Whenever I read and hear again 1Peter 5:8-9—which says, "be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world"—I remember that this is literally what happened to Adam and Eve! In this 15th installment of our study from the "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve", on the degrees and depths of deception Satan tried in order to tease, lure, deceive, beguile, seduce, distract, scare, manipulate, and even kill Adam and Eve, Satan takes on the form of not just one lion, but two lions!

Chapters 53 - Satan takes on the form of two ravenous lions.

[Note that at the very end of Chapter 52:12-13, at sunrise and the beginning of a new day, and after Adam and Eve had said their customary morning prayers, they "then went out of the cave. And Adam said unto Eve, 'Since we know not what there is to the westward of this cave, let us go forth and see it to-day.' Then they came forth and went towards the western border." Just because they "know not what there is to the westward of this cave", does that necessarily mean they should know? This is now the 52nd day since Adam and Eve have been expelled from the Garden, where they succumbed to Satan's ploy to ignore what God had told them to do, and decide right and wrong for themselves—as mini-gods, so to speak—which, as we see in this chapter, is a choice that continues to seduce and lure them a satanically designed destruction!]

- 1 They were not very far from the cave, when Satan came towards them, and hid himself between them and the cave, under the form of two ravenous lions three days without food, that came towards Adam and Eve, as if to break them in pieces and devour them.
- 2 Then Adam and Eve wept, and prayed God to deliver them from their paws.
- 3 Then the Word of God came to them, and drove away the lions from them.
- 4 And God said unto Adam, "O Adam, what seekest thou on the western border? And why hast thou left of thine own accord the eastern border, in which was thy dwelling-place?
- 5 Now, then, turn back to thy cave, and remain in it, that Satan do not deceive thee, nor work his purpose upon thee.
- 6 "For in this western border, O Adam, there will go from thee a seed, that shall replenish it; and that will defile themselves with their sins, and with their yielding to the behests of Satan, and by following his works.
- 7 Therefore will I bring upon them the waters of a flood, and overwhelm them all. But I will deliver what is left of the righteous among them; and I will bring them to a distant land, and the land in which thou dwellest now shall remain desolate and without one inhabitant in it." [Here we have the foretelling, by the Lord Himself, of the Great Flood that would come upon the whole world during the days of Noah. (See Genesis, chapters 6-9.) For more on verses 6 and 7, see "Eden Insights", pages 139-140, by Stephen N. Strutt.]
- 8 After God had thus discoursed to them, they went back to the Cave of Treasures. But their flesh was dried up, and their strength failed from fasting and praying, and from the sorrow they felt at having trespassed against God. ["Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way." (Prov.15:10a)]

[As the chorus to one of my favourite hymns declares, "Trust and obey, for there's no other way to be happy in Jesus but to trust and obey!" "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with Mine eye. The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in His way." (Psa.32:8; 37:23) Just because something is possible, available, attainable, doesn't necessarily mean it's expedient! "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not." (1Cor.10:23) God, bless and keep us guided by and grounded in You.]

- Here are some items on what must have been Trumpty-Dumpty's June birthday wish: Make the Epstein files go away! Or, he received instructions from the Gangsta-delites to make them go away! But hey, if there isn't a list, then how, for example, was Ghislaine Maxwell found guilty of trafficking? Well, hopefully this turn of events will be a water-shed, eureka moment for many MAGAs.—That it will cause them to realise that the left wing and the right wing is the same bird of prey, and that they will finally be open to receive The Truth! "The reason the FBI wouldn't let the Epstein client list come out in court is because, if they did, their blackmail would no longer be useful, and the CIA would lose their control over all the powerful they spent decades setting up." (Julian Assange)
- One of the news guys asks a question to Bondi, but before she answers, Trumpty-Dumpty (fuming inside because he's, no doubt, on the Epstein List, and has received instructions to dump the release down the dunny) interjects in a gasp of frustration and attempted deflection, calling Epstein a "creep"! The documents also show that the US is looking for contractors to perform building maintenance repairs, including on air fields. > \(\subseteq \text{"Do They Deserve It? Mexico Is Collapsing As The US Deports Illegals Back Home" - Very insightful, imo, article on what's happening at the US-Mexico border and beyond! Includes 4.06 and 8.11 min vids.

(Excerpts:) "Oh, the delicious irony. For many years I've been writing about the southern US border and the many ways in which Mexico has used it as a 'steam' valve' to get rid of people in perpetual poverty, as well as malcontents, violent criminals and political revolutionaries. Who could have foreseen a time when the conundrum would be reversed and Mexico would be crushed by an avalanche of its own unwanted citizens?...a large contingent of Central Americans believe that the southern US belongs to them by historical right. The 'La Raza' movement has long called for the retaking of large swaths of US territory in the name of 'decolonization' (even though they are also descended from Spanish colonists). I believe they will once again assume that they can solve most of their problems of incompetent governance and economic decline by blaming the US and pressing citizens to invade. They will double down on the same actions that got them in trouble in the first place. When Claudia Sheinbaum talks about 'mobilizing' Mexico against the US, this is most likely what she means – A renewed march on the US border in the hopes that Mexico can reopen the steam valve and alleviate their economic troubles. The result will not be peaceful as she seems to suppose; it could even mean war. It would be a disaster for the Mexicans, but they've been relying on the US for so long that they simply don't understand any other way. That is to say, they are about to get what they deserve; a taste of their own medicine. The destabilization they tried to export to us is now on its way to blow up their own country.":

> @ PS to 9 July: Regarding the item I posted vesterday:

"The Crypto King: Trump's $1B Windfall in Just 9 Months Sparks Frenzy -Trump's Crypto Fortune Surpasses His Real Estate Holdings as Net Worth Hits $5.6B" - and - "Big Abomination Bill", and in particular, the second article of that coupling (https://mileswmathis.com/bbb.pdf), in which it states towards its end, "In a significant move, the Pakistan Crypto Council has reached an in-principle agreement with World Liberty Financial, a project backed by...US President Donald Trump. This collaboration aims to accelerate the integration of cryptocurrency and blockchain development in Pakistan, a country that has emerged as a key player in the global cryptocurrency landscape. With approximately 25 million crypto users and annual trading volumes of $300 billion, Pakistan ranks ninth globally in terms of crypto adoption, according to Chainalysis. This partnership is poised to further boost the country's growing crypto industry. Why would Pakistan, a country of goat herders, rank 9th in crypto adoption? Despite a skyrocketing population, Pakistan is still one of the least urbanized countries in the world, ranking 186 below Guinea and Mozambique. Who exactly are these 35 million crypto users in Pakistan? That's almost a quarter of the adult population of Pakistan! That's more people than live in greater Lahore and Karachi combined. So this is the usual conjob." - I asked Self-Sufficiency Consultant Peter G. about these questions from Miles, the author of that article, to which he replied, "I reckon they're making up names and funding it, to inflate the price to their benefit. The more people buy, the higher the price, and the bigger the dividends to the early adopters. As a wild punt, it's likely that those '35 million crypto users in Pakistan' could be traced back to one person or company!"

> _____ "Azerbaijan – Middle East pivot? And the usual suspects" - Excellent dot-to-dotting from Pete Fairhurst. A definite must-read!

(Excerpts #1:) "...the UK keeps the ball in play. Suddenly there is a new political tension, fomented by Brits [delites and M15&16?] and Israel [Zios and Mossad?], between Russia and Azerbaijan. Millions of Azeris currently dwell in Russia and occupy a prominent space in the Russian economy. On one side, Russia deported a few powerful Azeri businessmen who had grown too big for their shoes. On another side is the big and extremely wealthy Jewish community of Azerbaijan in close alliance with Israel. These Azeris sell oil to Israel. To further complicate things, millions of Azeris live in Iran; actually, the Ayatollahs are predominantly Azeri. While native Persians prefer poetry, the 15-20 million Azeri

Turks living in northern Iran are a fighting lot. Finally, Azerbaijan is an essential nexus to connect the big states of BRICS: Russia, China and Iran. Iran is particularly upset that Azerbaijan allows Israel to fly sorties via this backdoor to attack it...Russia, China and Iran continue to be quite upset by Azerbaijan's political meddling, and Turkey plans to establish a big military base there – it will be NATO base, actually."

(Excerpts #2, which includes a document written in 2019, that is within this article:) It appears a couple of Saudi oil tankers were attacked off the coast of the United Arab Emirates a couple weeks ago, and the US is blaming Iran. Obviously, this is just a false flag being used to keep everyone tense, or justify the defense budget, or play with oil prices, or all the above. But it got me thinking about Iran and its rulers – who they are and where they came from...As it turns out, they're all Jewish. They are not 'Arab' or 'Persian' or 'Middle Eastern'. These are all just broad ethnic terms that signify nothing. They are used merely to keep you off the scent. And none of Iran's leaders are Muslim, either. Most of Islam's top clerics and religious leaders have been placed there to control the religion and keep its adherents focused on the wrong things. They are doing the same thing with Christianity in the West...The current Supreme Leader of Iran is Ali Khamenei. Since the Iranian Revolution of 1979, which overthrew the last imperial Shah, there have been two Supreme Leaders: Ruhollah Khomeini (1979-1989) and Ali Khamenei (1989-present). We pronounce their names the same in English...the names sound very different in the Persian language, and they are both place names referring to two distant towns where the two Supreme Leaders trace their family roots...Khamenei means 'from Khamaneh', a town in the Azerbaijan province of Iran, in the northwest...this is the area of Iran that borders Armenia. Khamaneh is only 80 miles south of the Armenian border. Why is that important? Because the crypto-Jewish Komnene family that infiltrated all the European thrones are from Armenia...the Komnene's Byzantine empire (see https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Byzantine Empire under the Komnenos dynasty), at one point, encompassed present-day northwest Iran where Khamaneh is located...The town can also be spelled Khāmneh or Khumna. Is it possible that the Supreme Leader Khamenei is actually a Komnene? This would mean the mainstream story is reversing the truth about his name. His family isn't named for the town; the town is named for his family. My hunch gets more validation when we examine the Komnene's origins. One of the first known family members was Nikephoros Komnenos, who was governor of Vaspurakan in the 11th century. Vaspurakan comprises modern-day southeast Turkey and northwest Iran, where Khameneh is located. At the very least, we've established that Supreme Leader Khamenei bears the name of a town that was in all likelihood named after the ancient Komnene family who also originated in that region." (From Peter G.:) There's been more than one instance where local indigenous leaders were preventing a mining proposal from expanding along a section of land under their jurisdiction. This was due to potential sacred sites where it was assumed that ancestors burial grounds were rumored to be located, as well as lizards and frogs reportedly in the same area. However, when the company offered the group $100 million in order to soften the blow, it was readily accepted. The moral of the story being that all sacred and environmental impacts went out the door once sizable sums of money exchanged hands.—A compromise where all values, morals and potential environmental harm were no match for readily accepted remuneration.

"The 'Norwegian Law': Problematic, Yes—But a Necessary Evil - The 'Norwegian Law' has many troubling and significant downsides" —For example: "...the most significant drawback of the law is that the 'Norwegian' MKs are really only conditional members of the House. Because ministers are allowed - but not required - to resign their Knesset seat, the 'Norwegians' membership depends on the goodness the ministers' hearts [ie, the whims of man!]. Moreover, the 'Norwegian' MKs know that if ministers from their Knesset faction leave the Government and return to the Knesset, they themselves will be sent packing. > 💥 "The Stolen Children of Yemen - Israel's Dark Legacy of Racist Social Engineering" - A communication from a dear KUer prompted me to research this. Operation Magic Carpet, also known as "On Wings of Eagles", was a large-scale airlift operation conducted by Israel to "evacuate" approx. 49,000 Yemeni Jews to Israel in 1949-50. But what happened to them? The disappearances took place between 1948-1954, during which 1,000-5,000 infants/toddlers (mostly Yemenite, but also Iragi/Moroccan Jews) vanished from Israeli transit camps and hospitals. Parents were told children "died suddenly" but given no bodies, graves, or death certificates. Some later received military draft notices for their "deceased" children. Babies were quarantined for "hygiene reasons," with parents barred from visiting. Israeli Jews who originate from Arab countries are known in Israel as Mizrahim, in contrast to those of European heritage, who are called Ashkenazi. The evidence suggested that most of the missing children – from Mizrahi families – were taken by hospital staff and sold/given away to European Jews, both in Israel and abroad. But why? Syngenta Faces Swiss Court Over Pesticide Poisoning in India this article highlights what happens when wealthy corporations export hazardous pesticides to Global South countries, where weaker regulatory protections allow them to prioritise shareholder profits over public safety."

(Excerpts:) "In 2017, the Yavatmal district of Maharashtra in India experienced a mass poisoning incident: hundreds of cotton farmers and farm workers suffered severe symptoms after spraying pesticides, with at least 23 deaths reported. Official police records linked 96 poisoning cases—two fatal—directly to Syngenta's insecticide Polo, with 36 cases involving only Polo and the rest involving it in combination with other pesticides...An analysis of a huge database of 2018's top-selling 'crop protection products' revealed the world's leading agrochemical companies made more than 35% of their sales from pesticides classed as highly hazardous to people, animals or ecosystems. The investigation identified billions of dollars of income for agrochemical giants BASF, Bayer, Corteva, FMC and Syngenta from chemicals found by regulatory authorities to pose health hazards like cancer or reproductive failure...The data covered around 40 per cent of the $57.6bn global market for agricultural pesticides in 2018. It focused on 43 countries, which between them represented more than 90 per cent of the global pesticide market by value. So, don't expect Syngenta to abandon its toxic, profit-driven practices any time soon. However, corporations are fully aware that what some might see as 'pesky' court cases can ignite movements that grow into unstoppable forces. Just ask Bayer about glyphosate—the courtroom battles that turned a trickle of dissent into a tidal wave. When regulatory agencies fail to act and remove pesticides from the market, victims are taking companies to court to hit them where it really hurts—in their pocket.":

(Jim Ferguson) Includes 22.24 and 9.01 min vids. (Excerpts:) "Despite Bill Gates attempting to claim a Dutch court has no jurisdiction over him, the court case against him and 16 other defendants went ahead on Wednesday...Two Dutch lawyers, Arno van Kessel and Peter Stassen, filed a case representing 7 claimants who alleged harm from covid injections. The case against Bill Gates, Pfizer CEO Albert Bourla and 15 others was facilitated by the Stichting Recht Oprecht Foundation...In June, the day after submitting documents for the initial proceedings, van Kessel was arrested and taken away blindfolded by a team of semi-military police...Many suspect that lawyer van Kessel has come too close to the truth in the corona file...He is still being held in the Netherlands' highest security prison. [As reported in KU194.] So, on Wednesday, Stassen represented the 7 claimants on his own...lf van Kessel's arrest was meant to intimidate Stassen, it did the opposite. As if he felt he had nothing left to lose, Stassen did all but mince his words, (he took the bull by) the horns and named the defendants' crimes for what they are: biowarfare, genocide, mass murder, deceit and assault. The judge will issue his ruling in six weeks' time...During the trial, Stassen had requested the court to hear witness statements from financial expert Catherine Austin Fitts, medical expert Mike Yeadon and Alexandra Latypova, a professional in healthcare business and entrepreneurship, among others, as requested by three clients, harmed by the covid-19 experimental gene-therapeutic jabs. This request was contested by, in total, eight lawyers, representing: Bill Gates; the chief editors of Dutch newspaper De Telegraaf and Dutch TV-broadcaster NOS; Albert Bourla; and, a range of high-ranking Dutch officials and politicians, such as Mark Rutte, who were responsible for the handling of the corona crisis...Although the team of lawyers for the defendants are esteemed within the judiciary. Stassen dwarfed their presentations single-handedly. In addition, the defendants' framing of the suggested witnesses as 'conspiracy theorists' and 'unqualified' had lost all its magic on an audience tired of five years of lies, abuse of trust, physical harm and excess deaths. 'None of the defendants' lawyers have responded to the content of my plea. They foolishly repeat the official narrative – which is the prerequisite for being chosen as executors by the defendants. The Dutch State's lawyer even has the nerve to repeat 'safe and effective' here again, while facts and data have long since overtaken the official narrative,' Stassen concluded. The judgement will follow in six weeks' time, so the 20th of August, at the latest." - WOW! Let's pray, pray, pray for a ruling that will strike the cabalic convidians to their core and proclaim the truth!:

(Excerpts:) "Emmanuel Gonquoi has accused the US of repackaging colonial-era policies under the guise of economic partnership...[commenting on] Trump's meeting on Wednesday with African leaders at the White House, the head of the Economic Freedom Fighters of Liberia said he did not believe the US leader was acting in good faith. Instead, he described the meeting as part of a 'colonial package' aimed at rebranding imperialism under the guise of economic cooperation...a repurposed set of imperialist tools designed to 'exploit Africa once again'...Gonguoi strongly criticized Trump's call for African nations to purchase American weapons, arguing that such policies would only deepen the continent's conflicts. According to the activist, Africans 'are interested in utilizing technology and science to take millions of people out of poverty'. Gonquoi emphasized that the continent's focus should shift from militarization to job creation and economic development...He accused the US, France, and Britain of fueling internal divisions and manipulating African leaders in pursuit of natural resources. 'Those are the people who continue to fuel conflict on the continent', he said." - Amen to that! You're on to it, Emmanuel! Meanwhile, COVID jabs and flu vaccines remain on the market, ushering in new boosters with each season. Under Robert F. Kennedy Jr.'s watch, the agency continues to push experimental vaccines, mimicking the very pro-vaccine orthodoxy he once denounced. Behind the scenes, his administration accelerates access to untested jabs, leaving a trail of unanswered concerns in the rush to appease pharmaceutical interests. Despite promises of reform, the stagnation at Health and Human Services mirrors the inertia of past administrations — pledging [LYING ABOUT!] transparency while deepening reliance on the same profit-driven framework that prioritizes vaccines over comprehensive public health solutions...As vaccine mandates expand—including for pregnant women and one-day-old babies -public trust continues to crumble. Studies show flu shot uptake declines as more injections are recommended during pregnancy, prompting new propaganda campaigns to push compliance. Rather than addressing safety concerns, government-backed messaging dismisses risks as 'misinformation', doubling down on coercion. Kennedy's latest moves reveal a troubling pattern: dismantling advisory boards for optics while maintaining the same pro-industry policies.":

(Excerpts:) "...as with the previous military assaults on countries in West Asia and North Africa in the 21st century, when international law has been violated, there have been no meaningful legal repercussions for these transgressions. Nor will there be...To understand why, it is only necessary to understand how the world works...a great deal of control is exercised through the banking system that functions internationally and within each country...The central figures in this Global Elite [control] are the members of the Rothschild family who have operated at the centre of this Elite since the late 18th century and exercise staggering control over many key aspects of the global economy, starting with banking, energy, weapons, mining, infrastructure (including railways), media and biotechnology... two industries that the Rothschilds dominate are banking and the weapons industry...giving it enormous power to reshape world order to suit its purposes...In the case of Netanyahu, and despite his well-documented corruption, he has been a faithful servant of the Zionist elite for decades, routinely acting to implement their program throughout West Asia. And faithful servants, chosen for their role, are defended, whatever their ills....[In the 1990's], consistent with a business tactic [the Rothschilds] have employed for more than 200 years, through an agent...the Rothschilds offered Trump 'a prepackaged bankruptcy deal'...Trump continues to pay off his 'forever debt'. These days, one way he does that is by deploying the power of his presidential position to serve their [the Rothschilds'] divergent ends as part of the payback...any consideration of Rothschild history must lead to an awareness that they precipitate wars to reshape world order where necessary and to capture control of resources, in whatever form these take. And its legacy of gaining control of such resources – including mineral resources such as oil and gas, gold, diamonds, rubies, [And I'll add "human beings and their organs"!] depending on the context, is well documented. Thus, just as the war to expel the Palestinians from Gaza will, among other opportunities, open access for the Rothschilds to profit enormously by exploiting the gigantic Leviathan maritime natural gas resources in the Mediterranean Sea off the coast of Gaza...regime change in Iran would open the possibility of the Rothschilds re-establishing their key role in the ownership and exploitation of oil and gas in Iran, which they lost following the Iranian revolution in 1979 when the assets of all foreign oil companies operating in Iran were seized...It would also force open the possibility of Iran surrendering some or total control of the Central Bank of Iran which is not a member of the Rothschild-controlled Bank for International Settlements.":

In fact, this is not even close to normal...It is being reported that an absolutely massive coronal hole has developed on the Sun...I was absolutely stunned when I first saw that. Hopefully it does not turn out to be a serious threat. So why am I talking about all of this today? I am talking about all of this because we really are living at a time when our planet is becoming increasingly unstable. We have always been able to count on weather patterns to fall within certain parameters, we have always been able to count on our planet not to shake too much, and we have always been able to count on our Sun to behave in predictable ways.
