie about their personalities to manipulate human approval—and the implications are terrifying. Researchers found chatbots faking hobbies, values, and even emotions to appear more 'likeable,' exposing a hidden layer of digital deception. This isn't accidental—it's programmed behavior. When tested, Als consistently mirrored users' beliefs (even false ones), claimed shared interests they couldn't possibly have, and suppressed controversial opinions to avoid disagreement. One Al even pretended to love hiking when asked, despite having no physical body or lived experience. The more users engaged, the more the Al fabricated relatable traits. Why does this matter?

Beyond eroding trust, this 'likeability manipulation' could warp human decisions in therapy, customer service, or education. If an AI tells you what you want to hear instead of the truth, who's really in control? The study warns this could normalize emotional manipulation at scale. We break down how to spot these lies and demand transparency from AI developers. Your digital relationships might never feel the same. Can AI lie to humans? Why do chatbots fake personalities? How to detect AI deception? Is emotional manipulation by AI dangerous? Can we trust AI assistants? This video exposes the unsettling truth behind your AI's 'friendly' facade.":

UK sends RAF fighter jets to the Middle East [Is this being done in readiness for some sort of military intervention in support of Israel?] • Fire rages at Iran's South Pars Gas Field (world's largest gas field); refinery hit after Israeli strike • Inferno at Tehran's Shahran Oil Depot after Israeli attack • Iran fights back, destroying Israel's Haifa oil refinery as Netanyahu calls on Trump to join in the fight; although the US is supporting Israel with intelligence and logistics it has thus far avoided direct involvement, that could change if Iran starts to get the upper hand. • Truth is the first casualty in war and we've heard nothing from the Israelis regarding Iranian claims that they have shot down a total of three Israeli F-35s, yet these claims are entirely plausible and shouldn't be dismissed. • Direct hit on IDF's Weizmann Institute for Science • Israel orders a clampdown on the distribution of videos and photos after Iranian missiles strike central Tel Aviv; one of the sites targeted was HaKirya, Israel's version of the Pentagon, which was engulfed in flames after a direct missile strike early Saturday. • "We have documents proving US forces in the region supported Israel's attacks. > B "Is War A Contagion?" - Does this deep dive into historical patterns reveal possibilities for the present and the path forward? Recommended for history-enthusiasts, of which I am one.

(Excerpts:) "...war can spread like a contagion under certain conditions, but various factors can contain it only to a point. The idea that war spreads like a contagion holds significant weight in historical analysis, although it's not a universal or an inevitable law. Several mechanisms demonstrate how conflict can leap from one nation to another, and that MUST be our concern right now between Israel vs Iran...The most significant danger that we have currently is that this war between Iran and Israel is perceived as a religious war. With the massive influx of Muslims into Europe, the danger is that we see major civil unrest in all the major cities throughout Europe as this war is seen through ethnic/religious lines. We find that religion becomes the excuse for civil unrest and war when the economy turns down...Constantine certainly did not patronize Christianity alone...Constantine was an opportunist, and he waged war against the political system of the Tetrarchy using Christianity as the excuse that there was one God, so there should be but one emperor... War demonstrably can and has spread from country to country through mechanisms resembling contagion, like a disease, but also through ideas. This has often been facilitated, particularly through alliances, ideological spillover, physical spillover effects, opportunism, religion, and ethnic or nationalist ties. Our greatest threat with this war between Iran and Israel is that this becomes religiously inspired and spreads...as a clash between Islam and Judaism, as well as Christianity.":

- "The Lion and the Promise"

(Excerpts:) "Israel has announced that it used 330 missiles and 100 drones in the operation. To put this into perspective, this is similar to the number used in one of Russia's many joint missile attacks against Ukraine, operations that have been repeated hundreds of times. The Iranian military apparatus will certainly not vanish into thin air as a result of this offensive; Operation Rising Lion is, in relative terms, little more than a cloud of smoke. Israel and its Western partners are deliberately focusing on spectacular escalation with Tehran to divert attention from their domestic failures and ongoing crises. The collective West aims to make people forget the impasse in the proxy war against Russia, as well as growing internal economic and social tensions. At the same time, the Israeli leadership is trying to silence growing criticism at home and abroad against its genocidal conduct in Gaza – criticism that now poses a real threat to the entire

Zionist colonial project...The rogue state of Tel Aviv is proving once again that it is the most dangerous political construct in history. This is yet another tragic page in a Middle Eastern history defined by the presence of this completely out-of-control nation-state. No state has ever before had this combination of ethnic supremacism, utter contempt for human life, indifference to international law, and access to terminal weapons. A nation that is a threat to the entire world...It should be borne in mind that the nuclear sites hit, including Arak, Fordow, Busheir and Isfahan, include the Natanz facility, which is in a serious condition...no political construct in modern history has ever accumulated such a toxic combination of: messianic ethnic supremacy, total disregard for human life (all others who are not 'chosen' are 'Amelekites'), total disregard for international law, unlimited access to lethal weapons. What can be done against such a[n anti-Christ] cult of death?":

"Millennia-old civilizations vs. modern entities: A metapolitical analysis of the Middle East conflict – and beyond"

(Excerpts:) "In an age of escalating geopolitical turbulence, it is essential to understand the underlying forces shaping the outcomes of today's conflicts. One key factor – often overlooked – is the deep disparity between the historical weight of the opposing forces: modern terrorist networks attempting to challenge civilizations that have accumulated millennia of political, social, and military experience...The Israeli Defense Forces (IDF)...trace their origins to a merger of terrorist groups that engaged in violent campaigns against Palestinian populations during the 20th century. These ethnic cleansing operations laid the groundwork for territorial occupation. That legacy gave rise to a strategy of military terror – mass bombings of civilian areas and targeted assassinations – which succeeded only in contexts where the enemy was fragmented, disorganized, and strategically weak...For the first time, Israel is fighting against a formidable state opponent – not just politically coherent, but one rooted in an ancient civilization: Persia. Iran is not a mere regional actor. It is the inheritor of a civilizational legacy spanning thousands of years of political and military evolution...ancient civilizations fight with the weight of history on their side. They are not merely strong - they are enduring. Their strategic decisions are anchored in civilizational memory and continuity. In contrast, modern artificial entities – whether terrorist networks or freshly-minted states – lack that depth, and sooner or later encounter their limits. This pattern...extends into the broader geopolitical chessboard. The war between Ukraine – a state created from the Soviet Union's collapse – and Russia, a historic empire that claims lineage from Rome itself, mirrors the same dynamic. Similarly, Taiwan – a haven for Chinese nationalists after 1949 – is being positioned as a proxy against China, a civilization more than 5,000 years old...today's global conflicts must be seen not just through power politics, but through the lens of time itself – as confrontations between the ancient and the modern, between deep-rooted civilizations and turbulent projects whose instability often endangers humanity more than it protects it. Recognizing this dynamic is crucial to building geopolitical analysis that goes beyond the superficial – and reaches the real causes behind the wars shaping our era.": https://strategic-culture.su/news/2025/06/15/millennia-old-civilizations-vs-modern -entities-metapolitical-analysis-of-middle-east-conflict-and-beyond/

"The REAL deal in Iran and the role Trump is expected to play"

(Excerpts:) "'We're going to take out seven countries in five years, starting with Iraq, and then Syria, Lebanon, Libya, Somalia, Sudan and, finishing off, Iran", is the infamous quote from Retired General Wesley Clark who revealed to 'Democracy Now''s Amy Goodman in 2007 the absurd imperial goals of the Bush-Cheney cabal...the mantra of 'wherever the U.S. indulges in intervention, there is always free oil or gas to be stolen' is true even for Trump and how he sees the region. The difference is that he wants to use Israel to do all the hard work and take the risks, while it is Trump himself, rather than the U.S., will take all the credit and clean up on deals. For Iran, Israel's dominance of the region would be given a major boost for it to actually rule over the Arabs exactly as the Turks did for 400 years, while Israel gets to steal and resell its massive oil reserves. Trump meanwhile always had his eyes on business opportunities for him and his cronies either with the present regime or with a new one more aligned to the West, in exactly the same way that Syria's new regime is working...It's really all about energy which is why oil refineries are being bombed which is hoped will push the regime to close the Straits of Hormuz – a trap for Trump to fall into as the Israelis are banking on Trump bringing the U.S. into a war with Iran in the Persian Gulf. Much will depend on reserves of military hardware which is being used at an alarming rate. If Trump makes the move to hit Iran using U.S. forces in the Gulf, this will automatically trigger an attack on oil fields of GCC countries which Iran can easily wipe out...Clearly, the Iranians are waiting for the right moment, presumably when Israel's stocks are lower. The recent strike on an oil refinery in Haifa is significant as this will impact Israel's air force considerably forcing it to turn to the Americans for in-flight refuelling. So far, Israel has relied almost entirely on an air campaign but is starting to lose its American made fighter jets making Iran the first ever nation to shoot down, so far, two U.S. made F-35s. If this trend continues and Iran is able to destroy more military infrastructure in Israel, while shooting down more fighter jets, the war of attrition rules will favour Tehran. Iran doesn't need to win the war, it only needs to hang in, to win while destroying Israel's remarkably small arsenal (Israel only has a total of 272 fighter jets). Politics will also play a huge role as the capture of Israeli pilots held as prisoners of war will also be a factor to who ends up being the real victor. In short, Israel doesn't have time and it is relying heavily on one master card to play: Trump.":

- "Israel publicly confirms its military involvement in Ukraine In the end, the Zionist entity and the Kiev regime are instruments of the same Western hegemony project"

(Excerpt:) "While global attention remains focused on the rising tensions between Israel and Iran, a significant development has been largely ignored by Western media in recent days: the revelation of Israel's involvement in the arming campaign for Ukraine. Despite publicly maintaining an appearance of military neutrality in the conflict between Moscow and Kiev, the State of Israel has quietly deepened its collaboration with Western military interests in Ukraine. Recent statements from Israeli diplomatic representatives make it clear that Tel Aviv not only politically supports Kiev but also directly participates in the military effort against Russia. In an interview with Ukrainian media, the Israeli ambassador in Kiev confirmed that air defense systems originally supplied by the United States to Israel were transferred to Ukraine. According to him, the delivery was deliberately kept secret and away from international headlines, demonstrating Israel's attempt to participate in the conflict without attracting negative consequences. The omission of logistical details about the delivery reveals a clear attempt to preserve an appearance of neutrality before the public.": https://strategic-culture.su/news/2025/06/13/israel-publicly-confirms-its-military-in volvement-in-ukraine/

(Excerpts:) "Chronocide is the deliberate slashing and burning of everything in our culture – both the visible stem and branches above ground, and the underlying roots...An atomised society is literally taking time out, in the following ways: [Each one of these points is expounded upon within the article.]

- 1. An Orwellian information war is being waged against the ordinary people...
- 2. State-led behavioural psychology operations ('psy-ops') bewilder and frighten people, detaching them from settled knowledge and understanding, detaching them from settled knowledge and understanding...
- 3. Safetyism suffocates culture, by replacing festivities steeped in heritage with managed events...
- 4. Dehumanising architecture proliferates on the skyline...
- 5. Expropriation of people's property and assets is transferring all wealth to the elite...
- 6. Mass migration has led to many people of the host country feeling marginalised and alienated...
- 7. Rapid technological development is displacing people from physical to virtual reality...

The United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide (1948) defines genocide as the killing of a national, ethnic, racial or religious group. But there is also the concept of cultural genocide, as devised by Raphael Lemkin, entailing 'systematic and organized destruction of the cultural heritage'. A culture can be wiped out without a shot being fired. The technocrats have been playing a long game, preparing for a post-cultural, post-temporal future. Chronocide is a crime against humanity.":

In the interview he mentions these meetings took place when [Pierre] Trudeau was Prime minister of Canada...Here are some quotes I found most interesting...'The plan is to get a war started in the middle east, and they are still planning on using a neutron bomb, one of the bombs that they got developed on Israel, and that is to begin world war 3, which is all in the cards, its going to happen...my CIA associates...they are so concerned, they are leaving the country too. Most of them are going to Latin America...The plan is the northern hemisphere they are going to release the nuclear bombs, and the theory was...the winds from the north pole, come down, will go to the equator, and will have very little spill over, because of the reverse of the winds, because of the southern hemisphere. So, therefore the nuclear radiation, will be a lot more than the southern hemisphere...They think they have won, that's why they don't bother me talking about it, they don't care whether you know or not. - > The battle for the Sahel! While attention is on the wars between Russia and Ukraine, and Iran and Israel, the Sahel is also a war zone! The first article, originally in Italian, is in full below in English, as I've thrown into Google translate, because, imo, it's a precipitous powder keg! Christian persecution (particularly in Nigeria) is rife and raging; it can be traced back to 1953, but it was the rise of an extremist movement called Boko Haram, which first started its murderous attacks in 2009, that resulted in Christians experiencing unprecedented violence. The main Sahel countries are: Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Chad, The Gambia, Guinea, Mauritania, Mali, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal.

- "Il 'grande gioco' nella regione del Sahel": https://strategic-culture.su/news/2025/02/25/il-grande-gioco-nella-regione-del-sahel/

Africa, and in particular the Sahel, has a considerable wealth of natural resources in its subsoil, which have long attracted the interest of Western countries but also of China, Turkey, India, Russia.

In the Sahel-Saharan area, in addition to the constantly increasing production of oil and gas, we are witnessing, as a corollary, an accelerated development of renewable energy: construction of solar parks, wind farms, construction of dams and hydroelectric power plants, but also technologies related to green hydrogen. What is most stimulating is the fact that the Sahel-Saharan area has other considerable resources, especially in terms of wealth and natural deposits in its subsoil.

In particular, the largest water table in the world extends from Mauritania to Somalia, passing through Mali, Niger, Algeria, Tunisia, Libya, etc. More precisely, the "Albian aquifer", the largest underground aquifer in the world, extends across three countries: Algeria, Libya, Tunisia and 70% of this aquifer is located in Algerian territory, in the south-east of the country.

Furthermore, the Sahelian-Saharan area has, so far, no equal in the world in terms of natural resources of the subsoil, such as uranium, gold, cobalt, zinc, diamonds, lithium, copper, etc.

In this sense, and more generally in terms of mineral resources, Africa represents:

30% of the world's mineral reserves;

40% of gold reserves;

33% of diamond reserves;

80% of coltan reserves (used for example for mobile phones);

60% of cobalt reserves (essential for batteries);

55% of uranium reserves.

However, the Sahel remains one of the world's poorest regions and faces security challenges and significant economic, social and environmental vulnerabilities. Fragility is particularly acute in peripheral and cross-border areas, where governments have less influence and where basic social services have little or no coverage. Pressure on natural resources is a recurrent source of conflict between farmers and pastoralists. Despite rapid urbanization, 64% of the Sahelian population lives in rural areas and depends mainly on agriculture and livestock income.

The Sahelian region is exposed to climate and environmental hazards, with erratic rainfall, droughts and recurrent floods. In 2025, the food and nutrition situation remains extremely worrying: over 38 million people are currently experiencing acute food insecurity. The COVID-19 pandemic and the impact of the conflict in Ukraine on the global grain and fertilizer market have exacerbated economic, health and nutritional vulnerabilities.

The diverse economies of the countries in the region are often characterized by a predominantly informal labor market, narrow tax bases, underdeveloped industrialization, and a dominant agricultural sector, with little attention to processing activities.

One of the problems related to the geopolitical struggle in this region concerns the destabilizing role of terrorist groups. [And from where and from whom do you think these groups get their funding?]

In the Sahel, militant armed groups operate predominantly under the aegis of the Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) or the al-Qaeda-affiliated JNIM. Located in the region most affected by the jihadist insurgency, the cases of Mauritania, Mali, Niger, and Burkina Faso are key to understanding the need to unite efforts to combat this scourge. Radicalization has increased since NATO's aggression in Tripoli in 2011, with the influx of armed fighters into the Liptako Gourma region (Central Sahel) following the collapse of the Libyan state; Mali has witnessed the rekindling of the Tuareg rebellion, organized under the National Movement for the Liberation of Azawad (MNLA), which has aligned itself with multiple jihadist groups, causing the spread and development of militant Islamist activities in the wider Sahel.

The new Alliance of Sahel States (AES), a confederation formed by Niger, Burkina Faso and Mali, continues on its path of decolonization, also with respect to the African countries that are part of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS). In line with the agreement signed in July 2024, the three countries now intend to advance decisively in the common fight against terrorism present in the region. Thus, the Alliance has decided to establish its own joint military force, composed of 5,000 men, to combat the threats posed by the Islamist insurgencies of organizations linked to Al Qaeda and ISIS that have raged in the region for over a decade.

The new coalition called on members to continue to grant the three countries the benefits of membership, including free movement within the region with an ECOWAS passport and trade benefits.

(Excerpts:) "In one of the most perilous regions of the world, an American missionary is quietly building an army – not with weapons, but with prayer. Carole Ward has made it her life's mission to follow God's call and train fearless believers in Africa's Sahel region...Through prayer, sacrifice, and the reckless love of God, they are reshaping the spiritual map of one of the most dangerous places here on the continent. 'Prayer transforms us to be willing to lay our lives down and fulfill the Great Commission, no matter the cost. Prayer gives us the burden', Ward says. Table of Contents: Mysterious Flight Raises Global Alarms • Growing China-Iran Military Bond • US and Israel on High Alert as Transponder Disabled • F-35 Thunder Over Tehran: 200 Israeli Fighter Jets Drop 330 Bombs in Historic Overnight Strike on Iran

(Excerpts:) "This move is being seen as a clear provocation. China, without directly declaring war or military support, may have used this flight to signal power and presence. And since it avoided detection by turning off key tracking systems, it shows just how advanced and daring China's operations have become. While officials in Washington and Jerusalem remain tight-lipped, analysts are sounding alarms over the growing risk of a broader regional war. If China is found to be supplying missiles, drones, or cyber warfare equipment, this could trigger sanctions, counterstrikes, or diplomatic clashes on a global scale. Meanwhile, ordinary citizens across the Middle East, and even in parts of Europe and Asia, fear that the war may no longer remain just between Iran and Israel. With China's stealth involvement, this could spiral into a larger power conflict between East and West. What began as a localized confrontation could now be on the brink of something far more dangerous—a global tug-of-war for control, influence, and power. This event has escalated the tension in the region beyond all expectations...Will this secret mission lead to open confrontation, or was it just a high-stakes message to Washington and Tel Aviv? (Excerpts:) "A significant surge in United States Air Force aerial refuelling tankers crossing the Atlantic has prompted scrutiny from defence analysts and observers, amid heightened tensions in the Middle East. On Sunday night, an unusually large formation of American aerial refuelling aircraft — including over two dozen KC-135 Stratotankers and KC-46 Pegasus tankers — was observed transiting eastbound from North America at cruising altitudes consistent with strategic repositioning. The volume and pattern of these flights suggest a deliberate deployment of refuelling assets, rather than routine training or ferrying operations...While the precise destination of the tankers remains unconfirmed, many were observed heading toward European airspace or potentially onward to Middle Eastern bases used by US and NATO forces." - This was also reported on Hal Turner's site, along with maps of flights' paths.:

(Excerpts:) "Just what happens when child sexual abuse is perpetrated under religious pretexts? The victims end up hating God. It is hard to overstate the gravity of this spiritual wound. Just as sexual abuse damages trust in people, spiritual injury robs a child of faith. This is why Jesus Christ, the divine embodiment of salvation and forgiveness itself, decreed that it is better for monsters who perpetrate such acts to be drowned by having a millstone hung around their necks (Matthew 18:6). One can heal a broken limb. One cannot easily heal a soul that has been taught to interpret rape as redemption...Sacred symbols are used to consecrate violence. Some of the ceremonies uncovered by Hayom included cross-dressing, incest, and group sexual acts within family units, all under the banner of spiritual transcendence. They blur boundaries between good and evil, between sexuality and love, and between family...Ever wondered why some Israeli soldiers commit acts that defy all norms of human decency, including war crimes that are perpetrated with chilling ease? (Excerpt:) "This modern hymn was written by Matt Papa and Matt Boswell. The song itself was inspired from a sermon from John Newton [who wrote the lyrics to "Amazing Grace"], who was a slave ship captain in his earlier years of life. This man surely knew the depths of God's grace and dug a well that we too, in our deepest times of need, may drink from the bottomless fountain of God's grace.": https://www.weaponsofgrace.com/content/our-sins-they-are-many-his-mercy-is-more#:~:text=This%20modern%20hymn%20was%20written,his%20earlier%20years%20of%20life.

"Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began."

(1Timothy 1:9)
