Before proceeding with the 19th installment of our study from the "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve", on the degrees and depths of deception Satan tried in order to tease, lure, deceive, beguile, seduce, distract, scare, manipulate, and even kill Adam and Eve, I have some further thoughts on our previous installment, which featured Chapter 60. In verse 9 of that chapter, disguised Satan says to Adam and Eve, "Then He [God] made a slumber to come over me, and He brought thee, O Adam, out of my side", and then goes to explain that God then removed Adam to the eastward garden, and, as we read the following verses in that chapter, Satan's lies rises exponentially! As shown in Genesis chapters 1 and 2, Adam, and subsequently Eve, knew that God had created them. But now, it appears, in their tainted, disobedient mindset (due to falling for Satan's spell and demonic deception), even their memory of their true origin has been attacked and shaken, as Satan attempts to dismantle it! Here we have the roots of the Devil's spawned slurs against Creationism!—Which he continues to attempt to undermine to this very day!

The last verse of chapter 60 says, "And it seemed to them that they really were his offspring, when they saw that his face was like their own; and they trusted him." To "seem" means "to give the effect of being; to appear to be a certain way or do a certain thing; something appears to be known, but it is not necessarily". Malachi 3:6 it says, "For I am the Lord, I change not" and Hebrews 13:8 says, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and for ever." But Satan is the opposite! As we've seen in previous chapters covered in this study, Satan morphs, appears in deceptive disguises, alludes to something he isn't, conjures up illusionary evil-arts acrobatics! So, what's Satan's latest spiel leading Adam and Eve into?—Having listened to and believed his pitiful-elderly persuasion, looked into his face, and turned their trust over to him!

Chapters 61 - Led astray.

- 1 Then he took Adam and Eve by the hand, and began to bring them out of the cave. [Note that Satan took them by the hand! Why? Because as this article points out (https://www.teenvogue.com/story/hand-holding-benefits), "There's confidence that comes with hand holding...that physical touch has protective effects on physiological stress responses. That means you may not necessarily feel your mind completely clear and all of your worries wash away, but your body could start producing less cortisol, a steroid hormone that triggers the 'fight or flight' response when elevated." Satan took them by the hand to calm Adam and Eve, to make them feel cared for and protected, so they wouldn't resist, flee or fight against him, so that he could lead them to "some distant place, and to destroy them", as it says in the next verse, as he was hell bent on destroying them! Do further research on the power of hand-holding, and why we should never lose sight of the fact that "God Holds Us In His Hands": https://www.weaponsofgrace.com/content/god-holds-us-in-his-hands] 2 But when they were come a little way out of it, God knew that Satan had overcome them, and had brought them out ere the forty days were ended, to take them to some distant place, and to destroy them.
- 3 Then the Word of the Lord God again came and cursed Satan, and drove him away from them. [PTL! As it says in "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God", the Word of God Jesus Christ is all-powerful!: "The prince of darkness grim, we tremble not for him; his rage we can endure, for lo! his doom is sure; one little word shall fell him. That Word above all earthly powers no thanks to them abideth; the Spirit and the gifts are ours through Him who with us sideth."]
- 4 And God began to speak unto Adam and Eve, saying to them, "What made you come out of the cave, unto this place?"
- 5 Then Adam said unto God, "Didst thou create a man before us? For when we were in the cave, there suddenly came unto us a good old man who said to us, 'I am a messenger from God unto you, to bring you back to some place of rest.' 6 "And we did believe, O God, that he was a messenger from Thee; and we came out with him; and knew not whither we should go with him." [That "good old"] man" disguise really put Adam and Eve in a tailspin of confusion! God help us to always remember these words from Psalm 71:1-5, "In Thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion. Deliver me in Thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline Thine ear unto me, and save me. Be Thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: Thou hast given commandment to save me; for Thou art my rock and my fortress. Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. For Thou art my hope, O Lord God: Thou art my trust from my youth."—And also from Matthew 24:24,26, "'For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Wherefore if they shall say unto you, 'Behold, he is in the desert'; go not forth: 'Behold, he is in the secret chambers'; believe it not."]

7 Then God said unto Adam, "See, that is the father of evil arts, who brought thee and Eve out of the Garden of Delights. And now, indeed, when he saw that thou and Eve both joined together in fasting and praying, and that you came not out of the cave before the end of the forty days [Satan was furious and super pissed off that Adam and Eve were obeying God!—Because obedience brings on the blessings of God! "And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all His commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: and all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God." (Deut. 28:1-2)], he wished to make your purpose vain, to break your mutual bond; to cut off all hope from you, and to drive you to some place where he might destroy you.

- 8 Because he was unable to do aught to you, unless he showed himself in the likeness of you. [Whoa! Let's bear those words in mind, in the face of nowadays' humanoid AI technology gathering pace towards its ungodly goal of total human enchantment entrapment!]
- 9 Therefore did he come to you with a face like your own, and began to give you tokens as if they were all true.
- 10 But I in mercy and with the favour I had unto you, did not allow him to destroy you; but I drove him away from you.
- 11 Now, therefore, O Adam, take Eve, and return to your cave, and remain in it until the morrow of the fortieth day. And when ye come out, go towards the eastern gate of the garden."

- 12 Then Adam and Eve worshipped God, and praised and blessed Him for the deliverance that had come to them from Him. And they returned towards the cave. This happened at eventide of the thirty-ninth day.
- 13 Then Adam and Eve stood up and with great zeal, prayed to God, to be brought out of their want for strength; for their strength had departed from them, through hunger and thirst and prayer. But they watched the whole of that night praying, until morning.
- 14 Then Adam said unto Eve, "Arise, let us go towards the eastern gate of the garden as God told us."
- 15 And they said their prayers as they were wont to do every day; and they went out of the cave, to go near to the eastern gate of the garden.
- 16 Then Adam and Eve stood up and prayed, and besought God to strengthen them, and to send them something to satisfy their hunger.
- 17 But when they had ended their prayers, they remained where they were by reason of their failing strength.
- 18 Then came the Word of God again, and said unto them, "O Adam, arise, go and bring hither two figs."
- 19 Then Adam and Eve arose, and went until they drew near to the cave.

What a relief and joy to have this chapter end with praise, obedience and thankfulness! "Order my steps in Thy Word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me." (Psa.119:133) Hopefully, the experience of this near miss has now better prepared Adam and Eve for the next close call!—Because, yes, there will be a next time!

> From the same outlet that called for the ousting of Saddam Hussein comes a call for a "new definition of death". The reason, argues Kit Knightly, is because we face a shortage of donor organs for transplants. Paganism is ramping up the ante! Note that previously posted articles regarding AI explained that one of the focuses of ChatGPT is to change the meaning of some words! And "death" is one of them!

"NYT Op-Ed Pushes 'New Definition of Death' So We Can Harvest More Organs"

(Excerpts:) "[The NYT's headlines reads:] 'Donor Organs Are Too Rare. We Need a New Definition of Death.'...redefining words and phrases is nothing new in the Great Reset world. 'Case', 'cause of death', 'vaccine', 'terrorist', 'democracy'. all have received updated definitions in just the last few years. Rubberizing language so that words become malleable, with vague or even totally inverted meanings, is par for the course, just as Orwell predicted. In this case, you take the word dead and 'broaden' its definition to include people who are alive...This isn't a slippery slope, it's a sheer cliff face slathered in baby oil...We are already seeing the rise of other policies around the world that cheapen human life, from MAID in Canada to the looming Assisted Dying Act in the UK. They're attacking it from the other end as well, with chatter about late-term — or even post-birth — abortion. Nothing can come from this kind of redefinition of death, except an expansion of a nihilistic attitude that cheapens the value of human life. Simply put, if they broaden the definition of 'dead', they are narrowing the definition of 'alive'. And I really don't like where that might lead.":

That means Christian-majority nations accounted for 60% of all countries surveyed, compared to 62% a decade earlier. The decline is largely attributed to a growing number of people leaving Christianity, contributing to the rise of religiously unaffiliated

"Quick Take...Are Digital IDs coming piecemeal?"

(Excerpts:) "I'm starting to think a full-scale, nationwide compulsory digital ID won't ever be a thing. Not officially, anyway. Not for quite a while. It's a vibe I feel coming off the news that gels more with the current methodology – the indirect authoritarianism of the easier path. Piecemeal tyranny washed in on waves of convenience. In short, even before we officially have the infamous Digital ID, every interaction with the state is being digitised via an app on your phone, which you likely carry around with you all day, every day. It must be taken entirely on trust that the app which tracks your international travel, the app which tracks your car, the app which tracks your taxes, the app which tracks your immigration status, the app which tracks your health records and the app which verifies your age are all entirely separate...The fact of the matter is that, in one form or another, every proposed usage of digital ID scheme either already exists or will do so in the near future. The only reason to formally unify it into a single mandatory ID badge would be normalisation, a watermark transformation of the mental and emotional relationship between citizen and state. I'm beginning to think we will have digital ID – brought in a little at time – for years before anyone in power decides to call it by its true name.":

(Excerpts:) "The buzz surrounding the idea of a 'Third Temple' seems to have gone up a notch. Unofficial road signs are appearing, directing people to 'The House of the Lord'. They may be made by rogue sign makers in a guerilla operation, but their very existence signifies that something major is brewing. Never far from the minds of many Orthodox Jews, the reconstruction of the Temple is something promised in scripture several times in both the Old and New Testaments. What was once dismissed as the pipe dream of fringe radicals is now beginning to crystallize into a tangible possibility within our lifetime – especially amid current discussions of previously unimaginable peace agreements...An end-times Temple is mentioned in the Bible...Isaiah 2:2–3, Micah 4:1–2, Daniel 9:27 and Zechariah 14:20...2 Thessalonians 2:3-4 and Revelation 11...it seems from the texts that it will at some point be defiled by the antichrist 'standing where he should not stand' as Jesus says in both Matthew and Mark, referring back to Daniel's prophecy...We are living in days when it is no longer outside the realm of possibility. If the Bible is true, the appearance of a Third Temple would signify the start of a very dramatic chapter of history." - A good reminder for us all to check our Endtimes Bible Scripture coordinates! So, I knew he was no less a con man during his presidential campaign in 2024. However, after the mindless malevolent presidency of Joe Biden, I never expected Trump to degrade the White House into even deeper depths of insanity after being elected last November. I was horribly wrong! Donald Trump is not only worse than Joe Biden; he makes Biden look like George Washington by comparison. Trump is taking America over the edge of the abyss economically and militarily at warp speed. Yes, just as he did with Operation Warp Speed as the father of the tyrannical Covid insanity. It will take a few months for the American citizenry to begin feeling the deleterious and disastrous effects of Trump's maniacal punitive tariffs, but feel it we will. Tariffs are taxes on consumers. That's us! If Trump stays the course of using tariffs as personal, vindictive international retributions, before this time next year, many store shelves will be empty, and the cost of everything will be higher than any of us can now imagine.":

The gift was handed over during a high-profile announcement in which Apple pledged a staggering $600 billion investment in US-based manufacturing, R&D, and workforce expansion over the next decade. The event, framed as a celebration of American innovation and job creation, quickly took a sharp political turn. While the investment itself drew headlines for its scale and long-term vision, it was Cook's lavish gift to Trump that captured public attention and ignited fierce backlash across social media platforms...As the clip of the gold handoff continues to circulate widely, the event has stirred debate not just about corporate influence in politics, but also about the optics and ethics of gift-giving at the highest levels of power.":

When homework help and job-application prep migrate behind priority tokens, the complex threatens to hard-code a two-tier digital citizenship: seamless for those who can pay, throttled for those who cannot. The new and irreparable digital divide will be between those who know how to work with AI and those who do not. (Excerpts:) "A California nurse [Michelle Spencer] has come forward with explosive whistleblower evidence that suggests an alarming cover-up of skyrocketing fetal deaths caused by Covid mRNA injections among pregnant women...Spencer alleges that the hospital failed to investigate Covid shot-related causes for the devastating increase in stillbirths, a move that, according to the lawsuit, violated ethical and legal standards. According to Spencer, fetal deaths surged by up to 5,000 percent among pregnant women who received mRNA injections...The mRNA injections are still killing people, from the very youngest to the very oldest, and they're stopping others from being born. It's no coincidence that America's birthrate has been dropping for decades, in correlation with the increase in vaccine doses being injected into children, from about three or four doses when I was a child to more than 75 doses now between birth and age 17. The fertility rate is also plummeting. Just last week it was reported that the U.S. fertility rate had hit an all-time low of 1.59 children per woman in 2024, according to CDC statistics. That's an average of 1.59 children per woman of childbrearing age. It takes a fertility rate of at least 2.1 for a nation to sustain itself with each generation being replaced by the next as it ages and dies off. Nations in decline lack the will to reproduce. It eventually catches up with them...shocking statistics also help explain why nations are looking to go to war. With aging populations and not enough young people to support those who are retired or about to retire over the next 10 years, these countries' economies are on borrowed time before they collapse. For the first time in nearly 2,000 years, Israel is preparing for the Temple sacrifice — a key piece of End Times prophecy. We'll see." -

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oKTO8YYs29c]

This KURC also wrote in regarding the use of Al voices in video productions, saying:

"An AI voice, as you know, does not have a soul or spirit. I believe AI readings of Scripture is the thin edge of a wedge. I feel it could lead Christians astray, as they get reliant on it possibly being tempted to accept false prophecies etc. 'For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Wherefore if they shall say unto you, "Behold, he is in the desert"; go not forth: "behold, he is in the secret chambers"; believe it not. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.' (Mat. 24:24,26; 1Cor.11:14-15) The Chinese have already changed the gospels!"

An excellent reminder regarding the prophetic warning that even Christians, let alone the unsaved, will be tempted to adhere to false voices commanding them to make the wrong choices! Becoming reliant on the "great" AI rather than the great IA = I Am! "And God said unto Moses, 'I Am That I Am': and He said, 'Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, "I Am hath sent me unto you." Jesus said unto them, 'Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am." (Exo.3:14; Jn.8:58)

Starving a population and deliberately making their land uninhabitable is exactly the same as forcing them out at gunpoint. Saying 'leave or you'll starve' is not meaningfully different from saying

'leave or I'll shoot you in the head'. Israel's planned mass expulsion will be as forced and involuntary as any in recorded history. President Trump has fully signed off on this move, washing his hands of the mass atrocity he is cosigning by telling the press that it's going to be 'pretty much up to Israel'. Trump is lying. It's up to him. That's why more than 600 former senior Israeli security officials from Mossad and Shin Bet just sent Trump a letter urging him to compel Netanyahu to make peace in Gaza. They understand that the US president has always had the power to end the Gaza holocaust; numerous Israeli insiders have said that this mass atrocity would not be possible without US assistance. Trump could end all this at any time, and chooses not to. This makes him one of the most evil people in the world...This genocide is one nonstop insult to our intelligence. It's actually degrading at this point. The lies Israel and its supporters have to pretend to believe are getting so ridiculous that supporting Israel is now an act of public humiliation and self-debasement...The entire Zionist project is built on a foundation of lies. And their lies are starting to catch up with them. They're now at a point where the lies are beginning to damage the public image they're intended to protect. When a liar is recognized as a liar, his lies will forevermore work only as an antidote to his past lies, and as a light to further expose his intent. From that point on any lie he tells just shows people how ugly his character and intentions really are. There is no other weapon that works that way. No other weapon which when it's seen immediately stops working, actively disarms the attacker, starts fixing what he broke, and starts attacking him. (Excerpts:) "Under the guise of protecting children from harmful content, a highly invasive, some would say Orwellian government scheme called 'Chat Control' is back on the hot burner in the European Union, with 19 out of 27 EU member states reportedly backing the measure. According to a report by Zero Hedge, the plan would mandate that private messaging apps, including WhatsApp, Signal and Telegram, must scan every message, photo and video sent by users starting in October, even if end-to-end encryption is in place... If Germany decides to cast its vote with the majority, the council could push the plan through by mid-October. Only Austria, the Netherlands and Poland have come out against the Orwellian government-surveillance proposal... These things always start out in China and Asia, then spread to Europe. But we shouldn't dismiss it as just a European thing. "Study: Popular sugar substitute ERYTHRITOL may harm the brain's blood vessels"

(Excerpts:) "A new study suggests erythritol, a zero-calorie sweetener, may damage brain blood vessel cells, increasing stroke risk by disrupting blood flow regulation and reducing clot-dissolving proteins. Exposure to erythritol in human brain cells caused oxidative stress, reduced nitric oxide (which widens vessels) and increased endothelin-1 (which constricts them), potentially impairing the blood-brain barrier. Once marketed as a 'natural' and safer sugar substitute, erythritol now faces scrutiny after a 2023 study linked it to heart attack/stroke risks...While regulators still deem erythritol safe, researchers urge moderation, noting the study used high doses in isolated cells – not whole organisms – and call for further research on safe consumption levels. The study highlights the trade-off between avoiding sugar and using alternatives with potential risks, emphasizing the need for personal vigilance and prioritizing whole, naturally sweet foods.":

But in a world where nothing shocks anymore and satire feels more like prophecy, maybe it's time we asked the question: Are we being fed ourselves? There have been movies and media bread-crumbing this idea for decades...It sounds absurd. Until you realize it's already on the table...And then came the news: <a href="Human composting laws passed in Washington, California, Oregon, Vermont, and New York. They're calling it 'natural organic reduction'. It's legal. It's being promoted as eco-friendly. Make no mistake: this isn't just speculative horror—it's written into policy. Human composting (natural organic reduction) is now legal in multiple U.S. states including Washington, Oregon, California, Vermont, and New York. Soil made from human remains can be used on non-edible and edible crops. There are currently no federal laws preventing it. Synthetic meat companies are under FDA review, yet are already in partnerships with major food suppliers. Labeling requirements are limited or nonexistent for how food is grown or what medium (soil) was used...Biblical implications and warnings for eating blood and flesh: 'God gives mankind the authority to kill and eat all manner of meats taken from land animals, birds, and fish. God does not give Noah permission to eat human flesh. Instead you find a stark contrast in verses 5-6, in which mankind is treated very differently than the animals! The reason given is that mankind was made in the image of God, a characteristic not shared with animals. Thus, this passage prohibits cannibalism in two ways, first in that it does not give mankind permission to eat human flesh. Secondly, it clearly states that mankind was created in the image of God and has greater honor than the animals, and because of this he is to be treated in a manner reflecting that distinction. This prohibition, coming as it does before the Mosaic Law was given, was not intended for just the Israelites but for the whole human race.' - Genesis 9:1-6. Israel could have done none of the destruction of Gaza without western assistance every step of the way." Jonathan Cook explains. Note that "New research shows Israel's slaughter in Gaza has killed more journalists than the US Civil War, World Wars 1 and 2, the Korean War, the Vietnam war, the Yugoslav Wars, the Afghanistan War and the Ukraine War COMBINED."

"How the 'blood libel' paradox keeps the West silent on Israel's genocide" - Includes 46.43 and 8.46 min vids.

(Excerpts:) "The more deprayed Israel's actions, the more antisemitic it is to point out the truth. The painful reality is that, through Israel, the West can dress up boilerplate colonialism as a 'Jewish' project There's a dangerous paradox that helps to dissuade people, especially public figures, from speaking up even as Israel's genocide in Gaza grows more horrifying by the day...Responsible people. or at least those with a reputation to protect, therefore avoid making any statements that might contribute to the impression that Jews – or in this case, the soldiers of the Jewish state of Israel – are killing non-Jews. If such criticisms are made, they must be carefully couched by western politicians, the media and public figures in language that makes the killing of non-Jews – in this case. Muslim and Christian Palestinians – appear reasonable...It is the perfect, self-reinforcing loop, one entirely divorced from the reality being live-streamed to us daily...The 'blood libel' paradox means that Israel can act with ever more brazen depravity – of the kind documented above – and western leaders and media continue to ignore, or downplay, or rationalise these horrors...The 'blood libel' doesn't protect Jews from another genocide. It licences Israel to destroy the Palestinian people, and to savagely bomb its neighbours, with utter impunity, while western leaders remain tight-lipped in a way they would never do were it Russia, China or Iran committing far less egregious atrocities...[Zio] Israel is the bastard child of the West. It is nothing exceptional or extraordinary. It is white, western, colonial, genocidal racism, repackaged as a supposedly 'Jewish' project. Israel can carry out its crimes in the promotion of western control over the oil-rich Middle East, and the West knows that any criticism of its imperial control and pillage can be dismissed as antisemitism.":

Let's look carefully here https://t.me/rtnews/106042 at the nations' borders, their affiliations, and where this Zangezur Corridor is (south of which is Iran!) that the USA is lusting after!

Trump touts himself as a Peace President, yet sells weapons to his besties like they're going out of style and turns a blind eye to, for example, the 9,889 people killed, including 2,535 in field executions, since the fall of Syria 8 months ago; 7,449 of victims were civilians, including 396 children and 541 women. See: https://t.me/rtnews/105778

• "Iran warns against foreign interference after US-brokered Armenia-Azerbaijan peace deal"

(Excerpt:) "The agreement includes exclusive US development rights to a strategic transit corridor [the Zangezur Corridor] through the South Caucasus that the White House said would facilitate greater exports of energy and other resources. That route will connect Azerbaijan and its autonomous Nakhchivan exclave, which are separated by a 32-kilometer-wide (20-mile-wide) patch of Armenian territory. The deal includes an agreement that will create a major transit corridor to be named the Trump Route for International Peace and Prosperity, the White House said.

He stressed that Iran has 'always opposed' the so-called Zangezur corridor, saying it would alter borders, fragment Armenia, and restrict Iran's own regional access. He said that when Turkey and Azerbaijan previously pushed the plan, Iran staged multiple military drills on its northwestern frontier to signal readiness to block it...Calling the corridor 'a political plot, not just a trade passage', Velayati said it would open the way for NATO to position itself 'like a viper' between Iran and Russia. He argued that no Armenian government could legitimately agree to the 'partition' of its territory, regardless of US pressure, and claimed that even Prime Minister Pashinyan had previously told Iranian leaders he opposed the route.":

> 🚨 UK ALERTS!

"Stirrings of rebellion in unhappy Britain"

(Excerpts:) "Britain is not being run for the good of the ordinary people, but for a predatory class that is solidifying its power in an emerging global technocracy...there are hints of revolutionary spirit in the country, albeit misdirected into false saviours such as Nigel Farage's Reform, futile rallies and petitions, or various media outlets that cynics regard as controlled opposition...Ultimately the authorities want to control our minds...This is a race in time. The globalist oligarchy is rapidly developing a technocracy that will ultimately have no means of escape for the masses. But Rome was not built in a day, and the shadowy regime that appears to control all democratic governments and institutions remains vulnerable. You can see what is most threatening to the powers-that-be in the swift and harsh reaction to anyone calling that the emperor has no clothes. One of approximately a thousand protestors jailed after the unrest following the Southport killings last summer was Peter Lynch. He was unlike any other protestors, he revealed truth about the looming new world order...His home-made placard stated: 'All corrupt: PMs, MPs, police chiefs, TV media, judiciary, Deep State, WHO, Davos, Vanguard, BlackRock' (etc) And that is why, I believe, Lynch (aged 61) was the only protestor to die in prison. That may seem far-fetched conspiracy theory to some readers, but to continue believing that events happen spontaneously is to follow coincidence theory. The latter could be true, but the odds are lengthening...A massive influx from Muslim regions has fooled patriots into treating the incomers as the enemy, when the real perpetrators are the globalists who treat the people beneath them as pawns. Peter Lynch's placard said nothing about Islam, but hinted at who is really turning the world into a dystopian nightmare.":

- "Radioactive water from UK nuclear bomb base leaked into sea, files show
- Exclusive: Polluted water was released into loch near Glasgow because Royal Navy failed to maintain 1,500 water pipes, says watchdog" (Excerpts:) "The leaks are revealed in a cache of confidential inspection reports and emails given to the investigative website the Ferret and shared with the Guardian, which Sepa and the Ministry of Defence fought to keep secret. They were released on the orders of David Hamilton, the Scottish information commissioner, who polices Scotland's freedom of information laws, after a six-year long battle by reporters for access to the files. The UK government insisted the files had to be kept secret for national security reasons [Security, all right! To try to secure their arses!], but in June Hamilton ruled that most had to be released. He said their disclosure threatened 'reputations' not national security. They were released in August following a further delay after the MoD asked for more time to review them, citing 'additional national security considerations'...there had been a pipe burst at Coulport in 2010 and a further two in 2019. One leak in August 2019 released 'significant amounts of water' that flooded a nuclear weapons processing area, where it became contaminated with low levels of tritium and passed through an open drain that fed into Loch Long. While Sepa said radioactivity levels in that incident were very low and did not endanger human health, it found there were 'shortfalls in maintenance and asset management that led to the failure of the coupling that indirectly led to the production of unnecessary radioactive waste'...there were two further pipe bursts in 2021...David Cullen, a nuclear weapons expert with the defence thinktank Basic in London, said the repeated pollution incidents were shocking and the attempts to keep them secret were 'outrageous...This negligent approach is far too common in the nuclear weapons programme, and is a direct consequence of a lack of oversight.'":

(Excerpts:) "Wall Street is drunk on AI mania—pumping billions into what may be the largest speculative bubble in American history. NVIDIA and other tech darlings have valuations so inflated they defy financial logic...America's once-mighty industrial base has been gutted—not by accident, but by design...The federal debt has exploded to $36.2 trillion, with interest payments now approaching $1 trillion annually—more than Medicare or defense spending. By 2035, interest alone will consume over 22% of all federal revenue. Yet Washington remains paralyzed, consumed with political theater, culture wars, and endless investigations while the economic heart of the nation stops beating...In 1929, bank runs took weeks to spread...In the 1930s, America was more self-reliant—families knew how to grow food, repair tools, and survive without constant imports. Today, most Americans are utterly dependent on fragile global supply chains and digital banking systems. When those fail, there is no Plan B...The warning signs are not subtle—they are screaming. We have entered The Great Depression 2.0, and the coming months will drag America into a reality it is unprepared for: hunger, cold, and a social fabric tearing apart at the seams...Even President Trump has warned that America may be heading into a 1929-style depression...In 1929, the survivors were the ones who acted before the crash, who sold early, who stored food and protected their resources. Today, you have the same choice—while time remains. Stockpile non-perishable food [check]. Reduce your debt [none]. Keep cash and essentials outside of banks [check]. Build networks of trust with people who have practical skills [yep].

Because when the shelves are bare, when the power fails, when the job is gone, there will be no warning shot—only the cold, hard reality that you are out of time. A storm is coming—fierce, merciless, and without pity. You cannot stop The Great Depression 2.0.":

"They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, 'Ye are our gods'. For the devising of idols was the beginning of spiritual fornication, and the invention of them the corruption of life. For neither were they from the beginning, neither shall they be for ever. For by the vain glory of men they entered into the world, and therefore shall they come shortly to an end. Thus in process of time an ungodly custom grown strong was kept as a law, and graven images were worshipped by the commandments of kings. Whom men could not honor in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far, and made an express image of a king whom they honored, to the end that by this their forwardness they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present. Also the singular diligence of the artificer did help to set forward the ignorant to more superstition. For he. peradventure willing to please one in authority [Alas! The pitfall of manpleasing!], forced all his skill to make the resemblance of the best fashion. ["Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." (1Jn.2:15-17)] And so the multitude, allured by the grace of the work, took him now for a god, which a little before was but honored as a man.

And this was an occasion to deceive the world: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks the incommunicable name. For the worshipping of idols not to be named is the beginning, the cause, and the end, of all evil. For either they are mad when they be merry, or prophesy lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly forswear themselves. For insomuch as their trust is in idols, which have no life; though they swear falsely, yet they look not to be hurt. Howbeit for both causes shall they be justly punished: both because they thought not well of God, giving heed unto idols, and also unjustly swore in deceit, despising holiness. For it is not the power of them by whom they swear: but it is the just vengeance of sinners, that punisheth always the offense of the ungodly." > Is Canada the Canary in the coalmine regarding Climate Lockdowns?! Canada is about to impose a ban on any human activity in the forests of Nova Scotia. The objective is not to prevent wildfires, as proponents claim, but to gauge the public's response prior to the imposition of more restrictive lockdowns. The following two articles explain.

• "Climate Lockdowns Begin" - Includes 7.45 min vid.

(Excerpts:) "The Nova Scotia source legislation for the new 'don't take a hike' proclamation, is actually more draconian than the gov is letting on: a one-week hiking trip could in theory lead to $3.5M in fines ($500k per day), & 3.5 years in jail (6 months for each hiking day). This ban, effective from August 5 to October 15, 2025 [Will they find a reason to extend it?]...the policy may overreach into personal freedoms amid a broader trend of climate-driven restrictions." - I am so looking forward to when Jesus returns and tells these climate crims et al to take a hike!—Then they'll be banned and He'll haul them off to where they belong!—So that God's Own throng can be free to enjoy nature's birdsong!:

"Canada's Climate Lockdown Pilot Scheme"

(Excerpts:) "Six days ago, the Canadian province of Nova Scotia announced a total ban on hiking, camping, hunting or other human activity in the forest. A breach of this new rule is punishable by a fine up to 28,000 Canadian dollars. Then, yesterday, New Brunswick decided to enforce a similar ban in their forests. The aim, proponents claim, is to prevent wildfires. However, in years past, a ban on campfires was deemed good enough during wildfire season or periods of drought. A full ban on all human activity is unprecedented [All in the name of "safety and security", (Ahem!) of course, as it was during CONvid!]...It rather feels like a mini-Climate lockdown. A pilot scheme to test the public response. Canada makes an ideal testing ground, they have the buzz of a newly 'elected' leader and were at the forefront of Covid measures and compliance. They'll be watching to see how people respond to this.":

> (a) Canada is killing itself! The country gave its citizens the right to die. Now doctors are struggling to keep up with demand. (At the end of the article it says, "FULL REPORT", but at that source you'll note that the rest of the piece is behind a paywall.)

"Doctors struggling to keep up with euthanasia demand in Canada" (Excerpts:) "Over the past decade, practitioners of euthanasia have become as familiar as orthodontists or plastic surgeons...MAID [Medical Assistance in Dying] began as a practice limited to gravely ill patients who were already at the end of life. The law was then expanded to include people who were suffering from serious medical conditions but not facing imminent death. In two years, MAID will be made available to those suffering only from mental illness. Parliament has also recommended granting access to minors...MAID now accounts for about one in 20 deaths in Canada—more than Alzheimer's and diabetes combined—surpassing countries where assisted dying has been legal for far longer...At the center of the world's fastest-growing euthanasia regime is the concept of patient autonomy...As Canada contends with ever-evolving claims on the right to die, the demand for euthanasia has begun to outstrip the capacity of clinicians to provide it." - "And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time? Consider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live." (Rev.9:6; Ecc.7:17; Psa.13:3; Deut.30:19):

• "The Point of No Return... OpenAl Just Dropped GPT-5 (Watch This)" - 8.26 min vid.

(Description:) "Has OpenAI just crossed the point of no return with GPT-5? This new release isn't just another upgrade — it's a leap into a level of artificial intelligence that changes everything we know about technology. GPT-5 is faster, smarter, and capable of reasoning in ways that were once considered science fiction. In this video, we break down the groundbreaking features of GPT-5, how it surpasses GPT-4, and why experts are calling it the most advanced AI ever built. From real-time learning to multi-step problem solving and creative generation, this model pushes the boundaries of what AI can achieve. You'll see how GPT-5 is already transforming industries, reshaping business, accelerating research, and even influencing global decision-making. We'll cover the potential benefits, the hidden risks, and why some believe this is the moment humanity steps into an irreversible future. If you want to understand why GPT-5 is being called the 'point of no return' in AI history, you need to watch this video until the end. The future has arrived — and it's more powerful than we ever imagined. What is GPT-5? How powerful is GPT-5 compared to GPT-4? How will GPT-5 change the world? Is GPT-5 dangerous? Why is GPT-5 called the point of no return? This video will answer all these questions — make sure you watch all the way through so you don't miss anything.":

- and comment from Peter G. on the above vid:
- It's interesting to note that, towards the beginning of the vid, one of the Asian technicians had his English corrected, without offense, by GPT-5, but imagine, for example, if a colleague had done the same: Would such a correction by a human been labeled as racist and offensive? The fact that a lot of AI has been free has created the pathway to make people reliant on it. But now that it's subscription time, those who are hooked on it will, no doubt, pay gladly do so out of FOMO: Fear Of Missing Out — not wanting to miss out on upgrades and improvements. Where will this lead to? People being willing to pay through the nose, ie through a chip? Countries complain about the brain drain of professionals moving to other countries for better pay, but when you get your information, technology, troubleshooting and business advice from AI, then the brain drain is worldwide because you're not using your own brain. The trust factor weighs in, too. People trusting AI to be the absolute truth. That's where the sinister swamp and the dens of danger lie. Because they let it run their lives, companies, banking, medical, industrial, emotional, spiritual—all areas are handed over without question! - and -

> © "Deception, Trojan Horses, and the Carrot/Stick Combo" - Excellent analogies and analysis!

(Excerpts:) "Remember the primary way people used to sell things? Particularly the tinkers and snake-oil guys. They would try to trick you into believing what they were selling was something it wasn't...The purpose of transhumanism is the control of life—with the primary goal to live forever. For the people who advocate transhumanism, everything they do in this life-experience is focused on avoiding death. Technology is the golden ticket furthering transhumanism, and in order to make their plan come to fruition, they must convince the masses technology benefits them as well. How do they do it? Lies, deception, Trojan horses. enticement with carrots followed by the proverbial stick. The carrots are shiny: promises of safety, health, prosperity, or convenience. Take the bait, and the stick follows—restrictions, mandates, or loss of autonomy for those who resist. It's a slick operation, polished over decades. The Trojan horse rolls in, disguised as progress or protection, and before you know it, the belly of the horse is open, and the real agenda sneaks through. Think of digital IDs or health passports. They're sold as tools for your benefit, but they're chains in disguise, tightening control over movement, access, and choice. This isn't new; it's just scaled up. The tinker's old tricks are now global, backed by algorithms and propaganda machines. The masses, lulled by convenience and trust in 'the system', rarely notice until it's too late...The solution? Sharpen your mind. Question everything. Peel back the layers of every 'benefit' offered. If it smells like a con, it probably is.":

> "The magic of meaning" - As I read and appreciated this, I found it to be a unique approach in remembering that "While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." (2Cor.4:18) (Excerpts:) "Our ancestors enjoyed not just a very different way of living to ours today but also a very different way of being... Our pre-modern predecessors felt part of a greater whole, in the context of which their lives were not random or absurd but filled with the magic of meaning...The view of nature which predominated in the West down to the eve of the Scientific Revolution was that of an enchanted world. Rocks, trees, rivers, and clouds were all seen as wondrous, alive, and human beings felt at home in this environment...Things were never 'just what they were', but always embodied a nonmaterial principle that was seen as the essence of their reality...And these spirits are not regarded as being elsewhere but totally enmeshed with everyday physical life...Humans are essentially spirit-beings, even as spirits are essentially human...For all their usual invisibility, the spirits are co-present with humans in the same reality. The spirits may be invisible to the people, but the people are visible to the spirits...Am I alone in feeling, as we plummet ever faster into a deranged global techno-totalitarian hell, that this sounds very much like a paradise lost?": https://winteroak.org.uk/2025/07/25/the-magic-of-meaning/

"For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of Him who hath subjected the same in hope, because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now." (Rom.8:18-22)
