In this 16th installment of our study from the "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve", on the degrees and depths of deception Satan tried in order to tease, lure, deceive, beguile, seduce, distract, scare, manipulate, and even kill Adam and Eve, Satan's hideous form is on full display!

Chapters 57 - The hideous form of Satan.

[Note that the prelude to this event starts in the last two verses of Chapter 56, which say:]

12 But, after the angels were gone from Adam and Eve, came Satan, with shamefacedness, and stood at the entrance of the cave in which were Adam and Eve. He then called to Adam, and said, "O Adam, come, let me speak to thee."

13 Then Adam came out of the cave, thinking he was one of God's angels that was come to give him some good counsel.

Here, again, Adam is not able to distinguish the difference between God's angels and Satan's subtlety! "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God." (Eph.6:11; Cor.11:14; 1Jn.4:1)]

- 1 But when Adam came out and saw his hideous figure, he was afraid of him, and said unto him, "Who art thou?"
- 2 Then Satan answered and said unto him, "It is I, who hid myself within the serpent, and who talked to Eve, and beguiled her until she hearkened to my command. I am he who sent her, through the wiles of my speech, to deceive thee, until thou and she ate of the fruit of the tree, and ye came away from under the command of God."
- 3 But when Adam heard these words from him, he said unto him, "Canst thou make me a garden as God made for me? Or canst thou clothe me in the same bright nature in which God had clothed me?
- 4 Where is the divine nature thou didst promise to give me? Where is that fair speech of thine, thou didst hold with us at first, when we were in the garden?" ["Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain." (Prov.25:14) Is Adam, who bought into Satan's hopium deal, still hoping against hope?]
- 5 Then Satan said unto Adam, "Thinkest thou, that when I have spoken to one about anything, I shall ever bring it to him or fulfil my word? Not so. For I myself have never even thought of obtaining what I asked.
- 6 Therefore did I fall, and did I make you fall by that for which I myself fell; and with you also, whosoever accepts my counsel, falls thereby. [The "prince of this world" (See Jn.12:31; 14:30; 16:11) is always promising results, yet when those results aren't forthcoming, there are only more demands and dissatisfaction. In contrast, Jesus said, "Whosoever drinketh of this [physical] water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." (Jn.4:13-14) Adam is finally hearing right from Satan's mouth that their supposed deal is off, it's fake, a sham!]
- 7 But now, O Adam, by reason of thy fall, thou art under my rule, and I am king over thee; because thou hast hearkened to me, and hast transgressed against thy God. Neither will there be any deliverance from my hands until the day promised thee by thy God." [And that promise is outlined in Chapter 3 ("Concerning the promise of the great five days and a half") of "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve", in which it says, "I have ordained on this earth days and years, and thou and thy seed shall dwell and walk in it, until the days and years are fulfilled; when I shall send the Word (Jesus Christ) that created thee, and against which thou hast transgressed, the Word that made thee come out of the garden and that raised thee when thou wast fallen. Yea, the Word that will again save thee when the five days and a half are fulfilled.'...Then God, in His mercy for Adam, who was made after His own image and similitude, explained to him that these were 5,000 and 500 years; and how One would then come and save him and his seed."]

8 Again he said, "Inasmuch as we do not know the day agreed upon with thee by thy God, nor the hour in which thou shalt be delivered, for that reason will we multiply war and murder upon thee and thy seed after thee. ["But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but My Father only. Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up." (Mat.24:36,42,44; 2Thes.5:2; 2Pet.3:10) And because the Devil knows that he has an unknown set amount of time within to do his damnedest damage, he unceasingly "walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." (1Pet.5:8b)]

10 For as to our abode, O Adam, it is in burning fire; and we will not cease our evil doing no, not one day nor one hour. And I, O Adam, shall sow fire upon thee when thou comest into the cave to dwell there."

11 When Adam heard these words, he wept and mourned, and said unto Eve, "Hear what he said; that he will not fulfil aught of what he told thee in the garden. Did he really then become king over us?

12 But we will ask God, Who created us, to deliver us out of his hands."

Whilst not a literal "king", Satan relentlessly tempts humankind to choose sin and reject God's authority and the salvation of their souls through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, Who gave His life for us and rose from the dead, so that "as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." (Jn.1:12). It's truly so very heartbreaking to see how the reality of aligning themselves with Satan seems to finally be hitting home with Adam and Eve: that Satan is not going to fulfil one iota of what he promised them! Zero! Nil! It's all a hideous ha-ha-gotcha nothingburger! "Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about."—And had it not been for God's mercy, that has saved them from Satan's numerous attacks thus far, they would be stone-cold dead by now! And are those attacks over? Not by a long shot!

Quote: "Now while he waits for the Day of Judgment, when Satan, his angels, and all who follow and reject the wonderful gift of salvation, will be destroyed, His plan is crumbling in front of his eyes. The number one thing, in my opinion, that causes Satan so much anger is the last part of Isaiah 14:14. It says, 'I will be like the MOST HIGH'. Satan wanted to exalt his throne next to the Most High and be equal to Him. We know that no one is equal to God, and Satan's pride got him kicked out of heaven. And now his anger rises as our Lord fulfills this promise. Revelation 3 verse 21 says, 'To him that overcomes will I grant to SIT WITH ME ON MY THRONE, even as I also overcame, and am set down with MY FATHER IN HIS THRONE." God is going to allow us somehow (I can't fathom it) to sit on His throne with Him. Satan's plan has been given to be fulfilled in us through Jesus Christ. This is why Satan hates us. We must walk with caution for Satan's devices of wrath, but at the same time rejoice because through Jesus Christ we can trust in God's promises and receive power over all sin and refrain from all temptations." (Jahdiel Newman)

- > The massive piece of legislation to which President Donald Trump has just attached his legacy allocates $170 billion for immigration and border enforcement over the next four years—including $45 billion to expand the detention of immigrants to fulfill his campaign promise of mass deportations. It will make ICE the best-funded federal law enforcement agency in American history, with more money than the federal prison system, the FBI, and the Drug Enforcement Administration combined. What will that mean, practically speaking?
- "The Rise of the Prison State: Trump's Push for Megaprisons Could Lock Us All Up What Trump is building isn't just a prison state—it's a forced labor regime, where confinement and exploitation go hand in hand." So much for all that MAGA hypnotism!

(Excerpts:) "...many of these detained immigrants are then exploited as a pool of cheap labor inside the very facilities where they're held. In other words, this isn't just a prison expansion—it's a taxpayer-funded machine that extracts labor from the very people it imprisons, while draining billions from the economy and undermining the industries it claims to protect in order to help corporations make a larger profit...while they await due process, they are locked up, stripped of their rights, and forced to work for pennies on the dollar—all while the government and its contractors avoid paying minimum wage and save tens of millions a year in labor costs. This isn't just about cutting corners. It's a taxpayer-subsidized racket—a corporatist scheme where politically connected companies profit from government largesse, growing the very bureaucratic state that so-called fiscal conservatives once claimed to oppose...prisoners in the United States—many held in private or underregulated facilities—are part of a multibillion-dollar empire that supplies a hidden labor supply chain linked to hundreds of popular food brands and supply companies...The goods these prisoners produce wind up in the supply chains of a dizzying array of products found in most American kitchens, from Frosted Flakes cereal and Ball Park hot dogs to Gold Medal flour. Coca-Cola and Riceland rice. They are on the shelves of virtually every supermarket in the country, including Kroger, Target, Aldi and Whole Foods...It's no coincidence that 90 percent of people in immigration detention are held in privately run facilities. These corporations profit from every additional body behind bars—and have lobbied aggressively for the policies that keep the beds full. Their contracts often guarantee minimum occupancy levels, creating perverse incentives to detain more people, for longer periods, at the expense of justice and human rights. The implications for Trump's detention empire are chilling...the public is being conditioned to accept it...A government that rules by fear must maintain that fear.":

So, when hearing what Candace had to share about the "Dönme" and Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, and after you hear it, too, you'll understand why I immediately thought, "Wow! > in "As an adult, I can ask AI to locate a research paper for me without striking up a conversation about my personal problems. Not so with kids. AI is becoming a snare and an idol, and for the first time in the history of the world, it can speak with you directly. Is it possible that AI developers in Silicon Valley are aware that they are creating such a system of idolatry? Yes, considering all the chatter about AI God in the AI community." (Patrick Wood)

"Kids are turning to Al for friendship: 'I don't have anyone else to talk to' - A new UK report reveals children are turning to chatbots for homework help, emotional advice — and sometimes, because they have no one else" - "Thus saith the Lord GOD; 'Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them; they despised My judgments, and walked not in My statutes, but polluted My sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.' For all the gods of the people [are] idols: but the LORD made the heavens. Little children, keep yourselves from idols." (Ezk.16:36; 20:16; 1Chron.16:26; 1Jn.5:21)

(Excerpts:) "Kids are interacting with chatbots like ChatGPT, Snapchat's My AI, and character.ai (http://character.ai/) — platforms not necessarily designed with children in mind. The result? Some are receiving inaccurate information, emotionally confusing feedback, or even inappropriate content. (Yes, despite terms of service that suggest otherwise.) And while 'robot friend' might sound like a charming Pixar subplot, it becomes a lot more serious when one in four vulnerable children say they use chatbots because they have no one else to talk to...As AI tools become more conversational — and more convincingly human — kids aren't just using them; they're bonding with them. ["Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone. Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually." (Hos.4:17-18a)] Fifty percent of vulnerable children say it feels like talking to a real friend. That might be fine if the bots offered peer-reviewed advice and empathy algorithms, but as it stands, we're still dealing with probabilistic word prediction. > \times "The Wearables Trap: How the Government Plans to Monitor, Score, and Control You - Surveillance has always arrived dressed as progress." - The Devil is luring humanity to put on his trappings so as to be trapped! God help us to be vigilantly onguard and remembering always to "put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness." (Eph.4:24) (Excerpts:) "The body is fast becoming a battleground in the government's expanding war on the inner realms. The infrastructure is already in place to profile and detain individuals based on perceived psychological 'risks'. Now imagine a future in which your wearable data triggers a mental health flag. Elevated stress levels. Erratic sleep. A skipped appointment. A sudden drop in heart rate variability. In the eyes of the surveillance state, these could be red flags—justification for intervention, inquiry, or worse. RFK Jr.'s embrace of wearable tech is not a neutral innovation. It is an invitation to expand the government's war on thought crimes, health noncompliance, and individual deviation. It shifts the presumption of innocence to a presumption of diagnosis. You are not well until the algorithm says you are...The tools may differ, but the logic of domination is the same...Because ultimately, this isn't just about surveillance—it's about who gets to live...That concern is no longer theoretical. In 1996, writing about the Supreme Court's consideration of physician-assisted suicide, Hentoff warned that once a state decides who shall die 'for their own good', there are 'no absolute limits'. He cited medical leaders and disability advocates who feared that the poor, elderly, disabled, and chronically ill would become targets of a system that valued efficiency over longevity. Today, data collected through wearables—heart rate, mood, mobility, compliance—can shape decisions about insurance, treatment, and life expectancy. How long before an algorithm quietly decided whose suffering is too expensive, whose needs are too inconvenient, or whose body no longer qualifies as worth saving?...J.D. Vance endorsed a book by influencer Jack Posobiec and Joshua Lisec that advocates crushing 'unhumans' like vermin. This kind of rhetoric isn't abstract—it matters. How can any party credibly claim to be 'pro-life' when it devalues the humanity of entire groups, stripping them of the moral worth that should be fundamental to civil society?...We must reclaim the sanctity of the human body as a space of freedom—not as a data point. The push for mass adoption of wearables is not about health. It is about habituation. The goal is to train us—subtly, systematically—to accept government and corporate ownership of our bodies.": https://www.theburningplatform.com/2025/07/16/the-wearables-trap-how-the-gov ernment-plans-to-monitor-score-and-control-you/

> XIN Further to my top item from yesterday, the "More Occult History Exposed" video from Candace Owens, here is a MUST-READ item that backs up what was mentioned in Owens' video regarding the Satanic Sabbatean Subterfuge's Slimy Sludge that continues to be excretingly implemented by the delites worldwide! I shared this article with a KUer the day I came across it, to which they replied (excerpts): "Yes, excellent journalism there. The new Syrian government is such a poor psyop, it's farcical. I heard that one of the top generals in the Syrian military was bought-out to stand down troops during the invasion, just enough so they got overwhelmed...Long term, they can't kill everyone. There will always be resistance, and now that Syria has fallen, the resistance will grow, like in neighbouring Lebanon and Palestine and Iraq...Israel tries to get others to fight their battles. Turkey's president?—Pretty sure he was involved in the Syrian invasion, but he has to be seen condemning Israel. You look at what they do, not what they say. Nice job, exemplary journalism."

"The Influence of Sabbatean Frankism on the World"

(Excerpts:) "One of the most hidden aspects of the history of the last 350 years is the impact of the Shabbetian Messianic movement. It was led by Shabbetai Tzvi starting June 6, 1666 (6666). Tzvi convinced, perhaps, half of the world's Jewry at its peak that he was the true messiah. A vast Sabbatian movement promoted the Messianic ambitions of Tzv...The Sabbatian Luciferian phenomenon was kept alive through the centuries with great help. In the 18th century, Jacob Frank reintroduced Sabbatianism to Europe. Although Jewish scholars have dissected Sabbatianism and Frankism, little of it is known to the outside world. Rabbi Marvin Antelman believes the movement lives on at least in spirit and refers to today's believers as 'satanic Sabbatian Frankists'...They conspired with the Illuminati with goals of destroying all religions and fusing all nations into one...After a forced conversion to Islam by the Sultan, the cult simmered down. Then, Jacob Frank, one of history's nastiest men, encountered the Sabbatian Dönmeh while he was a traveling salesman in Turkey in 1750. He refined the concept of the Messiah, declared himself so, and urged members of the movement to sin as the means to salvation. It was called the 'cult of the all-seeing eye'. The Frankist 'believer' had an inverted, deceptive belief system. One must not appear to be as they really are. The last belief justified its followers' pursuit of the double lives they led. One could appear to be a religious Jew on the outside and, in reality, be a Frankist. The Dönmeh officially converted to Islam but remained (hidden) crypto-Jews. Similarly so with many Frankists who officially converted to Catholicism." - What I've excerpted here was covered by Candace in her video, but there's a LOT more in this article that she didn't cover!—Such as "The union between the secret societies of Illuminism and Freemasonry [that] was sealed in 1782 at the Congress of Wilhelmbad" (For more on that, see:

https://www.heritage-history.com/index.php?c=read&author=heckethorn&book=secret2&story=congress) and how "this new movement corresponded with the rise of the Sabbattean-Frankist-influenced House of Rothschild, as well as the Jewish families Oppenheimer, Wertheimer, Schuster, Speyer and Stern in Frankfurt.": https://www.winterwatch.net/2024/08/the-influence-of-sabbatian-frankism-on-the-world/> ill "In modern English, the appellation 'Nimrod' has come to mean someone lacking judgement or intelligence. The one man named Nimrod in the Bible (Gen.10:8-12; Mic.5:6; 1Chron.1:10) did not appear to be such an imbecile. Called a 'mighty warrior' and a 'mighty hunter before the LORD,' his kingdom was initially centered at Babylon, Erech, Akkad and Calneh (modern Nimrud). Nimrod was a powerful man, an entrepreneur and leader of men. While his character and decisions were bad, even catastrophic, he was apparently one of the most formidable figures of his day. The historical Nimrod was a smart, clever guy, not a dummy. Yet, the Hebrew name 'Nimrod' meant 'rebellious', which fit his character and actions in the Bible. In the end, Nimrod's rebellion and self-will produced a significant list of accomplishments. His going against God demonstrated a lack of judgement. To be a Nimrod is, and always was, to lack judgement. So don't be a Nimrod!" (Gary A. Byers)

• "Tomb of the Giant Gilgamesh Discovered"

(Description:) In early 2003, a team of German archaeologists working in Iraq stumbled across one of the most significant discoveries of modern times. Deep beneath the desert sands, they discovered what they believed to be the long-lost tomb of the mythical King Gilgamesh, the protagonist of the oldest story human beings ever wrote – the Epic of Gilgamesh. For centuries, historians had been divided over whether Gilgamesh actually existed or whether he was simply a figment of myth. That was until Jorg Fassbinder and his team of archaeologists, using modern technology to look deep into the ground, discovered an entire ancient city beneath the desert, astonishingly laid out just as the city of Uruk, over which Gilgamesh had purportedly reigned, was described in the Epic. There were houses and gardens and fields, alongside "an incredibly sophisticated system of canals", leading archaeologists to describe the site as "Venice in the desert". More importantly, on the outskirts of the ancient city was what appeared to be a burial site, which archaeologists believed to be the tomb of the ancient king. As Fassbinder put it, "I don't want to say definitely it was the grave of King Gilgamesh, but it looks very similar to that described in the epic." It was, quite simply, a mind-blowing find, a long-lost missing piece of the origins of human history. Surely, archaeologists believed, this would change everything, revealing to us secrets we never even knew we lost. But then, the unthinkable happened. Mere weeks after the tomb of Gilgamesh was discovered, the United States invaded Iraq, forcing Fassbinder and his team to abandon their work and flee the country, the mystery left unsolved.:

In this article it states, "Whatever else the US military was doing in Iraq/Babylon, the minute they arrived in the plains of Shinar, they had gone straight to a top-secret room beneath the Babylon Museum where Saddam Hussein had hidden objects of national interest recovered from the ancient world, and they had removed these containers in which something—the American government wanted, something from ancient Babylon—was found! Whatever was inside those large boxes (it took two strong soldiers on each end to carry them out of that room), it was obviously more important to the US military than the irreplaceable golden masks and jewels of ancient kings and queens they didn't bother to seize.":

Through Mossad, Israel reciprocates not with loyalty but with layered espionage — described by former CIA operative Andrew Bustamante as gifts laced with spyware and collaboration steeped in distrust. For many Americans, this moral asymmetry cuts against the intuitive link between generosity and allegiance...Mossad would offer the CIA 'presents' — usually tech or intelligence tools — routinely embedded with spyware. The anecdote isn't exceptional; it's emblematic. Mossad's ethos, shaped by a Zionist statecraft that privileges domination over accountability, is unapologetic: deception over transparency, survival over solidarity, interests over alliances. Its guiding credo, 'By way of deception, thou shalt do war', isn't rhetorical flourish. (Intro:) "On the evening of June 30, an Israeli warplane dropped a 500-pound, U.S.-made MK-82 bomb on the seaside Al-Baga Cafe in Gaza City. The explosion killed more than 30 people and injured dozens more. The weapon's wide blast radius in the dense neighborhood caused indiscriminate damage, affecting unprotected civilians including men, women, children, and the elderly. Legal experts have said the attack likely violated international law under the Geneva Conventions and may constitute a war crime. As the war grinds on, cafes like Al-Baga aren't just social spaces; for many, they are the only places to access electricity and the internet, which are often unavailable in people's homes due to the ongoing blockade and widespread destruction of civilian infrastructure. The people killed were students, workers, journalists, and displaced civilians, all clinging to a sense of normalcy, waiting for news of a possible ceasefire. Each had a name, a story, a struggle for survival in the face of a war that spares no one. For the dead, the ceasefire will never come. Here are some of their stories." - Heart-touching and tragic beyond words! I kiss their lovely faces and pray for their souls!:

- + Ukraine's 'chernozem' soil—among the most fertile in the world—is being rapidly acquired by foreign corporations as Ukrainian farmers struggle amid war and displacement. [The plan all along was to get them to that point?]
- + IMF pressure forced Ukraine to lift a land-sale moratorium in 2020, opening the door for agribusiness giants to buy up vast tracts of farmland.
- + Major investment firms like BlackRock and Vanguard, alongside agribusiness corporations, now control nearly 28% of Ukraine's arable land.
- + Ukrainian labor and regulatory loopholes allow these corporations to exploit cheap labor, banned fertilizers, and GMO crops—practices illegal in the EU.
- + If Ukraine joins the EU, these corporations could flood Europe with cheap, deregulated crops, decimating local farmers while pocketing taxpayer-funded subsidies.":

- > X The hellions of Isahell have Hell to pay!—And pay they will!: in Hell! "From Damascus to Gaza, Israel's doctrine of domination has one fatal flaw - The more Israel acts like a regional empire, the more the region begins to see it as a colonial one" - Includes 8.35 and 20.43 (Excerpts:) "On Wednesday, [Israeli] warplanes struck the Syrian defence ministry, military headquarters, and the vicinity of the presidential palace. Not near the frontlines or the border, but in the symbolic and sovereign heart of the Syrian capital. The excuse was thin: a supposed effort to protect Syria's Druze minority. But no one should be fooled. This was not about protection. It was about projection of power and arrogance. It was not about the Druze - who are Syrian Arabs and part of Syria's national fabric - but about imposing a long-standing Israeli doctrine of regional fragmentation, one that stretches from the blood-soaked rubble of Gaza to the bombed ministries of Damascus and the destabilisation of entire nations beyond... It was theatre designed to shock Syrians and to frighten Arabs... A state that is building what is fast becoming the world's largest open-air concentration camp, uses starvation as a weapon, commits daily apartheid in the Occupied West Bank and enshrines discrimination in its Basic Law, cannot lay claim to any moral high ground... Israel has spent the past decade cultivating relationships with Kurdish and Druze communities preparing to use them as levers in a future fragmentation. And now, with Assad gone, that future is here...The Abraham Accords, far from being peace deals, are instruments to normalise this ambition - positioning Israel as the region's economic, security, and technological hub. Israeli officials have become increasingly open about this. Smotrich outlined a vision of Israel at the heart of a new regional order - effectively a protectorate empire - and made it clear that Arab states 'need to pay' Israel for its role in shielding them...The subtext is unmistakable: Israel provides the violence, and the neighbours pay the tribute. This is not a partnership, it is domination repackaged as diplomacy...The future Israel dreams of - one of dominance and submission - is not the future the region will allow. Because the peoples of this region have been here before. They have outlived empires. They have buried crusaders, colonialists, and tyrants. And they have learned that the only doctrine worth carrying is the one that binds them together, not tears them apart. Israel may redraw maps, exploit minorities, strike capitals and starve children, but it cannot bomb its way into permanence. It cannot silence a region forever. It cannot build its future atop the ruins of others because those ruins remember. And memory, in this land, is not a wound. It is a weapon." - "The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot. For the Word of God [And the memory of Him!] is guick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." If you're still supporting Israel in the year 2025, there's something seriously wrong with you as a person. You do not have a normal, healthy sense of empathy and morality...Israeli soldiers are telling the Israeli press that they're being ordered to massacre starving civilians trying to obtain food from aid centers. Countless doctors have been telling the world that Israeli snipers are routinely, deliberately shooting children in the head and chest throughout the Gaza Strip. Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, and all the leading genocide experts and human rights authorities are saying that a genocide is being perpetrated in Gaza. (Excerpts:) "Much has been written on the amendments to the International Health Regulations (IHR), which most countries are making themselves subject to after July 19th (this week). Many raise concerns of loss of sovereignty, censorship, corporate greed and conflict of interest. But most are missing the main point; the sheer and outright stupidity and fallacy on which the whole pandemic agenda is based. July 19th is the last day that Member States of the World Health Organisation (WHO) can withdraw from the IHR amendments (without entering a multi-year withdrawal process). By failing to withdraw, they will be committing their taxpayers to fund the key surveillance aspects of a rapidly expanding industry that is the pandemic industrial complex. They will be required to set up an extensive network to search for well-established natural phenomena, including the tendency of viruses to mutate into variants. This has (Excerpts:) "There's a lot of misleading news circulating at the moment, all we know is that there are battles going on between Bedouin tribes and Druze tribes in the south and Jolani is currently not in Damascus...The fighting is not being reported much, and Al-Jolani whereabouts are not known, with reports of Syrian-government TV stations shut down at the moment. Might be linked to Israel wanting Jolani gone for not doing what he is being commanded, such as withdrawing from Suweida...Israel wants a puppet Druze ethno-state as buffer zone, and Al-Jolani is not giving it to them...It appears Jolani may not be cooperating with Israel and he may have taken his family to safety due to the bombings—not a coup but it is a developing situation.":

- "Notice How The New Jolani Government in Syria is Not Fighting Back Against the IDF?" This article is especially interesting in light of what Candace mentioned about Syria in "The Epstein Files: The Midas Touch | Ep 1" (Excerpts:) "[Jolani is] literally the former #2 ISIS guy...trained by Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi, the future caliph of ISIS, when the Islamic State was still a loosely connected group called al-Qaeda in Iraq (AQI)...At some point, Jolani's al-Nusra Front became more independent...In 2016, Jolani formally announced his break from ISIS and pledged allegiance directly to al-Qaeda's Ayman al-Zawahiri...ISIS had a split around the time that they started calling themselves just IS — Islamic State, and the caliphate was established in Eastern Syria and Northern Irag...Jolani was sitting this out in Turkey-protected Idlib province in NW Syria with his ISIS/Al-Qaeda splinter group. The Russians exerted pressure on Assad to stop pushing against the Jolani controlled territories and to focus on IS in the SE instead, which is what the Americans wanted Putin to do. Now we know that Putin was planning on handing over power to Jolani and his group under the pretext of a transition to Liberal Democracy. So, when the coup against Assad was effected, Jolani and his men just swept down into Damascus on motorcycles and pick-up trucks and took over the country in about 10 days total with no resistance or forewarning. There are rumors that Assad was lured away to Moscow to visit his wife, who was sick, but that sounds a lot like what Washington did to the Shah of Iran half a century ago, so maybe this is fake newsl...In Syria, the ethnic and religious cleansing began under the Abrahamic despotism of Jolani's government... Washington and Tel-Aviv and London like to pick fights with enemies that they actually have created, put into power and continue to control. This seems counterintuitive, and runs counter to common sense, but we have an established track record of puppets being helped to power by Washington and Tel-Aviv and London. These puppets are then turned against and deposed by the aforementioned powers. In the interim period, these puppets do everything in their power to not fight back against their handlers and lose gracefully. This exact playbook is being repeated now, in realtime, in Syria...Jolani getting attacked by the people who put him into power in the first place and refusing to fight back, essentially surrendering the South of Syria to Israeli annexation...you have to make a conscious decision to stop believing in narratives and scripts written by social engineers and propagandists who don't have your best interests at heart, even if it stings your pride to admit that you've been bamboozled":

> 1900 Scientists Say 'Climate Change Not Caused by CO2' - The Real Environment Movement Was Hijacked"

(Excerpt:) "In summary, CO2 reduction is the main focus of the UN-promoted climate-change-hysteria that has been rampant among the world's population. However, the proclaimed climate crisis exists in computer models only. The cult of 'manmade climate change' is a media and UN politically-promoted 'ideology', that is used for a wider political and corporate agenda. Man-made climate change is not based in fact, and has hijacked real environmental concerns. Due to incessant UN, government, and corporate-promoted climate change propaganda, many people are, thus, in a media-induced state of confusion, and, thus, blindly assume their pre-determined role in society under this 'dictatorship of words' without even being aware of it. The unpalatable reality is that people's access to energy and resources is being intentionally reduced via bogus climate change policies, inflation, ongoing geo-political theatre and intentionally instigated war. We cannot understand how to create a truly resilient society unless we correctly perceive the current society we live in and how it came to exist.":

- "J&J scientist explains that the company knew the shot was unsafe: 'People wanted it, we gave it to them'"

(Excerpt:) "People wanted it, we gave it to them.' These are the chilling words from a Johnson & Johnson scientist, who was recently caught on hidden camera. He confirmed what millions of Americans have long suspected and known: the COVID-19 vaccines were tested for a short amount of time, were unsafe, and were unleashed upon the public under false pretenses. In a bombshell undercover video released by O'Keefe Media Group (OMG), J&J lead scientist Joshua Rys admits the company's jab was rushed to market with a 'lack of research'. The company, operating on behalf of the Center for the Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority, was in a race to capitalize from Operation Warp Speed. In the end, they prioritized profit and recognition over human lives. When confronted by journalist James O'Keefe, Rys fled the scene, hiding in a restroom before escaping on his electric bike. The cowardice speaks volumes. The vaccine industry's elite know the truth: their shots were never the 'miracle' they sold to the world.

Key points:

- + J&J scientist confesses the COVID vaccine was 'not safe and effective' due to a 'lack of research'.
- + Hidden camera footage reveals Rys admitting the shots were fast-tracked because 'people wanted it'—not because they were proven safe.
- + Federal HHS responded with hollow assurances, ignoring the glaring admission of corporate negligence.
- + O'Keefe's confrontation exposes Big Pharma's culture of secrecy—truth only emerges when they're caught.

(Excerpt:) "The Chinese Communist Party (CCP), under Supreme Leader Xi Jinping, has implemented stringent measures to monitor and suppress Christianity, including the installation of facial recognition cameras in churches and the criminalization of basic religious practices. Despite these challenges, reports indicate that Christianity continues to flourish in China, with believers showing remarkable resilience... The CCP views the growing Christian population—estimated at around 38 million Protestants and 10 million Catholics—as a potential threat to its authority. In response, the government has escalated its "Sinicization" campaign, aiming to align religious practices with Communist ideology. This includes severe restrictions on unregistered house churches and increased surveillance in state-sanctioned churches...One of the most alarming developments is the mandatory installation of facial recognition cameras in registered churches. Bob Fu, president of China Aid, explains, 'All four corners of the church, including the pulpit, have to install face recognition cameras to monitor all those who are attending their church worship service.' These Al-driven systems track attendance, identify participants, and flag any 'unapproved' religious activities, effectively turning churches into extensions of state surveillance... the CCP's efforts to suppress Christianity may inadvertently be fueling its spread, echoing a historical pattern of resilience in the face of persecution. As China approaches a potential tipping point amid economic and social unrest, the courage of its Christian community offers a powerful testament to the enduring strength of faith. While the future remains uncertain, the growth of house churches and the determination of believers signal that Christianity in China is far from defeated.": - PTL! > ii "God's Prophetic Warning About Donald Trump Will Leave You Speechless" - And this proclamation contains a whole lot more than that topic! Presented by the late Rev. John MacArthur, who passed away on 14 July 2025, shortly before Trump became the 47th POTUS, I highly recommend listening to this powerful 1.39.21 delivery. Whilst listening to it, here is some of what I transcribed for my own personal notes:

"There's a difference between being used by God and approved by God!
Usefulness is not a sign of righteousness! Just because someone is part of God's plan doesn't mean they are walking in God's presence. We are not living in normal times; we are standing at the edge of something Eternal. [Many Christians are not anchored in Scripture but lost in a satanically engineered sea of political slogans. We're coming to a crossroads: Gospel of the cross vs the Gospel of compromise. Churches are grossly guilty of Scriptural malpractice. The days of comfortable, casual, coffee-and-cookies, cultural Christianity are over. Christianity is being redefined and redesigned by the Enemy who actually doesn't mind if someone is a Christian, as long as they are as ineffective as possible!] When you remove the offense of the Gospel, you remove its power. God has not called us to be a shadow; He's called us to be a light. Churches have learned how to function without Him and they don't even realise He's gone. Prayer meetings have been replaced with Production Meetings. They are so busy marketing a place where people can feel good but don't get right with God. So many churches are prioritising comfort over consecration. God is not obligated to bless a church that refuses His Spirit. The shaking is exposing who is the true Church and who is not; those who sing the songs but don't surrender their hearts; those who are truly founded on the Rock and those playing church. The true Church is not measured by size, budget and popularity; it's measured by faithfulness. Real fruit can only grow amidst true surrender. We are not just living in uncertain times, we are living in prophetic times. God is calling His people to come.out from among them [the diluted, the deceived] and be separate. The time for lukewarm faith has expired. He is calling His Bride to wake up, to purify herself, to make herself ready. Too many have played church whilst never becoming the church. Too many have sung about Jesus but have lived for the world; too many are involved in church attendance without transformation. The Lord is drawing the line! Holiness isn't about earning God's favour; it's about responding to His grace. God will not pour out His Spirit on a people who refuse to be concentrated. You cannot walk in victory whilst dancing with sin. The hour is late and the deception is thick. We need to stop blending in and start standing out! The King is coming and He's not coming for a bride who's flirting with the world. He's returning for a bride who is watching and waiting for and walking with Him in holiness. The promises of God are covenantal. They are based on faith and faith alone in Jesus Christ, not fleshly inheritances. The real inheritance of Abraham is faith, not bloodline, not land, but faith in the One Who was to come. So, if modern Israel persists in rejecting the Son of God, then it stands under the same judgement that every other nation faces when it defies Heaven. You don't earn God's approval by funding disobedience. And you certainly don't gain spiritual blessing by aligning with rebellion. God does not bend His standards for history, politics or ancestry." - "Don't pay attention to the distraction of the day put out by the Entertainer in Chief...focus on your relationship with God." • "Counterfeit Israel: How Satanism is Running Rampant in the Holy Land - Israel has more Satanists, occultists, and Luciferian initiates per square foot than any nation on earth"

(Excerpts:) "In the Negev desert, beneath the black sky of Israel's southern frontier, there is a fire that should never have been rekindled. Thousands gather under its light, painted, pierced, and possessed. They form tribal circles around massive effigies built for destruction—idols shaped like serpents, beasts, distorted gods, or geometric thrones. Women writhe to the rhythm of drums, their naked bodies smeared with ash and symbolism. Men scream invocations while flames roar upward, consuming temples erected for the sole purpose of their own annihilation. This is not art. This is not a cultural expression. This is not a secular celebration of creativity. This is Midburn, Israel's official offshoot of Burning Man, and it is the literal resurrection of the fertility cults of Canaan, revived not in secret but with pride, ritual, and ceremony. Midburn takes place in the very wilderness where Yahweh once thundered His commandments from Sinai. It is hosted on the same soil where Israel once trembled in the presence of divine fire. Only now the fire has changed hands. Instead of blood on the doorposts, there is neon paint and synthetic ecstasy. Instead of covenant, there is carnality. Instead of worship, there is mass fornication under a sky of shooting stars and acid hallucinations. The 'temples' are built and burned as acts of liberation...It is a ritual. The fires are not metaphors. They are offerings...Israel is being ritually rededicated not to the God of Abraham, but to the very deities He once condemned by name. The gods of the Amorites, the spirits of Babylon, the demons of the wilderness—they have returned...In the 1990s, Israeli authorities uncovered a Satanic cult operating in Rishon LeZion, one of the nation's most populous cities...It was an organized ritual ring. The police found evidence of animal sacrifice, ritual sex acts, blood pacts, and invocations of dark spirits chanted in both Hebrew and Latin. Teenagers were recruited and branded. Cemeteries were desecrated. Local rabbis warned that Satanism was spreading, particularly among the youth...Forests near Haifa, Safed, and the Judean hills became hotspots for Satanic activity. Hikers stumbled across altars made of bones, inverted Hebrew scripture spray-painted on rocks, and animal corpses mutilated in patterns known to be linked with ceremonial magic. In one particularly disturbing case, a goat was found disemboweled near a kibbutz, its organs arranged into a pentagram...the so-called Star of David, which adorns Israel's national flag, synagogues, IDF uniforms, and even the national menorah. But what Christians call the Star of David is not Davidic at all. It has no presence in the biblical record—not in Kings, not in Chronicles, not in the Psalms. It emerges centuries later in Kabbalistic writings and Islamic sorcery as the Seal of Solomon, a hexagram used to command spirits, bind jinn, and perform magical operations. In grimoires such as The Key of Solomon and The Lesser Key of Solomon, the hexagram is drawn into circles, filled with names of angels and demons, and used in ceremonial invocation. When the prophet Amos rebuked Israel for lifting up the star of their god Remphan, it was not a metaphor. That star—six-pointed, geometric, and idolized—was an abomination. Today, that same star waves over the State of Israel, carried by tanks, stitched into uniforms, and engraved into national monuments... Most synagogues are being built to reflect this spiritual shift. In secular cities, new temples are being constructed with cube-shaped sanctuaries, sunroof zodiacs, and labyrinthine floor tiles. Some include spiral staircases that descend rather than ascend, marked with Hebrew letters designed to function as sigils, not prayers. These are no longer houses of worship. They are ritual chambers for a new religion, one that uses Jewish aesthetics to house a Kabbalistic inversion of biblical faith. And all of this—every cube, every triangle, every golden-ratio hall—is paid for by the same hands that funded the state's founding: the Rothschilds, the technocrats, the globalist elite, who imported not only capital but religion. Not Judaism. Not even Talmudism. But an esoteric, Luciferian ideology that speaks Hebrew only as a costume, its real allegiance resting with the ancient gods of Egypt, Babylon, and Rome." - Read in full to be fully informed! - "Israel floods YouTube with ads to whitewash Gaza genocide, Iran offensive Israel has spent tens of millions to purchase ads viewed by 45 million Europeans in the past month"

(Excerpts:) "Israel is spending millions of dollars each day on an expansive advertising campaign across YouTube, aimed at shifting European public opinion in support of its genocide...the Israeli Government Advertising Agency has paid for ads, translated into five languages, that have reached at least 45 million YouTube users in the past month. These ads target viewers in the UK, France, Italy, Germany, and Greece, and portray Israel as both a victim of terrorism and a global force for good...The campaign is just one facet of a much larger public diplomacy effort. Israel's foreign PR budget has grown by over 2,000 percent, with an additional $150 million allocated to the Foreign Ministry for such initiatives.":

- In what may be seen as a manifestation of karma, mental health problems now plague the IDF. In the past two weeks alone, five serving members of the IDF have committed suicide. The Devil is driving them crazy! God help and strengthen the 1.-something percent (from what I understand) of Christians in Israel to be able to minister in some way to these suffering IDFers so that they can find true healing through Jesus Christ!

(Excerpts:) "Those without the means to dig hundreds of meters for water are at the mercy of private companies or must rely on donations. Rustam Khan Taraki spends as much as 30% of his income on water, mostly buying from licensed tanker sellers. But for families who can't afford to spend this much, the only option is to walk often long distances to mosques, which can provide water...The hours that children should be spending in school, they are now basically spending on fetching water for their families...Women shoulder much of this crisis — forced to walk for hours across Kabul just to fetch what little water they can, risking their safety under the Taliban's oppressive rule which prohibits them from going outside without a mahram, or male guardian...There are numerous difficulties for every woman or girl to go out alone to get water. They could be harassed or bothered on the way.":

"The Screens Are Killing Your Children - if you want to keep your kids away from digital hell, you need to escape it first."

(Excerpts:) "I was recently made aware of an 8-year-old with an addiction to pornography. I will repeat that: an 8-year-old with an addiction to pornography. In fact, I will repeat it again because I worry that we have become so desensitized that this statement will not elicit the shock and horror that it should. Recently, I was told of an 8-year-old, a small child who hasn't even hit puberty, who is addicted to watching hardcore pornography—you know, the really vile kind that cries out to heaven...It doesn't take a proverbial rocket scientist to figure all this out, so why do parents simply give their children screens to pacify them? Well, there are potentially numerous reasons, but the most common reason is that the parents themselves are also addicted to the screens...We cannot expect parents who are perpetually stoned on soma not to impart the addiction on their children. Parents who do this, whether they know it or not, are sending their children to Hell, and they will be waiting for them there when they arrive.":
