Reaction by a Key Updates reader:

"This is very well documented. I think it is pretty complete in its argument. The two main groups that I see could benefit from this are the Jews and the Evangelical Christians in the US. I can see this study being very helpful in witnessing to either group."

In Chapter 63 of "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve", in which God explains to Adam and Eve (in verses 8-10) Satan's gardening faux pas (which we covered in Chapter 62), God said, "When I sent thee to fetch the figs, Satan went before thee to the cave, took the figs, and buried them outside, eastward of the cave, thinking to destroy them; and not sowing them with good intent. Not for his mere sake, then, have these trees grown up at once; but I had mercy on thee and I commanded them to grow. And they grew to be two large trees, that you be overshadowed by their branches, and find rest; and that I make you see My power and My marvellous works. And, also, to show you Satan's meanness, and his evil works, for ever since ye came out of the garden, he has not ceased, no. not one day, from doing you some harm. But I have not given him power over you." The rest of Chapter 63 and on into Chapter 64 explains how God started giving Adam and Eve earthly food, because, as explained to them (in Chapter 64, verse 6), "For ye are now animal flesh, that cannot subsist without food and drink." I wonder if they've had a good think by now on Satan's lie-laden oratory in Genesis 3:5, when he said that "ye shall be as gods" if they eat of the no-no tree! Because nope, that sure didn't happen!—And now they've lost it all: the Garden of Eden, their ethereal bodies and everything bestowed upon and gifted to them in that wondrous realm! And they're only still breathing and alive except for by the grace and mercy of God!

Satan's next tricks appear in Chapter 27, so let's check them out, in this 21st installment from the "The Lost Books of Adam and Eve", on the degrees and depths of deception Satan tried in order to tease, lure, deceive, beguile, seduce, distract, scare, manipulate, and even kill Adam and Eve.

Chapter 62 - More Tricks: An Ambush, a Con, and Abandonment.

- 1 But when Adam and Eve went down to the land of black mud, and came near to the wheat God had showed them, and saw it ripe and ready for reaping, as they had no sickle to reap it withal. They girt themselves, and began to pull up the wheat, until it was all done.
- 2 Then they made it into a heap; and, faint from heat and from thirst, they went under a shady tree, where the breeze fanned them to sleep. [Here's the Ambush! "...while men slept, his enemy came..." (Mat.13:25)]
- 3 But Satan saw what Adam and Eve had done. And he called his hosts, and said to them, "Since God has shown to Adam and Eve all about this wheat, wherewith to strengthen their bodies—and, lo, they are come and have made a heap of it, and faint from the toil are now asleep—come, let us set fire to this heap of corn, and burn it, and let us take that bottle of water that is by them, and empty it out, so that they may find nothing to drink, and we kill them with hunger and thirst. [Hatred for God and His Creation is what fuels Satan, and here he is again, relentlessly roaring and "going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.' Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." (Job 2:2; 1Pet.5:8)]

- 4 Then, when they wake up from their sleep, and seek to return to the cave, we will come to them in the way, and will lead them astray; so that they die of hunger and thirst; when they may, perhaps, deny God, and He destroy them. So shall we be rid of them." [Wow! And if Satan can't kill Adam and Eve outright himself, he's hell bent on orchestrating a situation whereby they'll deny God!—With the hopes that God will destroy Adam and Eve for him! Satan is trying to nefariously negotiate the situation so that God fulfils his demonic wishes! What a putrid poo is that ghoulish plan!]
- 5 Then Satan and his hosts threw fire upon the wheat and consumed it.
 6 But from the heat of the flame Adam and Eve awoke from their sleep, and saw the wheat burning, and the bucket of water by them, poured out. [In reading this verse, I'm thinking of, "Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: but rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy." (1Pet.4:12-13)—How fiery trials in my life helped me to wake up and get back in line with God, and renew my desire to listen to the right voices and make the right choices!]
 7 Then they wept and went back to the cave.
- 8 But as they were going up from below the mountain where they were, Satan and his hosts met them in the form of angels, praising God. [Here's the Con! "And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light." (1Cor.11:14) Why did St.Paul say, "no marvel"? Because he knew that from the very beginning, Satan has donned angelic outfits in attempts to outwit humankind! Already in this study, Satan has twice used his devious-angel garb, and another time he lured Adam and Eve with angelic voices.] 9 Then Satan said to Adam, "O Adam, why art thou so pained with hunger and thirst? It seems to me that Satan has burnt up the wheat." And Adam said to him, "Ay." [Satan, disguised as an angel, bad-mouthing and bagging himself! Agh!] 10 Again Satan said to Adam, "Come back with us; we are angels of God. God sent us to thee [And now he drags God's name into his sordid scheme! Devil's dressed as angels using the name of God! Beware! Such evil entities exist! "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God." (1Jn.4:1a)], to show thee another field of corn, better than that; and beyond it is a fountain of good water, and many trees, where thou shalt dwell near it, and work the corn-field to better purpose than that which Satan has consumed." [And the plot thickens! Satan is feeding Adam and Eve a layered lie-cake, piece by piece! How many times in our life have we heard charlatans promising something "better, good, many"? I started out this installment, wondering if Adam and Eve had had a good think by now on Satan's lie-laden oratory in Genesis 3:5. Well, here's Satangel (his Satan-angel evil persona) promising a bucketload of betterness! And what happens?!]

- 11 Adam thought that he was true, and that they were angels who talked with him; and he went back with them.
- 12 Then Satan began to lead astray Adam and Eve eight days, until they both fell down as if dead, from hunger, thirst, and faintness. [And here's the Abandonment!] Then he fled with his hosts, and left them.

Imagine what it must have been like for Adam and Eve, following and hanging out with Satangel and his sorry sort for eight days! And what did it give them? Not "better, good, many", but rather BS, garbage, misery! And death, almost! Until the next Chapter, God bless and keep us all, "lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices." (2Cor.2:11)

It's no wonder, right?, that Gatesofhell and other hellish delites want to weaponise them! Thank God, though, that some are catching on and squashing this attempt so that it doesn't take flight! For example, Burkina Faso has halted a Gatesofhell—backed project using genetically modified insects to fight malaria and all samples have been destroyed. On 18 August, work on this project was suspended, and 22 August ended all such activities. Find out below more details about this pushback!

"Burkina Faso says no to Bill Gates' plan of creating modified species of mosquitoes"

(Excerpts:) "Burkina Faso's military government under Ibrahim Traoré has ordered the immediate halt of an initiative backed by US billionaire Bill Gates to employ genetically modified insects to cure malaria and other mosquito-borne ailments...Since seizing power in 2022, Captain Ibrahim Traoré's administration has increasingly sought to limit foreign involvement in domestic policy, particularly projects tied to high-profile Western philanthropists such as Bill Gates...The suspension reflects broader tensions between Burkina Faso's military-led government and Western-backed NGOs.":

"Is climate change REALLY making people allergic to meat?"

(Excerpts:) "Ticks responsible for giving people a 'meat allergy' are spreading further and wider...Why are these numbers increasing? Because of climate change [man-made, geo-engineering-made, chemtrail-made, et al!], apparently. You see, the warmer weather is causing the tick population to increase, so more people are being bitten, so more people become allergic to meat. It's all very...neat, don't you think? Myths built upon convenient myths, each reinforcing the other. Just as people 'should' be eating less meat to (allegedly) help fight climate change, a disease emerges that forces people to eat less meat...you'd be forgiven for wondering if the disease exists at all. We have a recent precedent for this [CONvid!]. Something funny must be going on, because it's all just too much of a coincidence otherwise.":

- Israeli destruction in al-Mughayyir near Ramallah is part of push to forcibly displace Palestinians" Includes .58 sec vid.

(Excerpts:) "The Israeli military has destroyed about 3,000 olive trees in a village near Ramallah in the occupied West Bank, the head of the local council says, as Palestinians face a continued wave of violence across the territory in the shadow of Israel's war on Gaza. The Israeli military issued an order to uproot olive trees in a 0.27sq-km (0.1sq-mile) area in al-Mughayyir, a village of about 4,000 residents northeast of Ramallah...He noted that al-Mughayyir has a long agricultural history and, like other villages in the West Bank, relies almost entirely on agriculture and livestock as its main source of income. - "Bio-Weapon Attack Coming? Israeli Defense Minister Warns Yemen:
 'Plague of the First-Born' Coming" Further to a post from 25 August on this remark.

(Excerpt:) "Unlike Exodus, where Egypt held Israelites in slavery, this time, the roles are reversed: Israel is taking someone else's land by force, and inflicting great harm and death upon those people, to effectuate the land theft. For Defense Minister Katz to make such a statement is astounding; did God tell him such a thing was coming? Or, is it far more likely, that this obnoxious, arrogant, seemingly psychotic 'Defense Minister' conjured-up this threat while thinking of a bio-weapons attack? Israel is not a signatory or state-party to the Biological Weapons Convention (BWC), meaning it has not signed or ratified the treaty that prohibits the development, production, and stockpiling of biological weapons. While Israel has not issued policy statements on biological arms control, the Israel Institute for Biological Research (IIBR) is known to research vaccines and antidotes, but the exact nature of its potential biological weapons capabilities remains a subject of international speculation. So then, how would a 'plague of the first-born' come upon Yemen? Unless Israel is of a mind to use biological weapons?":

(Excerpts:) "When euthanasia was first legalized in 2016, Canadians were assured there would be strict limits. Initially, only those with a terminal illness and unbearable suffering were eligible...Now, the regime has widened MAiD into a eugenics program that includes euthanizing people with disabilities, chronic conditions, and even those living in poverty who say they 'can't go on'. The Québec College of Physicians went so far as to recommend legalizing euthanasia for newborn infants with disabilities...a Canadian parliamentary committee recommended allowing assisted death for 'mature minors' and those making "'advance requests' to be killed in the future once they lose capacity...The most chilling expansion is set for 2027, when euthanasia for mental illness alone will officially become legal...despite the official date for the expansion being set for 2027, evidence has now emerged that the Canadian government has already rolled out the plan in secret. According to expert testimony, euthanasia for mental illness is already happening...Despite warnings from top psychiatric groups that there is no scientific basis to determine when a mental disorder is truly 'irremediable', lawmakers are moving ahead. Critics warn that this blurs the line between genuine medical care and state-sanctioned suicide...In the Netherlands, minors as young as 12 can now be euthanized with parental consent, and just last year, the Dutch government extended euthanasia access to terminally ill children of any age. Belgium, meanwhile, allows euthanasia for depression,

autism, and other psychiatric conditions. There have even been cases of people euthanized for being 'tired of life'. Critics warn that Canada is heading down the same road, where initial promises of 'strict limits' give way to relentless expansion until euthanasia becomes a normalized response to suffering, despair, or inconvenience.":

> II "Live and Let Die? Responding to the Expanding Spectre of Euthanasia" - An outstanding article! PTL! A must-read! Only Jesus saves! (Excerpts:) "...the expressed request for MAiD is not a desire to die, but rather a symptom of an unmet need. No one really wants to die. However, many choose death over living when the psychological stresses of unmet needs become too overwhelming. Death is preferred over the difficulty of living another day, or even the perceived anticipation of difficulty in living another day...Existential suffering can take many forms. Feelings of abandonment and loneliness...Some people suffer with grief over the anticipated separation from their loved ones, not being able to see their grandchildren grow up or graduate, the loss of their vocational identity, and the loss of their independence and physical abilities. Some find these changes in their function humiliating and would rather choose dying from lethal injection over dying of embarrassment. Guilt plagues others, including feelings of remorse over broken relationships, missed opportunities, and precious moments frittered away by work or sloth. Overcome by fatigue, some patients reflect a sense of futility with their failing health, and dwell on feelings of defeat, helplessness, and frustration of being misunderstood. Still others fear dependency, the loss of control, as well as the possibility of future pain. These forms of suffering are not only just as real and anguishing as physical suffering, they are just as treatable, and not with killing, but with caring. The body of Christ is uniquely suited to address these sorts of challenges. Working through existential suffering is our thing; it's what we as followers of Jesus need to be able to do, and what we can do. This is because we have been promised the Holy Spirit to empower us in this vital outreach...So, as believers, our role is to come alongside those who suffer this way, and gently uncover their unmet needs and thoughtfully address them. This will entail taking time to visit them, to provide a listening ear, a hand to hold, and offer steadfast support and Scriptural encouragement...At the core of euthanasia is a desire for autonomy, to be a law unto ourselves. As detailed in the opening pages of the Bible, this desire was our first parents' grave error....a desire to 'be as God' (Gen 3:5). Autonomy is an illusion...Our hope lies not in receiving lethal injection and extinction, but in God's promises of a time when the earth and heavens will be made new, when 'there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the former things will have passed away' (Rev. 21:4). So, let's not live and let die, but live unto Him in all we do, living and dying, until we see 'the whole world filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea' (Hab. 2:14).": https://www.ezrainstitute.com/live-and-let-die-responding-to-the-expanding-spectre-of-euthanasia/

> | The Hidden Bones of Giants and Nephilim: What is the Smithsonian Hiding In Its Vaults? | Redacted" - 56.26, OAAO. Very riveting and revealing! (Description:) "What is the Smithsonian hiding deep in its vaults? For decades, the Smithsonian's own documents have circulated showing they have in their possession giant bones, perhaps Nephilim remains, and evidence of a race of beings that walked the Earth -- only to be covered up and erased from history. In this exclusive interview, author and researcher Timothy Alberino joins Clayton Morris to expose the truth about the Nephilim, giants in the Bible, and the hidden discoveries that challenge everything we think we know about human history. From ancient skeletons unearthed across America to global myths of titans and fallen angels, Alberino reveals why these findings matter — and why powerful institutions may be desperate to keep them hidden.

Are the Nephilim returning? \sqrt{what giant bones have really been uncovered? \(\bar{m}\) And why would the Smithsonian want to bury the truth? This is one of the most important conversations we've ever had on hidden history, biblical prophecy, and the secrets still locked away beneath Washington, D.C." - Have/Are the delites extracted/extracting DNA from these bones and somewhere, somehow recreating these giants? "I give command, and I bring them: giants are coming to fulfil My wrath, rejoicing at the same time and insulting." (Isa.13:3 Septuagint): https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-6IQcgkPFm0 > Review of 'Gideon's Spies: The Secret History of the Mossad'" - Very interesting deep-dive! To all deep-divers, go for it!

(Introduction:) "I am wholly unqualified to assess Gordon Thomas' 1999 work 'Gideon's Spies' as a history of Israel's intelligence agency Mossad. Not only did I know little about the topic going in, but, given the murky and sensitive nature of the subject matter, I must assume that Thomas could publish only what the Mossad allowed him to publish—leaving out information that could harm or embarrass the agency or Israel itself. Further, given that people who work for intelligence agencies are by definition professional liars and conspirators, there is no way of telling how much of Thomas' reporting is true. Sure, he does due diligence with his research and often reports events that can be verified through multiple sources. But when he secures interviews with Mossad agents, active and retired, or when he relates events that only this or that particular Mossad agent could have experienced, was he always given the whole truth? Who knows? What I am qualified to assess, however, is the book's readability and its value as non-fiction. In both cases, 'Gideon's Spies' succeeds well enough for an endorsement...My reading of Thomas however leads me to one rock solid conclusion—that Israel is not and never was an ally of the United States. From the very beginning, it was monitoring Americans and stealing from Americans." - And monitoring and stealing from many other nations and peoples! (Description:) "For 77 years, the truth about Admiral Richard E. Byrd's Antarctic expeditions lay frozen, locked away in military archives and in the mind of one man. Now, before his death, the last survivor has spoken. What he revealed is more than history—it's a secret that could rewrite everything we know about Earth. Why was Operation Highjump armed like an invasion? What vanished team was never recorded in official logs? And what did Admiral Byrd himself admit to seeing beneath the ice? We'll uncover what Robert Johnson took nearly eight decades to say—and why governments wanted it buried." - "Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said... Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? Or hast thou walked in the search of the depth? Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? Or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death? Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? Declare if thou knowest it all. Where is the way where light dwelleth? And as for darkness, where is the place thereof, that thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof? Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? Or because the number of thy days is great? Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? Or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?" (Job 38:1,16-23):

> XX Introduction by Peter G.: Some years back, I was working as a contractor, and one day I drove into a long-and-winding driveway which led to a house built in an Elizabethan theme. The rolling gardens surrounding the house were immaculately designed, with trees artfully pruned and flower beds galore. Once I was done with my work, I engaged in conversation with the owner's wife and, in the course of that chat, she mentioned that her husband had been a hard-working and dedicated family man and of whom she was very proud. "What line of work was he in during his working career?" I asked. "He was a plumber," she replied. I continued, "With all due respect, how does a plumber end up on a property like this?" And her response: "He wasn't just a plumber, but a very good plumber with an impeccable work ethic and a professional approach to every job big or small. He charged a premium price for his work, but had customers galore with repeat customers for decades." Jumping forward to today and with Al looming over most professions, and with certain sectors shaking in their boots, this will never be the case for trades that require a hands-on and expertise that no software, robot or Al algorithm can carry out. As an example, Mike Rowe (Dirty Jobs, Somebody's Gotta Do It) pointed out that there's a shortage of 500,000 electricians in the US alone, due to the fact that most young people took up (and were encouraged to do) programming, graphic design, photography, software engineering etc., all of which are easily replaced by Al in a heartbeat. Carpenters, plumbers, builders, tilers, roofers, electricians, painters, glaziers, mechanics, to name a few, will always be needed and, as this article points out, will likely be the millionaires of the future—much like the plumber in the story above. - Thanks. Peter, for that introduction. And thank God for Jesus. Who Himself was a top tradesperson! Who, I'm sure, possessed and was capable of turning His hand to other tekton talents!

"The Next Millionaire Class? Why America's Future Depends On Tradespeople"

(Excerpts:) "Al can write code, draft articles, even mimic human speech. But Al cannot install a septic tank...And no matter how much technology advances, human beings will always need electricity, plumbing, hot water, and functioning septic systems...The irony is that as our culture pushes young people toward screens and degrees, the greatest opportunities may actually be in the fields and on the job sites...The wealth of tomorrow may belong not to those writing code in air-conditioned towers, but to those willing to sweat under the sun or climb under a house.":

We can learn a lot about God, humanity, work, intellectuality, and spiritual growth and development from Jesus' vocation as tekton—as a carpenter." - *The word "tekton" (Greek: τέκτων) refers to an artisan, craftsman, or builder, particularly one who works with wood, stone, or metal. While often translated as "carpenter" in the context of Jesus, the term's broader meaning encompasses various skilled builders and makers. A tekton is not limited to woodcraft; they are skilled builders or artisans in general, including a stonemason or general builder. (Excerpts:) "The Times of Israel today published an in depth report from a recent meeting before Israeli lawmakers where victims of child Satanic ritual sex abuse throughout Israel testified to the horrors they endured, such as torture and rape when they were children. I am not shocked that this has happened and continues to happen in Israel, but what is shocking is that such a detailed investigative report like this brings the whole Satanic Ritual Abuse (SRA) network in Israel into the spotlight in an Israeli publication, and yet just like the demonic sexual crimes of Epstein in the U.S., NOTHING WILL HAPPEN to stop this and bring the criminals to justice!!! (Excerpts:) "The world is being dragged into World War III not by accident, not by miscalculation, but by design. The architects of globalism — the bankers, corporate cartels, and unelected elites — are deliberately collapsing economies, destabilizing nations, and pushing humanity toward a war that serves only their interests. Inflation, debt slavery, and engineered poverty are not failures of policy; they are weapons. America's destruction is dictated and directed by hidden hands who are willing to drag the United States into a third world war at any cost, until there is nothing left to rebuild...it is being hollowed out from within. The globalist financiers want America broken. Without U.S. credibility, they can step in to dictate terms of war and economics. They use America as the battering ram to destroy nations abroad, while dismantling America itself at home. The dollar system, already collapsing under debt and inflation, is being deliberately sabotaged to force digital currencies. When the old financial system finally breaks, they will present their 'solution' — total surveillance money tied to obedience, where every transaction, every purchase, every movement is controlled. The elites are not afraid of war. They need war. Because war wipes away debt, erases old systems, and justifies tyranny. This is why America is being dragged into endless proxy wars — to drain its wealth, bankrupt its people. and make collapse inevitable...They will burn it all down, then come forward as the 'saviors', offering to rebuild — but only under their control, their money, their rules. This is the coordinated demolition of the old world to build a new order of slavery. And unless people awaken now, unless America rejects its globalist traitors and reclaims its sovereignty, the future will not belong to the free. It will belong to the architects of collapse." - Flee as a bird and prepare! "In the Lord put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, 'Flee as a bird to your mountain? > N "European economies and societies are broken"

(Excerpts:) "In recent days, one alarming report after another has emerged about the European economies. The political elites and their mouthpieces, the mainstream media, can no longer ignore it. Things are not going well—and that is putting it mildly. The situation is bad and will get worse. This is something some of us had anticipated for quite some time, and alert economists have been saying and warning about." - An excellent article, imo, that covers The Netherlands, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Greece, Poland, and ends with this: "The European elites must now also consider the role they will play, now that it is painfully clear that the era of colonization and imperialism is nearly over. Because of this painful geopolitical and economic truth, they are now oppressing their own people...But the true indigenous European population is slowly but surely realizing that freedom of speech and press no longer exists, that their democratic rights have been taken away, and that life has become very difficult. This is leading to major conflicts...Very turbulent times are ahead, and unfortunately, we are already seeing Europe collapse...just like the Roman Empire when it collapsed; things can happen quickly.":

(Excerpts:) "Imagine stumbling upon what looks like a corroded, barnacle-encrusted lump of bronze at the bottom of the sea. Sponge divers off the Greek island of Antikythera did just that in 1901—and unknowingly pulled up one of history's strangest, most mind-bending machines: the Antikythera Mechanism. This bizarre device, often dubbed the world's first computer, is a shoebox-sized hunk of gears that somehow managed to predict eclipses, chart the motion of heavenly bodies, and even keep track of the ancient Olympic Games. And here's the kicker: researchers now believe it's even older than previously thought—dating all the way back to 205 BC. Similar to other mysterious discoveries under the sea, it reminds us how much ancient history

we've yet to uncover...The Antikythera Mechanism isn't just an old computer—it's a haunting reminder that human history is full of lost genius and forgotten science. > | Thow beauty uplifts your soul (Apologies for the small print, but the source-original is behind a paywall.)

(Preface - excerpts:) "This essay draws heavily upon the meticulous research of Dr. Jacob Nordangård, whose groundbreaking book 'Rockefeller: Controlling the Game' provides the historical foundation for understanding how oligarchic networks have shaped our modern world. I had the privilege of interviewing Dr. Nordangård in August 2024, where he illuminated the patient, multi-generational strategy through which immense wealth has been deployed to reshape human consciousness itself. Dr. Nordangård's scholarship reveals how the same philanthropic foundations that gave us modern medicine and education also deliberately promoted aesthetic movements that would make humanity more manageable. His work tracing the Rockefeller network's influence—from the founding of MoMA to the creation of the UN's environmental agenda—provides the receipts for what might otherwise seem like wild speculation. What follows is my attempt to connect his historical documentation to a specific aspect of this control system: the deliberate uglification of our built environment...this essay examines how architecture and aesthetics serve as tools in that larger agenda. The weaponization of ugliness, I argue, is not merely cultural degradation but conscious preparation for the digital prison his research warns us about." - This is a deep-dive; but, if anything, if you don't read it all (which I hope you do), I encourage you to please read the last section, Section 8 "Practical Aesthetics: A Handbook for Beautiful Rebellion", which we are undertaking here at Blue Cypress Haven! God bless and keep you building, sharing and believing in beauty! God bless and keep us all beautiful in Him! > > "Probably a fifth of the entire American population is on SSRIs*. Psychiatrist Josef Witt-Doerring explains why that's terrifying and dangerous." - [This is a 1.53.52 hr OAAO interview (includes ads) Tucker Carlson had with Dr. Witt-Doerring; the reason it's at the top today is that it is my hope and prayer that KUers will please listen to it (I did today, whilst making pillowcases and working on a raft of other sewing projects). I'm including the interview's TOC (table of contents below). With almost 20% of Americans (and God knows how many worldwide!) now taking antidepressant medication, this interview puts the "HARM" in Pharmakeia into an arena that I had no idea of! *SSRIs, or selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors, are a class of antidepressants used to treat conditions like depression, anxiety, and obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD). By increasing serotonin levels in the brain, this chemical influences mood, emotion, and sleep. Common examples include fluoxetine, sertraline, and citalopram; they're typically taken orally, often once daily, and can have side effects like nausea, headaches, or sexual dysfunction—and much, much more! Side effects that shocked my socks off! IMO, I think it's important for us, who are engaged daily in spiritual warfare, to understand the extent at, and the intensity and voracity to which these drugologists pump humankind with an unrelenting onslaught of these targeted, demonically designed, evilly engingeered drugs! A proliferative plague with which they pummell the populace for profit, depopulation, societal dysfunction and God eradication! Israel has abandoned almost all of its previous investigations as soon as the western media could be provided with a fresher atrocity to report on. And Israel seems to have an endless production line of atrocities with which to distract them...Nothing was a 'mishap'. It was planned down to the minutest detail...Don't look to Reuters, or CNN, or any of our western media for an answer...the job of Reuters and the rest of the establishment media is to reinforce a western narrative in which Israel is always the good guy, even when it is perpetrating genocidal 'mishaps' – and because the journalists these media outlets employ are terrified of incurring the wrath of Israel, and Washington...These outlets are all so utterly servile to an overarching narrative that promotes the interests of the West and its top military client state in the oil-rich Middle East that they would rather bury the truth than risk taking on the centres of power...The goal was – as it has been throughout this genocide – to target both the enclave's medical workers, who are needed to save the lives of those Israel wants to exterminate, and the media workers Israel wishes to kill so there are no witnesses to its Final Solution for the people of Gaza.": https://www.jonathan-cook.net/blog/2025-08-29/media-gaza-investigations-atrocit ies/

Meanwhile, Christianity is shunned and attacked in every way possible as its core values are not compatible with the world they want to bring about. The shooter was clearly a Satanist. And he purposely planned his attack to turn a back-to-school prayer into a Satanic black mass, complete with a human sacrifice to Satan...the mass media ignored the very Satanic angle of the shooter's theatrical setup. Was it because it went against their narrative to associate the transgender rhetoric with Satanism?...the shooter admitted being sad, confused, and tortured by dark thoughts [Was he on or had he taken those satanic SSRIs (mentioned in the interview at the top of today's posts)?]...The 'Arm Transpeople' movement profoundly influenced him...This movement radicalizes impressionable people [Due, in part, to the transition drugs they've ingested?] into believing that they are being oppressed and, worse, victims of a genocide. Therefore, the only way to survive is to get armed and strike back...This is the kind of radical mindset used in terrorist organizations to brainwash recruits. (Excerpts:) "Discreet departures by Russian diplomatic staff from Israel, flights routed without fanfare, motorcades that drew no cameras. What does it all mean? Almost in parallel, the United States shifted pieces on the regional chessboard, repositioning assets and personnel in Irag, tightening force protection, readying the kind of layered posture that signals deterrence without declaring it. Taken together, these moves look less like coincidence and more like warning lights on the dashboard of a region edging toward confrontation with Iran. Russia has spent the last decade threading a narrow passage between Jerusalem and Tehran. If the Israel–Iran shadow war tips into direct exchange, Russian diplomats in Tel Aviv and elsewhere become liabilities, politically, physically, and diplomatically. A quiet drawdown limits exposure to a fast-moving crisis, avoids having staff caught in Israeli air defense emergencies, and preserves the Kremlin's freedom to calibrate messages to both sides. It also fits a broader Russian pattern: step back when the blast radius widens, then step in later as a self-styled broker...We should ignore the political theater and track the practical tells. Watch for new air-defense batteries and radar coverage in Iraq and the Gulf. Watch for European frigates rotating into Red Sea patrols. Watch for Iranian media signaling 'deterrent' tests. Watch for Israeli reserve call-ups that are broader than routine. And watch oil futures: markets price risk before diplomats admit it exists. A war signal is not war itself. But when one power pulls its diplomats out of harm's way and another shifts forces onto the most volatile rung of the ladder, probability changes. Could all of this be remembered as the moment the region crossed from rumor into reckoning?": https://www.thetruthseeker.co.uk/?p=314619

• "Putin and Xi to lay foundations for a new world order in Beijing - Russia and China offer the world an alternative to Western hegemony"

(Excerpts:) "President Vladimir Putin will travel to Beijing this week to attend ceremonies marking the 80th anniversary of victory in World War II on the Asian front. For China, the commemoration is more than an historical ritual. It represents the culmination of a century-long struggle against foreign domination, from the Opium Wars of the mid-19th century to Japan's defeat in 1945. Russia's public recognition of that struggle – and the sacrifices of the Chinese people – carries immense symbolic weight for Beijing. But Putin's visit is not only a gesture toward history. It is a signal of unity. Russia and China are presenting the world with a shared vision, both of the past and of the future. For the Global South, it underscores that there is an alternative to Western hegemony. For the West, it is a reminder that this alternative cannot be dismissed. The Trump administration's attempt to pry Moscow and Beijing apart may have been Washington's last opportunity to preserve undisputed global primacy. That chance is gone. By 2025, Russian-Chinese foreign policy coordination is closer than at any point in the past half century, and Putin's Beijing visit will cement that reality.": https://www.rt.com/news/623691-putin-and-xi-new-world-order/

> •• "Why there's so much excitement around a crypto called stablecoin" - Comment from Peter G. on this article: The thing with the whole crypto industry is that even though it's growing exponentially, there's still only around a 7% participation rate worldwide. Those who are involved are the early adopters and the majority of people are still quite cautious about getting involved. However, with more and more interest from some big players like Amazon, Walmart and some mega banking institutions, we will likely see the trend expanding and the use of stablecoins increasing as an acknowledged-and-cheaper payment and transfer option. That being said, stablecoins are directly linked to currencies of equal 1:1 value and are also privately owned by offshore companies and, therefore, are considered by some punters as high risk.:

This article contains excerpts from Part 2 of "an explosive new investigative report by Whitney Webb and Mark Goodwin into Paolo Zampolli, President Trump's Special Envoy for Global Partnerships today in his administration. Could this special 'envoy' be the main person in the current Trump Administration who pressured Trump into doing a 180° turn on releasing the Epstein files? This is the guestion that Whitney and Mark explore as they uncover the past of this Italian-born former model agency owner who entered politics by first serving at the United Nations to support some of their global initiatives, and is now working in the Trump Administration under a new title in the Federal Government as 'Special Envoy for Global Partnerships.' Global 'partnerships' for what? Child sex trafficking? Given Zampolli's connections in the past to Jeffrey Epstein and many others who were associates to Epstein, such as Ghislaine Maxwell and the Clintons, it is entirely possible. When Trump and his MAGA base try to refute the claim that Jeffrey Epstein introduced Melania to Trump, they claim it was Paolo Zampolli instead, as if there is much of a difference. As Whitney and Mark report, Zampolli seems to be an Italian mob-type of figure who is 'untouchable'." - Check out the rest of this Introduction, as well as the excerpts from Part 2:

> X Scientist Warns That New Synthetic Lifeform Could Spell Doom for Humankind - 'If this is achieved and Pandora's box opens it could pose extraordinary risks'" - If you think the world is twisted already, check this out! The Endtime is full of twists and turns, Will this be one of them?! These are the Last Days, which will involve tyranny, tribulation and hitherto-unheard-of atrocities upon the earth "not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened....[And the Lord will] destroy them which destroy the earth, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of His mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming." (Mat.24:21b,22; Rev.11:18b; 2Thes.2:8b) God bless and keep us all Psalm 91ed, and preaching the Gospel faithfully and fervently!

(Excerpts:) "It's a technology that doesn't even exist yet, but its effects could be so drastically destructive that scientists in the field are calling for it to be banned now, before it's too late. We're talking, of course, about 'mirror life' — synthetic organisms that quite literally turn natural biology on its head...Mirror lifeforms contain DNA structures that are the mirror image to all known organisms. In all life on Earth, the DNA double helix is right-handed, meaning its strands, a sugar-phosphate backbone, twist to the right. (If you make a thumbs-up with your right hand, the vertical axis would be aligned with your thumb, while your fingers represent the curl of the spiral.) The opposite is the case for proteins, the building blocks of cells, which are left-handed. This so-called homochirality is true for all known lifeforms. So what happens when humans engineer a synthetic organism where its DNA twists to the left, while its proteins twist to the right? The scary thing is that we can't say for sure — but many biologists fear the worst. In December [2024], a group of leading figures in the field, including two Nobel laureates, published a massive technical report warning that the consequences of mirror life 'could be globally disastrous', possibly even wiping out all life if the new organisms prove pathogenic to existing life, like us humans. In June of this year, more than 150 scientists and ethicists echoed these concerns...'Having even one immune deficiency can cause a patient to die of overwhelming bacterial infections; a mirror bacterial infection might be like having many immune deficiencies at once.' Moreover, mirror bacteria could resist predation by organisms that normally keep their population in check, allowing them to run rampant across ecosystems.":

> | The Devil's Mirror

(Excerpts:) "The Book of James speaks of the Word of God as the perfect mirror (James 1:23-25). If you look into it you will see yourself as God sees you. Paul speaks of Jesus Christ as the perfect image of God (Col. 1:15), the image into which we are being transformed (Col. 3:10). And in 2 Corinthians 3:18 Paul says this: 'And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into His image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.' Jesus is God's mirror. It doesn't merely reflect what is there. It changes you into its beautiful image! And what do we see when we look at Him? We see that our true worth is measured by how much God loves us and that his love is limitless. God does not judge by human standards. We see that our destiny is to be recreated into the image of the Image of God...Look instead into God's mirror to see your true, glorious face.":

The SCO today is no longer a regional structure but a strategic center of gravity in global politics. It unites countries with different political systems yet a shared determination to defend sovereignty, advance their own models of development, and demand a fairer world order. What was once dismissed as a loose regional club has matured into a geopolitical platform for the Global South – an institution that challenges Western hegemony not with rhetoric, but with expanding membership, growing economic clout, and a common political vision. > 😔 "A World of Nonsense"

(Excerpts:) "In a world of nonsense, the truth is and always will be the real currency and it is the only thing that can free mankind from the mesh of bullshit that envelopes him. The liars have been at it for thousands of years. 'You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.' (John 8:44)...the world's finances is the one ring that holds the entire realm under its enthral and control...those who are scrambling to maintain their hold on the greasy pole of power are slip-sliding towards catastrophe. The thing is, they cannot see it, for their minds are blinded by their arrogance and mesh-like arrogance that prevents them from knowing the truth about their positions in life and the all-conquering divine nature of life as engineered by the Creator of all that is and could ever be. They sit atop a smouldering dung heap that, in accordance with the laws of nature, will inevitably self-combust... Each and every liar is fond of what may be called Word Salads – a propensity to fire off stock, cliched and meaningless platitudes and statements which only obscure and confuse the issue at hand. > \int "Hey, Time" - To wrap up this week's Key Updates, here is a beautiful song by Jackson Browne, sent to me by a Key Updates reader. Whilst listening to it, it made me think of so many verses centred around using our time here on earth wisely

(https://www.kingjamesbibleonline.org/Bible-Verses-About-Using-Your-Time-Wise ly/) and that "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever. He that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." (Isa.40:8; 1Jn.2:17b).

I especially like the lyrics,

"You know I'm at your service" (reminds me of "Ready to go, ready to stay, ready my place to fill; ready for service lowly or great, ready to do His Will."—Lyrics from the hymn "Ready" by A.C. Palmer)

Hey, Time

Dear time
On this fair occasion
I'd like to say you given me
More than what you've taken

Hey time
Working well together
I know it's not forever
We'll both be moving on

Look what I've collected
A little box of memories
Somewhat disconnected
Tied with twine
Each a small remembrance
One inside the other
On rewind, tonight I find them
Dimmed by wine

Hey time
Thank you for the lovers
The ones that went astray and
Thank you for the one that stayed

Hey time
Accepting of each other
Hold off on that buzzer
For just a little while

Look what I've collected
A little box of memories
Somewhat disconnected
Tied with twine
Each a bit of color
Winter, spring, fall and summer
Set to burn, they return, a warm blue flame

Dear time
You know I'm at your service
Thank you for the extra heartbeats
I'm not so sure I earned them

Dear time
I've heard you are efficient
I cancelled my physician
Whatever you decide

How much have I forgotten?
In the little box of memories
Edges start to soften
Lose their shine
Each a little wonder
A faded watercolor
All unsigned, on standby
In my mind

Look what I've collected
A little box of memories
Somewhat disconnected
Tied with twine
Could I trade them in for
A visit with my mom and dad
Or throw the ball with my old dog
One more time

Hey time Look at what you made me Sentimental And slightly crazy

Dear time
On this fair occasion
I'd like to say you've given me
More than what you've taken
